ETHICS

The Essential Writings
Edited by Gordon Marino

Ethics is a timely subject today, taught at colleges, business schools, and even high schools around the country. In Ethics: The Essential Writings, philosopher Gordon Marino skillfully presents an accessible, provocative anthology of both ancient and modern classics on matters moral. The philosophers represent 2,500 years of thought—from Plato, Kant, and Nietzsche to Alasdair MacIntyre, Susan Wolf, and Peter Singer—and cover a broad range of topics, from the timeless questions of justice, morality, and faith to the hot-button concerns of today, such as animal rights, our duties to the environment, and gender issues. Featuring an illuminating preamble, concise introductory essays on the giants of ethical theory, and incisive chapter headnotes to the modern offerings, this Modern Library edition is a perfect introduction and single-volume reference for students and teachers, encouraging them to engage in reflection on ethical questions, including “What is the basis for our ethical views and judgments?”
