

Booth #52 & 53

Random House, Inc.

One family's extraordinary courage and survival in the face of repression.

A remarkable biography of the writer Montaigne, and his relevance today.

The amazing story of the first "immortal" human cells grown in culture.

One name and two fates —an inspiring story of tragedy and hope.

From master storyteller Erik Larson, a vivid portrait of Berlin during the first years of Hitler's reign.

An inspiring book that brings together two dissimilar lives.

208pp. | $23.00/$25.95 Can.

Self-Published Phenomenon, Now Available from Random House, Inc.

Despite being abandoned at age 15 and suffering unspeakable abuse, Sam Bracken overcame the odds to change his life and earn a full-ride football scholarship to the Georgia Institute of Technology. When he left for college, everything he owned fit in an orange duffel bag. In My Orange Duffel Bag, Sam tells his harrowing story of homelessness, poverty, and abuse and how he was able to reinvent himself. He also shows students how they can turn their lives around by sharing his rules for the road: everything he learned about radically changing his life and how anyone can create positive, lasting change.

Emmy Award-Winning Musician and Now Celebrated Author

It's easy to think that having billionaire investor Warren Buffett as a father makes life easy. But, as Peter Buffett learned, and shares in Life Is What You Make It, personal success is about building one's own character, not simply using a family platform to get ahead. A musician and composer, Buffett shares the important lessons learned from his parents, an upbringing based on instilling honorable values and cultivating self-reliance. He explains the reasoning behind his father's decision not to give his children an inheritance, imparting how important it is for each person to define his or her own path, regardless of wealth, background, or name.

The Speed of Dark

A Novel
Ballantine | TR | 978-0-345-44754-8
368pp. | $13.95/$21.00 Can.
Del Rey | MM | 978-0-345-48139-9
384pp. | $6.99/$10.99 Can.

Winner, 2004 Nebula Award

The Speed of Dark is an exploration into the world of Lou Arrendale, an autistic man who is offered a chance to try a brand-new experimental "cure" for his condition. Now Lou must decide if he should submit to a surgery that might completely change the way he views the world and the very essence of who he is. The Speed of Dark is a fascinating work of fiction about choice and consequences.

Selected for Common Reading at Clemson University, Ohio State University, and SUNY Oswego.

DARIN STRAUSS

Half a Life

A Memoir
Random House | TR | 978-0-8129-8253-4
224pp. | $13.00/$15.00 Can.

Winner, National Book Critics Circle Award (Autobiography)

In this powerful, unforgettable memoir, acclaimed novelist Darin Strauss recounts a tragedy and its aftermath. In the last month of his high school career, just after turning eighteen, Strauss is behind the wheel of his father's Oldsmobile, driving with friends, having "thoughts of mini-golf, another thought of maybe just going to the beach." Then out of the blue: a collision that results in the death of a bicycling classmate and that shadows the rest of his life. In haunting, penetrating prose, Darin Strauss explores loss and guilt, maturity and accountability, hope and acceptance. The result is a staggering, uplifting tour de force.
