HIGHLIGHTS

FIRST INTO NAGASAKI

First Into Nagasaki provides an unparalleled look at the effects of the bomb that killed more than 70,000 people and ended World War II. Censored by a furious General MacArthur, these never-published reports have now been found and edited by Pulitzer Prize-winning war correspondent George Weller's son. page 21

IN THE RUINS OF EMPIRE

With access to recently available firsthand accounts by Chinese, Japanese, British, and American witnesses and previously top secret U.S. intelligence records, Ronald Spector tells for the first time the story of the deadly confrontations that broke out—or merely continued—in Asia after peace was proclaimed at the end of World War II. page 20

THE MILITARY ERROR

Pulitzer Prize winner Thomas Power evaluates the way the Bush administration used intelligence to make its case to invade Iraq—and proposes a new, deeper analysis of the error of using military force. page 31

THE MUCH TOO PROMISED LAND

"Aaron David Miller... has written the rarest kind of diplomatic history—both knowing and accessible.... A superb and exquisitely rendered book." page 32

—Fouad Ajami, Majid Khadduri Professor of Middle East Studies, Johns Hopkins University School of Advanced International Studies

ROLLING THUNDER IN A GENTLE LAND

Each chapter in this book focuses on a different aspect of the Vietnam War, written by a diverse set of expert authors including participants in the war, journalists and historians, who give startling insights into one of the most controversial conflicts of the 20th century. page 29
