About the Book

One by one, ten very hungry rabbits find ten very yummy vegetables for Mama Rabbit's soup pot. Caldecott Honor Book artist Anita Lobel combines learning to count with color concepts in this mouthwatering celebration of good things to eat. One big purple cabbage, two white onions, three yellow peppers, and so on through ten—garden vegetables have never looked so appetizing! Here Anita Lobel makes a delightful story for preschoolers with the two most basic early learning concepts, counting and color. And her beautiful illustrations of vegetables might even tempt picky eaters into new adventures in eating!

About the Author/Illustrator

ANITA LOBEL is well known and well loved by picture book fans young and old. Some of her standouts include her Caldecott Honor Book, On Market Street, written by Arnold Lobel, and two books she wrote as well as illustrated, Alison's Zinnia and One Lighthouse, One Moon. Her most recent book, Nini Lost and Found, based on her own cat Nini's adventures, was at the top of the list for the 2010 Booklist Editors' Choice and was a Horn Book Fanfare Best Book of 2010.
