Purry Logic

Jane Seabrook

The 37.7 million cat lovers across the country know the secret to happiness lies in the enigmatic glances, soft purrs, and swishing tails of their furry feline friends. Now, this secret is finally accessible to everyone.

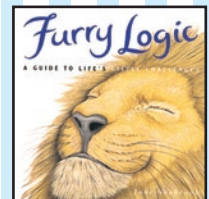

In Jane Seabrook's newest addition to her best-selling Furry Logic series (over 1.2 million copies sold worldwide), Purry Logic is the all-new, all-feline collection of 30 adorable watercolor illustrations matched with humorous sayings.

Add a healthy dose of unadulterated cattitude, and even the most cynical of finicky cat lovers will perk up when faced with the unassailable wit of cat logic. Ozzie, a grey tabby, defines consciousness as "that annoying time between naps." Elmo, an overly loving and agreeable tuxedo, innocently begins with "I know you're happy to see me..." then quickly demands "...just open the can." Dexter, a curious shorthair, expectantly asks, "Have you really done enough for your cat today?"

Rendered in delicate and accurate detail with a single-hair sable brush, Purry Logic is the answer to any cat-lover's insatiable meow for all things furry.

What Canary?

Jane Seabrook is a designer and illustrator who has worked on many of Anne Geddes' books. In recent years, she has focused on paintings of wildlife—and now cats! She lives in Auckland, New Zealand, with her husband, two teenage children, and four cats—three adorable seal-point Birmans named Fizz, Bean, and Maisie, and one elderly British blue named Philby.
