

FIRE MEETS AIR!

(A game for two players)

Aang and Zuko meet in battle. Test your own battle skills and take turns with a friend connecting two dots with a straight line. When you make a box, put your initials in it and give yourself 2 points. If there is a weapon in your box, give yourself extra points. When all the dots have been connected, the player with more points wins.

 = 2 points  = 2 points
