"I'm sure I'm not alone in writing the sort of books I would have wanted to read when I was 10. I was a curious, introverted child with an odd haircut and unfashionable shoes, but destined to defeat an army of goblins, conquer fire-breathing dragons, and become the Most High Academe of the floating city of Sanctaphrax."

—Paul Stewart

"When I left school, I narrowly avoided the awful fate of attending university. Instead I ran away to art school and have managed to avoid real work ever since by drawing and making up stories, but I can't quite shake off the feeling that one day I'll wake up and discover that I'm an accountant." —Chris Riddell

Paul Stewart and Chris Riddell are the dynamic creators of the Edge Chronicles and the Far-Flung Adventures.

About the Authors

Paul Stewart was born in 1955 in London. He is a graduate of Lancaster University and of the University of East Anglia's creative writing course. For several years, he taught English as a foreign language in Sri Lanka. Returning to England, he continued teaching before becoming a full-time writer. His first book was published in 1988 and he has since had over 50 titles published!

Paul Stewart lives in Brighton with his wife, a primary school teacher, and their two children. He lives three houses away from Chris Riddell.

Chris Riddell is familiar to both children and adults for his distinctive line drawings with their clever caricature, fascinating detail, and often enchanting fantasy elements.

He studied illustration at Brighton Polytechnic and has illustrated several picture books. In addition to his children's book work, Chris is a renowned political cartoonist.

Together, Paul and Chris make an excellent team, as demonstrated in their popular series, the Edge Chronicles and the Far-Flung Adventures. The duo is hard at work on future titles that are sure to tickle and excite readers just as much!

Praise for:

FAR-FLUNG ADVENTURES: FERGUS CRANE

★ "Stewart and Riddell . . . start anew with a style that is part Dickensian comedy, part pirate adventure . . . at times pleasingly blurring the line between novel and graphic novel."

—Publishers Weekly, Starred

FAR-FLUNG ADVENTURES: CORBY FLOOD

"Fantasy fans will smile through to the end of this silly melodrama."

—School Library Journal

THE EDGE CHRONICLES: BEYOND THE DEEPWOODS

★ "The narrative will cast a spell over readers from the beginning with its utterly odd, off-kilter sense of logic and a vocabulary that is equal parts Dr. Seuss and Lewis Carroll."

—Publishers Weekly, Starred

"Good fun."—Kirkus Reviews
