Roles in a Classroom and Home

In Eve of the Emperor Penguin, Nancy had three different jobs at the research station in Antarctica. When people live or work in groups, they have to share the work in order to get everything done. Although you don't live at a research station, you are part of a home and a classroom community. Let's take a look at some of the jobs done in these environments.

What jobs are needed in your home?

Directions: Label each job with the person at home who normally takes care of the work.

Job	Person who does the job
