Can Abigail spell her way to the top?

Abigail Spells

ANNA ALTER

ABIGAIL IS GOOD at many things. She can dance the cha-cha, make up stories to tell her best friend, George, and strike a fabulous pose. But there is one thing she loves to do most of all: Abigail loves to s-p-e-l-l. When her school announces the annual spelling bee, Abigail spends her days practicing with the help of George, but things don't go according to plan. Can George convince Abigail that winning isn't everything?

Anna Alter's gentle text, which contains fun words to spell throughout, and gorgeous illustrations make for a perfect match in this endearing story of friendship.

Anna Alter graduated from the Rhode Island School of Design. She has written and illustrated a number of children's books, including What Can You Do with an Old Red Shoe? and Francine's Day. She lives in Boston.

A playful, reassuring book that helps make saying goodbye a little easier.

Oh No! Time to Go!

A Book of Goodbyes

REBECCA DOUGHTY

IN THIS DECEPTIVELY SIMPLE PICTURE BOOK by the author of Some Helpful Tips for a Better World and a Happier Life, there's a new goodbye on every page. Some of them are easy, like when it's time to go home for supper. Some of them are funny, like when dogs say it with a growl. And some are much harder, like when a very best friend moves away.

With a bouncy rhyming text and vibrant, droll illustrations, this book of goodbyes leaves readers with a heartwarming thought: that for each goodbye, there's always a new hello.

Rebecca Doughty is the author and illustrator of Some Helpful Tips for a Better World and a Happier Life, You Are to Me, and Lost and Found, as well as the illustrator of One of Those Days by Amy Krouse Rosenthal. She lives in Massachusetts.

*A triumphant and endearing tale to tickle
 the smallest listeners.*

A Small Surprise

LOUISE YATES

A VERY SMALL bunny wants to join the circus and is not put off by a sign reading "Small Animals Need Not Apply." Though he is too small to wipe his nose or tie his shoes or walk far without a rest, he is not too small to make a BIG impression on the lion, the orangutan, and the other big animals of this circus troupe. This buoyant little tale is at turns funny, endearing, clever—and just right for the smallest child in any family. The brief text and expressive illustrations are great fun to share with a preschooler.

Louise Yates began drawing pictures to go with stories she wrote at a very young age. A Small Surprise is the first published book from this talented young author-artist who obviously understands the art of communicating with the youngest child through words and pictures. She lives in London.

A hilarious picture book about manners, turned upside down!

Being a Pig Is Nice

A Child's-Eye View of Manners

SALLY LLOYD-JONES
ILLUSTRATED BY DAN KRALL

WHY DO ANIMALS get to misbehave, while humans have to act so prim and proper all the time? From the New York Times bestselling author comes a book about manners, all from the point-of-view of a little girl. In her refreshingly subversive world, monkeys must always use their fingers when they eat or get in trouble, elephants are encouraged to squirt and splatter everywhere, and pig parents ask their children to get muddy before they go to bed. Of course, if you're a pig, you smell, and that's not nice. Still, the girl can see that behaving like an animal could be fun. . . .

Sally Lloyd-Jones worked in children's publishing for several years, leaving in 2000 to write full-time. She lives in New York City.

Dan Krall spends a great deal of time at Cartoon Network, where he has worked on many shows. This is his first picture book. He currently lives in Los Angeles with his wife, Rachel, and their cat, Fuzzums.

Finding Susie

SANDRA DAY O’CONNOR

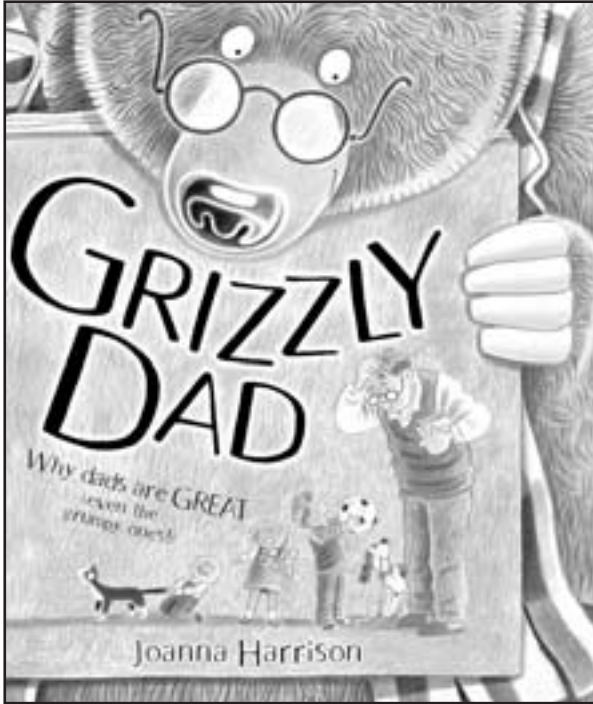

ILLUSTRATED BY TOM POHRT

SANDRA IS GROWING UP on a desert ranch surrounded by animals, but she wants one to be her very own pet. A tortoise isn’t really friendly, a little rabbit is too fearful, and a young coyote howls to rejoin his pack. A bobcat almost fits the bill, but soon grows too big and fierce to be a housecat. Sandra’s parents let her learn for herself that these animals are best suited to the wild, though it is often hard to let them go. Finally, a smiley little stray dog finds Sandra. Sandra names the dog Susie, and the two become wonderful friends.

As a child, former Supreme Court Justice Sandra Day O’Connor got to know a wide variety of the wild, indigenous animals that surrounded her desert ranch home. Finding Susie is a composite of her own and her siblings’ experiences. She currently lives in Arizona.

Tom Pohrt’s illustrations have appeared on the cover of The New Yorker, as well as in many acclaimed picture books, including the bestselling Crow and Weasel, written by Barry Lopez. He lives in Ann Arbor, Michigan.

Everyone knows that sometimes dads can be grumpy and grouchy and grizzly. . . .

Grizzly Dad:

Why Dads Are Great (Even the Grumpy Ones!)

JOANNA HARRISON

DAD WOKE UP in a grizzly mood. All morning he groaned and grizzled and grumped. And then he went back to bed! But when I pulled back the covers to see how he was, it wasn't Dad in bed at all . . . it was a GREAT BIG GRIZZLY BEAR! I should have been frightened but the grumpy look on his face reminded me of someone. . . .

This is the story of how one little boy looks after a very grizzly bear for the day. He brushes his fur (and his smelly teeth!), lets him forage in the fridge, and then they zoom into town in a bright red sports car for the best day out ever! At home they have honey sandwiches and a big bear hug, and when Mum gets home, everything is back to normal. Or is it?

Joanna Harrison worked on a variety of films and commercials and was part of the team behind Raymond Briggs's The Snowman, The Bear, and When the Wind Blows. Her published work includes Dear Bear and When Mum Turned Into a Monster. Grizzly Dad is her first picture book for David Fickling Books.

Like children everywhere, Sugar the cat refuses to eat food she doesn't like!

Sugar Would Not Eat It

EMILY JENKINS

ILLUSTRATED BY GISELLE POTTER

ALL CHILDREN HAVE heard their parents try to threaten, cajole, and guilt them into eating their vegetables. And it's no different for Leo's new cat, Sugar. She's hungry, but when Leo generously gives her his last piece of birthday cake, Sugar will not eat it. Leo finally gives up. He fixes himself a chicken sandwich and some milk. Suddenly, guess who is up on the counter, nibbling at Leo's sandwich?

Features a great cast of neighborhood characters—each with their own tidbit of advice—that is also the perfect tool for parents to use with children to talk about food.

Emily Jenkins is the author of the recently published Toy Dance Party, and Toys Go Out, which received three starred reviews and was an ALA-ALSC Notable Children's Book. You can visit her on the Web at <http://emilyjenkins.com/kidsbooks.html>. She lives in Brooklyn.

Giselle Potter's most recent book is Wynken, Blynken, and Nod by Eugene Field, called "a mesmerizing bedtime book" (Booklist). You can visit her on the Web at www.gisellepotter.com. She lives in Kingston, New York.

How many days until a little girl's adopted sibling is brought home?

Ten Days and Nine Nights

An Adoption Story

YUMI HEO

FOLLOW A LITTLE girl as she and her family prepare for the new baby that will soon be joining them. And simultaneously, watch the girl's mother fly off to Korea, meet the new baby, and bring her home. Here is an utterly simple, sweet, and child-centric look at the adoption process through the eyes of a soon-to-be older sibling. From cutting a red paper heart and taping it above the new baby's crib to telling her best friend about the adoption, the young narrator counts down every day and night with growing anticipation, marking them with a big X on her calendar. Unlike other adoption books, which are aimed only at the adoptive child, Ten Days and Nine Nights is also perfect for older children who are about to become big sisters and brothers.

Yumi Heo is the author and illustrator of many acclaimed books for children. Among the books she has illustrated are Knopf's own The Lonely Lioness and the Ostrich Chicks by Verna Aardema; and Henry's First-Moon Birthday and Uncle Peter's Amazing Chinese Wedding, both written by Lenore Look and selected as ALA Notable Children's Books. She is also the author of The Green Frogs: A Korean Folktale. She was born in Korea, and currently lives in White Plains, New York with her husband and their two children.

Meet a flamingo of a different stripe!

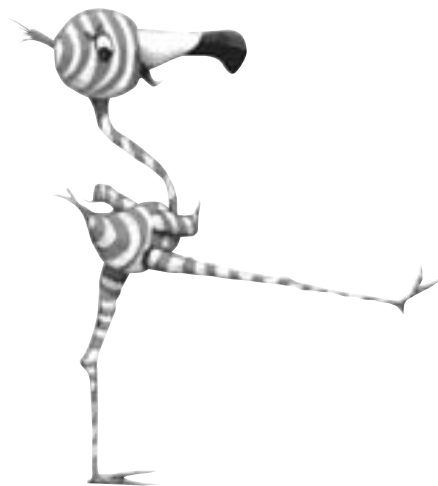

Sylvie

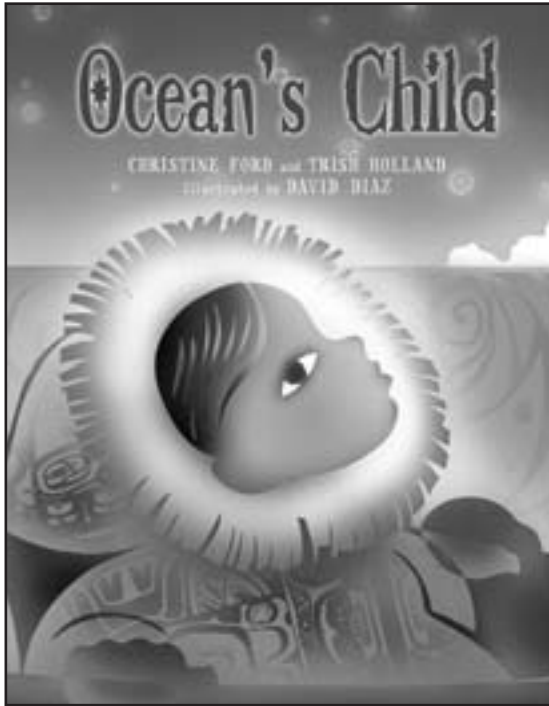

JENNIFER SATTLER

“MAMA, WHY are we pink?” asks an irrepressible and ever-curious young flamingo named Sylvie. When she learns that it’s due to the little pink brine shrimp they eat, Sylvie takes the maxim “You are what you eat!” to a whole new level. Her new diet leads to some very interesting new looks—from scarlet to stripey to positively purple! Like Leo Lionni’s chameleon in A Color of His Own, Sylvie eventually comes to learn that being yourself is the best thing to be—though with her own flair!

Jennifer Sattler’s expressive watercolors bring Sylvie and her sunny environment and creative outlook to life. This is Jennifer’s first picture book for Random House Children’s Books. She has taught painting and drawing and exhibited extensively, winning an NEA grant in 1996. She is now a full-time mom living in Greenfield, New York.

illustrated by a Caldecott medalist!*

Ocean's Child

CHRISTINE FORD AND TRISH HOLLAND
ILLUSTRATED BY DAVID DIAZ

AS A MOTHER AND CHILD canoe along the Alaskan Beaufort seacoast, they observe a baby walrus held close to its mother's spotted chest, sea lions snuggling, and the Northern Lights shimmering above. David Diaz's powerful, lush illustrations bring to life the majesty of the ocean and skies—and the vulnerability of the ocean's biggest and smallest inhabitants, from the orca to the puffin. The book ends with the human mother and her sleeping child gliding home for the night. "Good night, Mother Ocean, good night."

Christine Ford and Trish Holland both live in Texas. They collaborated on the successful Golden Book The Soldiers' Night Before Christmas. Christine Ford is also the author of the middle-grade novel Scout and Trish Holland is the author of two Little Golden Books: Lasso the Moon and Come Back, Zack!

David Diaz received the Caldecott Medal for Smoky Night by Eve Bunting at the very beginning of his career illustrating children's books. He lives in San Diego, California.

*Princess? Pig? Both? A crown may not be

Princess Pig

EILEEN SPINELLI

ILLUSTRATED BY TIM BOWERS

ONE DAY A sash from a local beauty pageant blows across the farm and lands right on Pig, who takes it as a sign. "I must be a princess," she squeals. Pony disagrees, but all the other animals in the barnyard are happy to recognize her new title. Pig is delighted to learn that princesses are treated to pretty princess pies, decadent bubble baths, fluffy pillows, and soothing bedtime lullabies.

But there is a cost to the grandeur. There are many things that princesses aren't allowed to do—like sleep late, or roll in the mud, or attend parties in the barn hosted by the common folk. Maybe Pony was right when he said, "It's a fine thing to be a pig, if a pig is what you are."

The Sleepy Little Alphabet

A Bedtime Story from Alphabet Town

JUDY SIERRA

ILLUSTRATED BY MELISSA SWEET

IT'S SLEEPYTIME IN Alphabet Town. But the twenty-six little letters of the alphabet all have something they need—or want—to do before big-letter moms and dads tuck them in. Not since the classic Chicka Chicka Boom Boom has there been such an appealing way to teach the youngest child the ABCs while providing a one-minute goodnight story. Of course, Melissa Sweet's animated watercolor, pencil, and collage illustrations may beg for a little more time to match up all the toys with the right letters, and Judy Sierra's rollicking rhymed story will want to be heard again and again. Okay, so maybe it's a three-minute story!

Judy Sierra's knack at telling stories in rhyme is impressively demonstrated in her E. B. White Read-Aloud Award winner, Wild About Books; in Born to Read; and in Thelonius Monster's Sky-High Fly Pie. She lives in Eugene, Oregon.

Melissa Sweet is the illustrator of many acclaimed children's books, including her collaboration with Judy Sierra on Schoolyard Rhymes. She is also the author and illustrator of Carmine: A Little More Red. She lives in Rockport, Maine.

A MOTHER HEN tells her chicks about the egg that wanted to fly. “The egg was young. It didn’t know much. We tried to tell it, but of course it didn’t listen.” The egg loves looking up at the birds (yes, it has eyes). It climbs 303 steps (yes, it has legs) to the top of a very tall tower—and jumps. It feels an enormous egg rush. “Wheel!” it cries. “I am flying!” But it is not flying, it is falling. Hold your tears, dear reader—there is a sunny ending for this modern-day Humpty Dumpty. Impossible to categorize, Egg Drop is Mini Grey at her zaniest.

Mini Grey is the brilliant young author-artist of Traction Man Is Here!, which won the Boston Globe–Horn Book Award; its sequel, Traction Man Meets TurboDog, which was the recipient of many starred reviews; and The Adventures of the Dish and the Spoon, a Kate Greenaway Medal winner.

I Don't Want to Go to School!

STEPHANIE BLAKE

"NO WAY!" is Simon's mantra when his parents tell him that tomorrow is his first day of school. After he tries to convince himself that he is not scared, Simon calls for help from Mom and Dad, who assure him that he will learn a lot, meet new friends, and have a great day at school. And they may just be right! After a day of drawing, playing, eating, resting, and making music, Mom tells Simon that it's time to go home. His answer? "No way!"

Author-illustrator Stephanie Blake has created a lovable character in Simon the Super Rabbit, whose cautious approach to something new will feel familiar for parents and children alike.

Stephanie Blake's passion for writing and illustrating began in childhood when she created books for her brothers and sisters as birthday presents. As a child, she also fell in love with the books of Dr. Seuss, Ludwig Bemelmans, and William Steig. After moving to France, she discovered other writers and artists whose work continued to inspire her stories and drawings. The author and illustrator of dozens of books in France, Stephanie Blake makes her American picture-book debut with I Don't Want to Go to School! She lives in Paris.

The Grumpy Dump Truck

BRIE SPANGLER

IT'S NOT EASY being a dump truck, hauling heavy dirt from one place to the next. All that work has made Bertrand decidedly grouchy. But when he meets Tilly, a cheerful porcupine construction worker, Bertrand's attitude begins to change. Can this grumpy dump truck learn to be nice?

Brie Spangler's hilarious new picture book is perfect for little truck lovers!

Praise for Peg Leg Peke:

What do monsters eat?

Monsters Don't Eat Broccoli

BARBARA JEAN HICKS
 ILLUSTRATED BY SUE HENDRA

THE WAITRESS in this restaurant just doesn't have a clue.

Monsters don't eat broccoli!

How could she think we do?

In this rollicking picture book written by Barbara Jean Hicks and illustrated by Sue Hendra, monsters insist they don't like broccoli. They'd rather snack on tractors or a rocket ship or two, or tender trailer tidbits, or a wheely, steely stew. But boy do those trees they're munching on look an awful lot like broccoli. Maybe vegetables aren't so bad after all!

This hilarious book will have youngsters laughing out loud and craving healthy monster snacks of their own.

Barbara Jean Hicks is the author of The Secret Life of Walter Kitty and Jitterbug Jam. She lives in Oxnard, California.

Sue Hendra is the illustrator of more than seventy children's books. She lives in Brighton, England.

picture book about the circus!*

MARJORIE PRICEMAN

EMELINE'S TEACHER, MISS Splinter, says the circus will be a great learning experience. Miss Splinter should know, because Miss Splinter knows everything. But while Miss Splinter delivers the lessons, Emeline is learning all by herself. Who is that joining the clowns? And riding the wild horse? Who's the daring little acrobat performing the stunt on the high trapeze?

Step right up! Learn about the amazing circus acts! Marvel at brave Emeline! Enjoy the fun as Caldecott honoree Marjorie Priceman takes you on a splendiferous, hilarious, indisputably tremendous trip to the big top!

★ "Priceman's best, wildly exuberant style . . . Gorgeously colored paintings celebrate the daring, glamour, and breathless excitement of the circus."

BETH GREINER HOFFMAN

ILLUSTRATED BY TIBOR GERGELY

This rollicking story explores just what would happen at school if elephants walked the balance beam, monkeys climbed all over the monkey bars, and tigers went up the rope! Some of the funniest scenes show the animals hitting the showers afterward—and hogging all the towels!

Beth Greiner Hoffman wrote this school-themed book in the mid-1950s.

Tibor Gergely, a Caldecott honoree, illustrated more in-print Little Golden Books than any other illustrator.

A book of manners with flaps, changing-picture wheels, and humor!

Milo's Special Words

CHARISE MERICLE HARPER

LUCY IS DRINKING a glass of cold, delicious milk, and her brother, Milo, wants one, too. "Milk!" he screams—but to no avail. No matter how much he carries on, Mommy will not give Milo milk . . . until Lucy tells him, "Use the special word." Milo tries all the words he can think of, and when none of them works, he thinks of another one—"Please." And Mommy brings him milk.

Told with great humor and lots of insight into young children, this book will make kids laugh out loud, and changing-picture wheels and lift-the-flaps add to the merriment. And it has a hilarious ending that will really ring true to parents and caregivers who get trapped by their own pronouncements. Learning to say "please" and "thank you" has never been such fun.

Charise Mericle Harper has written and illustrated numerous children's books, including Good Night, Leo; When Randolph Turned Rotten; Fashion Kitty; Amy and Ivan; There Was a Bold Lady Who Wanted a Star; and others. She lives in Mamaroneck, New York, with her husband and their two children.

Wilson and Miss Lovely

A Back-to-School Mystery

JOHN STADLER

WILSON HAD JUST finished his first week of school and could not wait for the next one to begin. He was very fond of his new teacher, Miss Lovely. But something was wrong that day—very wrong. There were no school buses, the school itself was empty, and something strange was approaching. Undeterred and ever-hopeful that he would see Miss Lovely soon, Wilson went through his normal school day alone—he did his math lesson alone, his science lesson alone, sent himself to the principal's office when he was naughty, and more, but still . . . something was approaching.

Stadler skillfully uses gatefold flaps to keep the suspense mounting until we find out just who—or what—was approaching.

Readers will love following Wilson and his day at school right out of a Twilight Zone episode in this funny, sweet, and sometimes scary story.

John Stadler is the author of almost thirty children's books, among them the recent The Ballad of Wilbur and the Moose, Big and Little, and the bestselling The Adventures of Snail at School. He lives with his wife, Nomi, in New Hampshire.

Elmo Says . . .

Big Bird's Favorites Board Books

ELMO AND HIS friends play a variation of everyone's favorite game, "Simon Says." This one, called "Elmo Says," is just like the original, except that a furry little red monster leads the action. Kids and adults can read and join in the play—they just have to be careful to listen for those magic words: Elmo says!

What Shape Is a Grape?

ELMO, GROVER, ZOE, and their Sesame Street friends learn all about shapes while having a picnic in the park. As they invite toddlers to help them identify circles, squares, rectangles, triangles, and more, they (and the reader) realize that the world around them is filled with every shape imaginable—all it takes to find them is a little bit of looking. Less common shapes such as octagons and rhombuses are defined in simple terms.

More fun with Thomas & Friends!

Thomas & Friends™: Thomas and the Great Discovery Little Golden Book

THE REVEREND W. AWDRY

THOMAS AND ALL the other engines are working hard. At the end of a long day, Thomas discovers an old track that long ago fell into disuse. As the track becomes more and more overgrown, Thomas thinks he must be lost, until he pulls into a forgotten town that has been abandoned for fifty years. Thomas and a new Really Useful Engine named Stanley are asked to fix up the old town, but first they need to learn to cooperate.

Based on a new full-length Thomas TV special and DVD, this tale has an exciting mystery element and is sure to become a Little Golden Book classic!

James the Red Engine

JAMES THE RED Engine rushes under the bridge to take freight cars to the Yard, but he is going too fast and falls off the track into a field of cows. Thomas saves the day by bringing a special breakdown train that helps lift James back onto the rails. Back at the shed, the workmen make James as good as new.

The working wheels at the bottom of the book let Thomas fans take James for a ride, too!

BARBARA PARK

HELLO, SCHOOL CHILDREN! Hello! Hello! It's me . . . Junie B., First Grader!

All the helpful hints and drawings are done by me, Junie B. Jones! Plus also, there are stickers and pages for you to write in! This thing is a hoot, I tell you!

Barbara Park is beloved by millions as the author of the wildly popular Junie B. Jones series. She lives with her husband, Richard, in Arizona.

JACK AND ANNIE continue their quest for the secrets of happiness to save Merlin. But when the Magic Tree House leads them to a tiny deserted island in the middle of the ocean, they're not sure who needs help more—Merlin, or themselves! The two are soon rescued by a ship of explorers and scientists. But that isn't the end of their troubles, because the crew isn't looking for the secrets of happiness. The crew is looking for . . . a sea monster!

was watching you?

The Red Ghost

A Stepping Stone Book™

MARION DANE BAUER
ILLUSTRATED BY PETER FERGUSON

Honey Cake

A Stepping Stone Book™

JOAN BETTY STUCHNER

ILLUSTRATED BY CYNTHIA NUGENT

FOR DAVID NATHAN, Copenhagen is the most beautiful city in the world. Even Nazis in the street can't make Copenhagen ugly. But life has changed since the soldiers arrived. His parents are always worried. And his older sister goes to school early and comes home late. Sometimes she doesn't come home at all! David's father is a baker, and since the war began, butter and cream are very hard to find. So David is amazed when his father makes a "special order" of cream-filled chocolate éclairs. But when no one comes to pick up the éclairs, David is asked to run a very special errand. It's an errand that will change his life . . . forever.

Joan Betty Stuchner teaches part-time at a Jewish school and works in the library at the University of British Columbia. She lives in Vancouver, British Columbia.

Cynthia Nugent is an award-winning children's book author-illustrator. To research Honey Cake, she traveled to Copenhagen. She lives in Vancouver, British Columbia.

Will Lyza's 1968 summer mystery lead to . . . pirate treasure?

Kaleidoscope Eyes

JEN BRYANT

WHEN LYZA HELPS her dad clean out her late grandfather's house, a mysterious surprise brightens the sad task. In Gramps's dusty attic, Lyza discovers three maps, carefully folded and stacked, bound by a single rubber band. On top, an envelope says "For Lyza ONLY." What could this possibly be? It takes the help of her two best friends, Malcolm and Carolann, to figure out that the maps reveal three possible spots in their own New Jersey town where Captain Kidd (the Captain Kidd, seventeenth-century pirate) may have buried a treasure. Can three thirteen-year-olds actually conduct a secret treasure hunt? And what will they find?

In a tale inspired by a true story of buried treasure, Jen Bryant weaves an emotional and suspenseful novel in poems, all set against the backdrop of the Vietnam War during a pivotal year in U.S. history.

Jen Bryant has published poetry, biographies, picture books, and fiction for young readers, including The Trial, Pieces of Georgia, and Ringside, 1925. A graduate of Gettysburg College, she lives in Pennsylvania. To learn more about Jen, please visit www.jenbryant.com.

Mudshark

GARY PAULSEN

MUDSHARK IS THE go-to guy for any mysteries that need solving. Lost your shoe? Can't find your homework? Ask Mudshark. That is, until the Psychic Parrot takes up residence in the school library and threatens to overturn Mudshark's position as the guy who knows all the answers. The word in school is that the parrot can out-think Mudshark. And right now, the school needs someone who's good at solving problems. There's an escaped gerbil running rampant, an emergency in the faculty restroom, and all the erasers are disappearing from the classrooms.

When Mudshark solves the mystery of who's stealing the erasers, he discovers the culprit has the best of intentions. Now he has to think of a way to prevent the Psychic Parrot from revealing the eraser-thief's identity. With a bit of misdirection and a lot of quick thinking, Mudshark restores order to the chaos . . . just for the moment.

The third and final book in the enthralling Touchstone trilogy about the Various.

Winter Wood Book Three in the Touchstone Trilogy

STEVE AUGARDE

IN THE FINAL book of Steve Augarde's captivating trilogy, past and present are connected and the interwoven threads lead to an astonishing series of revelations.

Midge's discovery of the hidden tribe is like a dream to her now, their existence all but forgotten—but then a voice calls out to her in the winter darkness. The Various have returned, and their desperation has made them all the more dangerous. They must travel to Elysse or perish. The only way that Midge can help the little people is by tracing the whereabouts of her great-great-aunt Celandine. But Celandine must be long dead, surely?

A story of danger and magic, friendship and betrayals, this is fantasy writing at its very best.

Steve Augarde has worked as an illustrator, a paper engineer, and a semipro jazz musician. He has written and illustrated more than seventy picture books for younger children, and has produced the paper engineering for many pop-up books, as well as providing the artwork and music for two animated BBC television series.

Four kids, a mysterious wall, and a good helping of common magic!

Any Which Wall

LAUREL SNYDER
ILLUSTRATED BY LE UYEN PHAM

IF YOU HAD a magic wall that could take you to any place and any time, where would you go? Would you want to visit castles and desert islands? Would you want to meet famous wizards, terrible pirates, beautiful queens, and dastardly outlaws? If so, then you are just like Henry and Emma, and Roy and Susan—and you will probably like this story a lot. In fact, you might even wish something similar would happen to you!

In Any Which Wall, author Laurel Snyder proves that you don't have to be an orphan, know a dragon, or even be a child to get a taste of magic. You just have to keep your mind open and willing to let it happen. And when you do find magic (like Henry, Emma, Roy, and Susan), you might be surprised that along with all the fun, you also find out new things about your friends, your family, and maybe even a little bit about who you really want to be.

Laurel Snyder's first novel, Up and Down the Scratchy Mountains, and her first picture book, Inside the Slidy Diner, have delighted readers both young and old. She wrote Any Which Wall as a tribute to Edward Eager and Edith Nesbit, both of whom have influenced her work. She and her family live in Atlanta, Georgia. Oracles of Delphi Keep

VICTORIA LAURIE

ALONG THE SOUTHERN coast of England, atop the White Cliffs of Dover, stands a castle. And at that castle's old keep is an orphanage. Delphi Keep has seen many youngsters come and go through its gates, and Ian Wigby and his sister, Theodosia, are happy to call it home. Life has always been simple at the Keep, and the orphanage safe, until one day, Ian and Theo find a silver treasure box. And within the box, a prophesy. Three thousand years ago a great Greek oracle wrote of a quest. A quest on which the fate of the world depends. A quest that names two children—Ian and Theodosia. Suddenly Delphi Keep is no longer safe. And Ian and Theo, along with a very special group of friends, realize they must unravel the meaning behind the scroll of Dover cavern before darkness falls on the world. And before an unfathomable evil catches up with them.

The Gecko & Sticky: The Greatest Power

WENDELIN VAN DRAANEN

ILLUSTRATED BY STEPHEN GILPIN

THE EVIL TREASURE hunter Damien Black needs some quick cash—so he robs the local bank. But Damien Black didn't figure Dave Sanchez into his plan.

Dave's been itching to try out the Invisibility Ingot in his magical wrist band, and here's the perfect opportunity to make like a superhero! So Dave and Sticky set off after the robber, determined to retrieve the bank's money. The Black mansion is a house of hysterical horrors, but somehow he and Sticky manage to navigate the maze and escape with the cash. Asombroso! Dave thinks he's home free, but Damien Black isn't one to give up easily—more than the cash, he wants Dave's wrist band, and he's got a dastardly devious plan that even an invisible boy won't be able to slip out of.

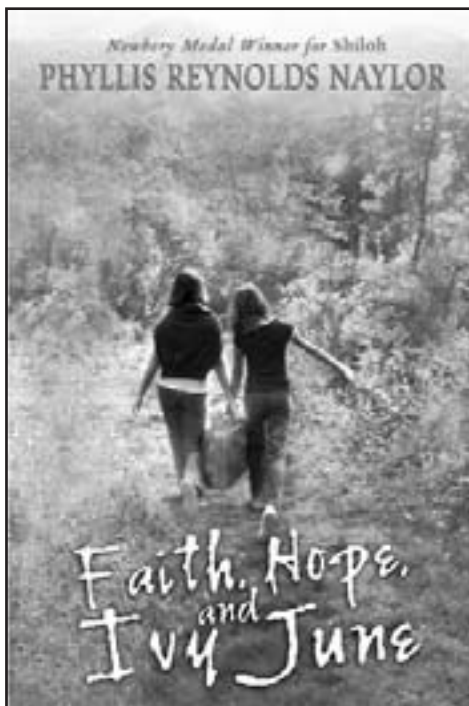

Wendelin Van Draanen spent many years as a teacher before devoting herself to writing full-time. She lives in central California.

PHYLLIS REYNOLDS NAYLOR

IVY JUNE MOSELY and Catherine Combs, two girls from different parts of Kentucky, are participating in the first seventh-grade student exchange program between their schools. The girls will stay at each other's homes, attend school together, and record their experience in their journals. Catherine and her family have a beautiful home with plenty of space. Since Ivy June's house is crowded, she lives with her grandparents. Her Pappaw works in the coal mines supporting four generations of kinfolk. Ivy June can't wait until he leaves that mine forever and retires. As the girls get closer, they discover they're more alike than different, especially when they face the terror of not knowing what's happening to those they love most.

One day, Liberty enters her father's forbidden basement laboratory. There she discovers a world of talking animals and magic potions. With the aid of one such potion, Liberty escapes into the world in search of her destiny.

Pip: The Story of Olive

KIM KANE

OLIVE IS AN only child. She lives by the sea in a ramshackle old house with her mother, Mog—successful, busy, and hardly ever at home. Olive is very pale and very quiet and she doesn't quite fit in. But she has a best friend, Mathilda, and that's what matters.

And then Mathilda decides to be someone else's best friend.

Just as life really can't get much worse, Pip shows up. Brash, loud Pip, who is everything that Olive is not, and is about to cause Olive a whole heap of trouble—and open her up to a whole world of possibilities.

Kim Kane has noticed that most proper children's writers like chickens; Kim hates chickens. She does, however, like being backstage; her nephew, Angus; and, if she is strictly honest, most fatty snacks. Above all these (except perhaps Angus), Kim likes telling stories, and on a good writing day she wouldn't trade her life for anything.

It's Ryan versus the river in a race against time to save his brother's life.

Wild River

P. J. PETERSEN

WHEN TWELVE-YEAR-OLD RYAN reluctantly agrees to join his experienced older brother Tanner on a camping trip, he could never have dreamed this would turn into the most frightening day of his life.

Ryan's no good at sports or outdoor stuff. He'd rather be home playing video games. But Tanner says it's an easy trip. They'll kayak down the Boulder River, catch fish, and roast marshmallows.

But the river is higher than usual, and the kayaking is scary. Tanner isn't worried. But soon after, he's badly hurt in a kayaking accident, leaving Ryan alone and afraid he can't save his brother's life. He's only faced danger in video games. What good are games now when Ryan faces a real-life battle?

P. J. Petersen has written many books for children, among them Whitewater. He lives in Redding, California.

Phoenix Rising #3: World's End

ERICA VERRILLO

ELISSA USED TO daydream about being a princess. Now the reality of what it brings is clear: stiff, courtly manners, dresses like cages, tortuously high shoes, and betrothal to an aging duke to secure her father's kingdom! Elissa wants no part of it and makes her escape to be with her devoted friends, who the King has no use for. But the unseen hand of the Ancient One once again guides Elissa toward a fate she does not wish to acknowledge—the culmination of the prophecy of the Phoenix!

This bright and satisfying conclusion to the Phoenix Rising Trilogy includes riveting adventure, the testing of loyalties, and the return of two old enemies . . . not to mention surprising revelations for our heroine, Elissa—and her fans. It's not to be missed!

Erica Verrillo is a world traveler who has worked and studied in a variety of fields. She lives in Williamsburg, Massachusetts, with her two children.

Mike Stellar: Nerves of Steel

K. A. HOLT

THINGS ARE NOT so stellar for Mike Stellar. He is stunned when his parents inform him that he has only eight hours to pack before they move to Mars. Despite the fact that he suspects his parents are involved in a major sabotage plot; that the only person who believes him is a girl who won't shut up; and that his mother's assistant seems to be spying on Mike's every move, Mike is dealing with the same things that every eleven-year-old deals with: bad cafeteria food, a strict limitation on his electronic use, and a teacher who is so old-fashioned she must be from the year 2099.

With great humor and lots of action, K. A. Holt's first novel is set to give summer reading an out-of-this-world blast of fun.

K. A. Holt lives a life of mayhem in Austin, Texas, with her husband, two children, and an annoying dog. When she is not writing space adventures or daydreaming about time-travel, she enjoys eating lots and lots of chocolate and watching too much television.

Born to Fly

MICHAEL FERRARI

BORN TO FLY tells the story of eleven-year-old tomboy Bird McGill. Ever since she can remember, Bird has loved flying in small propeller airplanes with her mechanic dad. When the local airstrip is turned into a military flight school, Bird is in heaven. But when a young Japanese American student named Kenji Fujita joins Bird's class, the entire school seems to be convinced that he's a spy, or at the very least, that he and his uncle want the Japanese to win. Bird is wary of Kenji, not just because he's Japanese, but because he steals her flight-related topic for a school report and leaves her to write about the deadly boring local marsh weed. But on Bird's first trip to the marsh, she and Kenji accidentally discover real spy activity in the area. Bird realizes that Kenji is actually a stand-up guy—and she and Kenji begin an adventure that will shake the town and may even change the future of the United States.

Winner of the Dell Yearling Contest

Michael Ferrari has had many different jobs but is currently working as a litigation proofreader (zzzz...) and hoping to return to teaching. He lives in Avon Lake, Ohio.

Matisse on the Loose

GEORGIA BRAGG

HAVE YOU EVER done something you shouldn't have? But you're a good person and you don't think that it's going to cause any real harm? But then something bad happens and it turns out that you were wrong? Welcome to Matisse's world.

Matisse has finally got the chance to come face to face with the work of his namesake, the great French painter Henri Matisse. The museum where his mom works as head of security is hosting a Matisse exhibit. Matisse thought it would be cool to hang his own artwork—a copy of a famous Matisse painting, Portrait of Pierre—on the museum wall just for a minute.

But then a tour group thinks that it's a real Matisse. So now Matisse's painting hangs in a museum—while the priceless original hangs on Matisse's eccentric family's den wall. A sixth grader should not get caught up in a museum heist. But . . . what if he does?

Georgia Bragg's father, mother, and brother are all artists, and Georgia is too. She was a printmaker, a painter, and a storyboard artist before becoming a writer. She lives in Los Angeles with her husband, two children, and two cats.

When You Reach Me

REBECCA STEAD

BY SIXTH GRADE, Miranda and her best friend, Sal, know how to navigate their New York City neighborhood. They know where it's safe to go, like the local grocery store, and they know whom to avoid, like the crazy guy on the corner.

But things start to unravel. Sal gets punched by a new kid for what seems like no reason, and he shuts Miranda out of his life. The apartment key that Miranda's mom keeps hidden for emergencies is stolen. And then Miranda finds a mysterious note scrawled on a tiny slip of paper:

I am coming to save your friend's life, and my own.

I must ask two favors. First, you must write me a letter.

The notes keep coming, and Miranda slowly realizes that whoever is leaving them knows all about her, including things that have not even happened yet. Each message brings her closer to believing that only she can prevent a tragic death. Until the final note makes her think she's too late.

Rebecca Stead is the author of First Light. She lives in Manhattan with her husband and their two sons.

This second book featuring the intrepid Zack and his stepmother, Judy, is full of the same humorous and spine-tingling storytelling that has made Chris Grabenstein a fast favorite with young and old alike.

Marlo soon falls under the sway of Rapacia's assistant principal, a grinning metal rabbit known as the Grabbit that seems to have plans of its own.

Meanwhile, back on the Surface, Milton has his own problems. He is determined to get in touch with Marlo and help her find a way out of Heck. But it's hard to concentrate when his body and soul don't seem to hold together the way they used to. Will Milton ever reach Marlo? *Fair: just, equitable, what is right.
Unfair: the life of Camille McPhee.*

Camille McPhee Fell Under the Bus . . .

KRISTEN TRACY

IMAGINE BEING CAMILLE McPhee. She has low blood sugar, so she carries extra food in a cooler. Would you want to do that?

Didn't think so.

And you wouldn't want to fall under the school bus. That happened to Camille, too!

Her cat, Checkers, is lost. And her best friend, Sally, moved to Japan.

It would be hard to stay optimistic, right? But Camille is what her mom calls hopeful. Because really? There are plenty of things to be positive about: gifted reading, a nonsqueaky mattress, eating banned foods, the big blue butterfly.

Even making a new friend. Imagine that!

Kristen Tracy resides in San Francisco, where she writes young adult novels, middle-grade novels, to-do lists, and poems.

The Poisons of Caux: The Hollow Bettle

Book One

SUSANNAH APPELBAUM

THERE'S LITTLE JOY left in the kingdom of Caux: the evil King Nightshade rules with terrible tyranny and the law of the land is poison or be poisoned. Worse, eleven-year-old Ivy's uncle, a famous healer, has disappeared, and Ivy sets out to find him, joined by a young taster named Rowan. But these are corrupt times, and the children—enemies of the realm—are not alone. What exactly do Ivy and Rowan's pursuers want? Is it Ivy's prized red bettle, which, unlike any other gemstone in Caux, appears—impossibly—to be hollow? Is it the elixir she concocted—the one with the mysterious healing powers? Or could it be Ivy herself?

Told with wry humor, The Hollow Bettle is the first installment in the Poisons of Caux trilogy, an astonishing tale of herbs and magic, tasters and poisoners.

Susannah Appelbaum lives in New York's Hudson Valley with her husband and their two young children. This is her first novel.

A heartwarming family story set during the Depression that reads like a classic.

Leo and the Lesser Lion

SANDRA FORRESTER

EVERYONE'S BEEN DOWN on their luck since the Depression hit. But as long as Mary Bayliss Pettigrew has her beloved older brother, Leo, to pull pranks with, even the hardest times can be fun. Then one day, there's a terrible accident, and when Bayliss wakes up afterward, she must face the heartbreaking prospect of life without Leo.

And that's when her parents break the news: they're going to be fostering two homeless little girls, and Bayliss can't bear the thought of anyone taking Leo's place. But opening her heart to these weary travelers might just be the key to rebuilding her grieving family.

Sandra Forrester is the author of several historical fiction novels and is also the author of the Beatrice Bailey Magical Adventure series. She has a master's degree in library and information studies and lives in Alabama. This is her first novel for Knopf.

*A compelling story

SYLVIE BARTRAM LIVES alone with Mr. Jackson the dog and her eccentric composer father, who invents strange and wonderful musical instruments. One day she returns from school to find a message left in toothpaste on the bathroom mirror: her father has been kidnapped. Later that night, the house is visited by a terrifying apparition—a half-man, half-creature who is searching for something and will not rest until he has found it. . . .

Sylvie uncovers an underground world of magic and evil, and with help from her friends, she must hold off a power that threatens the lives of all beings in the world. The Songman is at large, and is determined to steal music and use it for his own evil ends. . . .

The Nine Pound Hammer

The Clockwork Dark, Book 1

JOHN CLAUDE BEMIS

TWELVE-YEAR-OLD RAY IS haunted by the strangest memories of his father, whom Ray swears could speak to animals. Now an orphan, Ray jumps from a train going through the American South and falls in with a medicine show train and its stable of sideshow performers. The performers turn out to be heroes, defenders of the wild, including the son of John Henry. They are hiding the last of the mythical Swamp Sirens from an ancient evil known as the Gog. Why the Gog wants the Siren, they can't be sure, but they know it has something to do with rebuilding a monstrous machine that John Henry gave his life destroying years before, a machine that will allow the Gog to control the will of men and spread darkness throughout the world.

John Claude Bemis began his writing career as a songwriter, and through old-time country and blues music, began to explore how Southern folklore could become epic fantasy. John lives with his family in Hillsborough, North Carolina, where he teaches his favorite books to elementary school students. Visit his Web site at www.johnclaudebemis.com.

The Stone Child

DAN POBLOCKI

EDDIE FENNICKS HAS always been a loner, content to lose himself in a mystery novel by his favorite author, Nathaniel Olmstead. That's why moving to the small town of Gatesweed becomes a dream come true when Eddie discovers that Olmstead lived there before mysteriously disappearing thirteen years ago. Even better, Eddie finds a handwritten, never-before-seen Nathaniel Olmstead book printed in code and befriends Harris, who's as much an Olmsteady as he is. But then the frightening creatures of Olmstead's books begin to show up in real life, and Eddie's dream turns into a nightmare. Eddie, Harris, and their new friend, Maggie, must break Olmstead's code, banish all gremlins and monster lake-dogs from the town of Gatesweed, and solve the mystery of the missing author, all before Eddie's mom finishes writing her own tale of terror and brings to life the scariest creature of all.

Beginning in fifth grade, Dan Pablocki would gather his friends after school, frightening them with tales of ghosts, monsters, and spooky places. When his mother began to receive phone calls from neighborhood parents, warning that her son's stories were giving their children nightmares, Dan decided to write the stories down instead. Dan now battles his own neighborhood monsters in Brooklyn, New York. Visit him at www.danpablocki.com.

The Heights, the Depths, and Everything in Between

SALLY NEMETH

IT'S THE 1970S, and Lucy can't imagine anything worse than being a giant with the last name of Small . . . unless it's entering junior high. Even worse, her dad has headed out of town to “find himself.” At least she still has Jake, the friend she's been with since forever. And when school begins, they get each other through everything, from the humiliation of stinking at basketball (Lucy) to the agonies of Mom's new boyfriend (Jake). Then Jake starts hanging out with resident bad boy Gary Geary. Lucy can't help worrying about Jake, but somehow her heart races every time Gary looks her in the eye.

Despite everything, Lucy and Jake know they can count on each other . . . until their friendship is tested in an unexpected way. This entertaining, humorous story about friendship and loyalty vividly captures the highs and lows of growing up.

Sally Nemeth is a screenwriter. This is her first novel.

The Various

Book One in the Touchstone Trilogy

STEVE AUGARDE

A CAPTIVATING STORY of courage and strength against terrible odds, this is the story of Midge, left to stay with her eccentric uncle during the holidays, and her adventures with the Various, a band of fairies. The existence of the Various, who are strange, wild, and sometimes even deadly, has been kept secret since the beginning of time, but when their world begins to clash with the human world, they are threatened with extinction.

This wonderfully imaginative story of love and loyalty is the first in a powerful trilogy. VOYA says of The Various: "A marvelous blend of old-fashioned storytelling, the book has a freshness and immediacy that will intrigue fantasy lovers of all ages."

"A rousing addition to the durable genre of British fairy lit."

—The New York Times Book Review

"Augarde unfolds the events gradually, allowing readers to luxuriate in the near-idyllic setting he has created and beckoning them back for future installments."—Publishers Weekly

SET SEVENTY YEARS before The Various, the second book in the Touchstone Trilogy follows the adventures of young Celandine at the onset of the First World War. Having run away from her detested boarding school, Celandine is too afraid to go home in case she is sent back. As she seeks shelter in the Wild Wood near her home, little does she think she will encounter a world where loyalty and independence are fiercely guarded, and where danger lurks in the most unlikely of places. Celandine's troubled character finds both refuge and purpose among the secret tribes of little people that she alone believes in.

City of Time

EOIN MCNAMEE

IT'S BEEN ONLY a year since Owen's battle alongside the Resisters against the Harsh, who tried to destroy time itself. The moon is moving too close to the earth, wreaking havoc with weather, tides, and other natural cycles. People fear that the world will end.

To discover what has gone wrong, Cati, Owen, and the doctor make an astonishing journey to Hadima, the City of Time, where time is bought and sold. There Owen begins to understand his great responsibility and power as the Navigator.

Eoin McNamee was born in County Down, Northern Ireland, and lives in County Sligo, Ireland. He is the author of novels for adults as well as The Navigator and City of Time, the first two books in the Navigator trilogy. He was awarded the Macaulay Fellowship for Irish Literature.

The Dragon in the Sock Drawer

Dragon Keepers #1

KATE KLIMO

TEN-YEAR-OLD COUSINS Jesse and Daisy have always wanted something magical to happen to them. So it's a wish come true when Jesse's newly found thunder egg hatches and a helpless, tiny, but very loud, baby dragon pops out. Soon the two kids are at the dragon's beck and call, trying to figure out what to feed her. An Internet search leads them to the library, which leads them back to the Internet, where they find a very strange Web site called foundadragon.org. Here the cousins discover that the dragon's hatching has designated them "Dragon Keepers." Not only do they have to feed the dragon, whom they named Emmy, but they also have to keep her safe from the villainous Saint George, who has kept himself alive over centuries by drinking dragons' blood!

Kate Klimo first got the idea for this book many years ago when her three sons were small and she came across a geode lying among the rolled up socks in one of their sock drawers. When she is not writing, Kate is a children's book publisher. She lives in upstate New York with her husband, Harry, three horses, and one grandcat.

Welcome to Heck, Population: You

Heck Where the Bad Kids Go

DALE E. BASYE

WHEN MILTON AND Marlo Fauster die in a marshmallow-bear explosion, they get sent straight to Heck, an otherworldly reform school. Milton can understand why his kleptomaniac sister is here, but Milton is—or was—a model citizen. Has a mistake been made? Not according to Bea “Elsa” Bubba, the Principal of Darkness. She doesn’t make mistakes. She personally sees to it that Heck—whether it be home ec class with Lizzie Borden, ethics with Richard Nixon, or gym with Blackbeard the pirate—is especially, well, heckish for the Fausters. Will Milton and Marlo find a way to escape? Or are they stuck here for all eternity, or until they turn eighteen, whichever comes first?

Love doesn't always look like it does on television. . . .

Love Me Tender

AUDREY COULOUMBIS

ELVIRA'S FAMILY HAS never been the warm, fuzzy type. Most of the time, Elvira can't stand the sight of her little sister, Kerrie. Elvira and her mother, Mel, fight more often than not. Mel hasn't spoken to her own family in years. And when Mel announces she's pregnant again, Elvira's daddy storms off to Las Vegas to enter an Elvis impersonator competition.

When an urgent phone call sends Elvira, Mel, and Kerrie on an unexpected trip to meet Mel's family for the first time, Elvira discovers that love doesn't always look like it does in television commercials. But it's there, all right—you just have to know how to look for it.

Written by Newbery Honor winner Audrey Couloubis, Love Me Tender is a lovely, lyrical look at a multigenerational family of strong, stubborn women working to untangle the ties that bind them together and uncover the love that's always been just underneath.

★ "Couloubis's winning, witty portrayal . . . encapsulates universal truths about family relationships."—Publishers Weekly, Starred

Moxy Maxwell Does Not Love Writing Thank-You Notes

PEGGY GIFFORD

ILLUSTRATED BY VALORIE FISHER

IT ISN'T AS though Moxy isn't grateful for her Christmas presents. She is. She's just not thrilled that she has to write a thank-you note for each one by tomorrow . . . or she will not be allowed to fly to Hollywood to attend a star-studded Hollywood bash with the father she hasn't seen in three years. But when her father cancels at the last minute, Moxy is forced to deal with the reality of a situation she doesn't want to accept and can't change. Not surprisingly, she rises to the occasion brilliantly.

★ "Resourceful and resilient, Moxy is a pleasure to meet again."

Alvin Ho: Allergic to Girls, School, and Other Scary Things

LENORE LOOK
ILLUSTRATED BY LEUYEN PHAM

THE FIRST THING you should know about Alvin Ho is that he is scared of everything: elevators, tunnels, substitute teachers, and, most of all, school. He is so scared of school that he's practically allergic to it—in fact, he never, ever says a word while he's there. But at home, Alvin never stops talking. Between being a superhero and a brother to Calvin and Anibelly, he's got a lot to say.

★ "Look's intuitive grasp of children's emotions is rivaled only by her flair for comic exaggeration."—Publishers Weekly, Starred

★ "A witty glossary and Pham's simple, yet expressive, line drawings perfectly complement the story about the refreshingly original, endearing Alvin."—Kirkus Reviews, Starred Lenore Look is the author of the Ruby Lu chapter book series, as well as several acclaimed picture books. She lives in Randolph, New Jersey.

LeUyen Pham is the illustrator of many children's books. She is also the author and illustrator of Big Sister, Little Sister, a Child Magazine Best Book.

Fifty years ago, a crazed killer caused an accident at the crossroads that took forty innocent lives. During a huge storm, lightning hits the tree, releasing the spirit, who decides his evil spree isn't over . . . and Zack is directly in his sights.

Award-winning thriller author Chris Grabenstein fills his first book for younger readers with the same humorous and spine-tingling storytelling that has made him a favorite with adults.

A twisty-turny, not-quite fairy tale that is sure to please, now in paperback!

Into the Woods

LYN GARDNER
 ILLUSTRATED BY MINI GREY

STORM, AURORA, AND Anything Eden live in a decaying mansion on the edge of the wilds with their erstwhile father and indolent mother. When an accident leaves them orphaned and at the mercy of the sinister Dr. DeWilde, these three courageous and eccentric sisters are forced to flee into the woods, where they encounter kidnappers, sweets-filled orphanages, mountains of ice, diamond mines, and some ravenously hungry wolves.

Taking inspiration from numerous fairy tales and weaving them into a wholly original story, Into the Woods is a whirlwind of a novel, full of imaginative happenings and dastardly deeds.

Lyn Gardner is a theater critic for the Guardian and goes to the theater five or six nights a week, which should leave no time for writing books at all. Prior to joining the Guardian, she was a tea lady, a waitress, sold (or failed to sell) advertising space for a magazine called Sludge, wrote for The Independent, and helped found the London listings magazine, City Limits, the largest publishing co-op in Europe.

Heather, Merlin,
and Morgan LeFay are back!

Yesterday's Magic

PAMELA F. SERVICE

WHEN HEATHER MCKENNA is kidnapped by the sorceress Morgan LeFay, it is up to Heather's friend Welly and the wizard Merlin (yes, that Merlin) to rescue her. Set five hundred years in the future following a nuclear devastation, the technological world has ground to a halt but magic is beginning to take hold again, and the powerful icons of myth are starting to fight over control of the world. From the Russian witch Baba Yaga, to the Native American trickster god, Raven, the most ancient magical forces are beginning to awaken, and they have very different ideas about the future of the earth.

This riveting sequel to Tomorrow's Magic continues Merlin and Arthur's quest to reunite the world.

Pamela F. Service grew up in Berkeley, California, and spent three years in England studying archaeology. She, her husband, Bob, and their daughter, Alex, lived for years in Bloomington, Indiana, where Pam worked as a museum curator, served on the City Council, and wrote. Now back in California, she has published more than twenty children's books, works as a museum director in Eureka, acts in community theater, and is still writing.

THE FOURTH GRADERS at Aesop Elementary are, well, unusual. There's Calvin Tallywong, who wants to go back to kindergarten. But when he actually gets the chance, he's forced to do the squirrel dance and wear a yellow-school-bus name tag. The moral of his story? Be careful what you wish for. Then there's Amisha Spelwadi, who can spell wildebeest, no problem. She's sure she'll get 100 percent on her spelling test. But when the teacher, Mr. Jupiter, asks the class to spell cat, all Amisha can come up with is kat. The moral this time? Don't count your chickens before they hatch.

Here's a collection of contemporary fables about a hilariously rambunctious group of kids and their amazing teacher that is sure to delight students and teachers alike!

Candace Fleming is the prolific author of many critically acclaimed, bestselling books for children. She lives in Mt. Prospect, Illinois.

But before she can help her friend, Little Fur must learn about the Mystery of Wolves—a mystic order of wolves who dwell in the high mountains to the east of the city. On an adventure that leads to more than just Ginger, Little Fur aids the animals in a zoo, learns more about her long-gone father and mother, and ultimately risks everything she loves to save the mysterious and dangerous humans who do not even know she exists.

Isabelle Carmody, one of Australia's most popular fantasy authors, continues to charm readers with Little Fur—a heroine filled with enchantment, determination, and sensitivity.

HAVING ESCAPED THE clutches of the evil Puppet Master, Charlie joins Wild Bob France's gang, the Daredevil Desperados of Destiny, whose sole aim is to get rid of the outrageous outlaw Horatio Ham and his band of hired gunslingers. Charlie, aka the Lariat Kid, brings down Ham's posse of gunslingers, takes part in a daring bank raid, is caught up in a ferocious gunfight, lands up in jail, and is about to be sacrificed to the Great Bird of Death.

Will Charlie escape? Will Ham be defeated? Only by reading Charlie's extraordinary diaries will you find out!

Charlie Small is a keen amateur explorer. His interests include swinging through jungles, cooking for pirates, and puppet skills. He is also rather handy with a cutlass, and can swim underwater without oxygen. Charlie's current whereabouts are a matter of some speculation; however, his mother assures us that he will be home in time for tea.

Lunch Lady and the Cyborg Substitute

JARRETT J. KROSOCZKA

HECTOR, TERRENCE, AND Dee have always wondered about their school lunch lady. What does she do when she isn't dishing out the daily special? Where does she live? Does she have a lot of cats at home? Little do they know, Lunch Lady doesn't just serve sloppy joes—she serves justice! Whatever danger lies ahead, it's no match for LUNCH LADY!

Lunch Lady and the League of Librarians

LUNCH LADY CAN sniff out something rotten like no one else—and there's definitely something rotten going on in the library. The usually friendly librarians have become cold and secretive. Even Dee can't seem to crack a smile out of them.

What darkness may lurk in the hearts of librarians? Lunch Lady is on the case! And Hector, Terrence, and Dee are along for a wild ride!

Jarrett J. Krosoczka is the author-illustrator of Punk Farm, Punk Farm on Tour, Max for President, and Baghead. He lives in Northampton, Massachusetts.

The Debs are back!

The Debs: Love, Lies and Texas Dips

SUSAN McBRIDE

NOW THAT HER dream of becoming a deb is finally coming true, Laura's confidence is at an all-time high. But when she dares to mess with Jo Lynn's football star boyfriend, Dillon, Laura finds herself at the center of some heinous gossip.

As predicted, becoming a deb is a shallow undertaking that Mac can barely muddle through. Still, things go from bad to worse when the new girl at school starts working her charms on Mac's best friend, Alex.

When Ginger's grandmother asks her to sit for a formal portrait with the son of a local legend, she discovers that she already knows him—and what she knows isn't good.

The stakes are raised for Jo Lynn when she finds Laura's digits in Dillon's cell phone. Is her boyfriend cheating on her with a debu-tank? She will soon find out.

Susan McBride lives in Missouri with her husband. Please visit her at www.susanmcbride.com.

What's this city girl's worst nightmare? Summer camp.

Slept Away JULIE KRAUT

LANEY PARKER'S A city girl through and through. For her, summertime means stepping out of her itchy gray school uniform and into a season of tanning at rooftop swimming pools, sidewalk dining in the Meatpacking District, and—as soon as the parents leave for the Hamptons—parties at her classmates' apartments.

But this summer Laney's mother has her own plan for Laney—Camp Timber Tops—and faster than a girl can pack her eye cream, she's shipped off.

Now, splattered with tie-dye fallout, stripped of her cell, and going through Diet Coke withdrawals, Laney is barely hanging on. But when she realizes her summer crush is untouchably uncrushable in the real world, she has to start asking herself some serious questions. Can camp cool possibly translate to cool cool?

Sleepaway camp might just turn this city girl's world upside down.

Julie Kraut lives in New York City. This is her second book for young adults.

Second Skin

JESSICA WOLLMAN

APPEARANCES CAN BE deceiving. Sam Klein's found that out firsthand. All she wanted was to be popular. But sometimes what we want is the absolute worst thing for us.

Sam discovers that Kylie, It-girl of Woodlawn High, owes her popular status not to her expensive clothes, highlighted hair, and spot on the cheerleading squad but to a magical second skin. Nobody can actually see it—but they can feel it. And if you're wearing the skin, you feel incredible. Invincible. Popularity is yours.

So Sam stole the skin from Kylie. Now she's the most popular girl at school, while Kylie's social life takes a serious hit. Sam can barely recognize herself. Her old geek clique is history—but are her new friends really people she can count on? The skin is clinging tighter to her each day . . . can Sam get it off before it's too late?

Jessica Wollman works as a television producer in New York, where she lives with her husband, the writer Daniel Ehrenhaft, and a small menagerie of ill-behaved pets. She is the author of Switched.

The Sisterhood Grows

ANN BRASHARES

WHEN EVERYTHING IS changing—and you don't have a pair of magical pants—how do you hold on to your friends?

Polly has an idea that she can't stop thinking about, one that involves changing a few things about herself. She's setting her sights on a more glamorous life, but it's going to take all of her focus. At least that way she won't have to watch her friends moving so far ahead.

Jo is spending the summer at her family's beach house, working as a busgirl and bonding with older, cooler girls. She didn't count on a fling with a cute boy changing her entire summer. Or feeling embarrassed by her middle school friends.

Ama is not an "outdoorsy" girl. She wanted to be at an academic camp, doing research in an air-conditioned library. Instead her summer scholarship lands her on a wilderness trip full of flirting teenagers, blisters, impossible hiking trails, and a sad lack of hair products.

Ann Brashares lives in New York City with her husband and their three children. She is the author of The Sisterhood of the Traveling Pants novels, a series that reached #1 on the New York Times bestseller list and inspired two major motion pictures. Visit her at www.annbrashares.net.

If the Witness Lied

CAROLINE B. COONEY

JACK FOUNTAIN KNOWS that what's happened to his family sounds like the most horrible soap opera anyone could ever write. But it happened—to Jack; his parents; his sisters, Smithy and Madison. And to his baby brother, Tris. What made it worse was that the media wanted to know every detail.

Now it's almost Tris's third birthday, and everything's starting again. Aunt Cheryl, who's living with the Fountain children now that their parents are gone, has decided that they will heal only if they work through their pain—on camera. The very identities they've created for themselves are called into question. In less than twenty-four hours their fate will change yet again, but this time they vow to not be exploited and to discover the truth.

In this gripping thriller, Caroline B. Cooney details how love, devotion, and forgiveness make resilience—and recovery—possible.

Caroline B. Cooney is the author of bestselling novels for young people. She lives in Madison, Connecticut, and New York City.

A heartbreaking novel based on the true story of a World War II voyage.

The Other Half of Life

KIM ABLON WHITNEY

IN MAY OF 1939, the SS St. Francis sets sail from Germany, carrying German Jews and other refugees away from Hitler's regime. The passengers believe they are bound for freedom in Cuba and eventually the United States, but not all of them are celebrating. Fifteen-year-old Thomas is anxious about his parents and didn't want to leave Germany: his father, a Jew, has been imprisoned and his mother, a Christian, is left behind, alone. Fourteen-year-old Priska has her family with her, and she's determined to enjoy the voyage, looking forward to their new lives.

Based on the true story of the MS St. Louis, this historical young adult novel imagines two travelers and the lives they may have lived until events, and immigration laws, conspired to change their fates. Kim Ablon Whitney did meticulous research on the voyage of the St. Louis to craft her compelling and moving story about this little-known event in history.

Kim Ablon Whitney has published two previous novels with Knopf. She lives with her family in Cambridge, Massachusetts. To learn more about Kim, please visit www.kimablonwhitney.com.

It's High School Musical—rated R!

Castration Celebration

JAKE WIZNER

WHEN THE GIRL who's foresworn men meets the boy who's devoted himself to picking up women, there's bound to be drama—perfect for a six-week summer program devoted to the arts. Olivia's summer goal: to write a musical that censures men with wandering eyes. Max's summer goal: to hone his acting skills, along with his talent for attracting the ladies. Before camp is over, they'll perform Olivia's musical onstage and in real life—though the ending may turn out differently than either expects.

Jake Wizner's story within a story takes the battle of the sexes to a whole new level in a bawdy, uproarious romp that's laugh-out-loud fun.

Jake Wizner is the author of Spanking Shakespeare, an ALA-YALSA Best Book for Young Adults. Jake grew up in a dormitory at Yale, and some of his fondest childhood memories are set on the Old Campus, where Castration Celebration is based. These days he lives in New York City with his wife and two daughters and spends his time writing, teaching, and going to the playground. Anything is possible. . . .

One Lonely Degree

C. K. KELLY MARTIN

FINN HAS ALWAYS felt out of place, but suddenly her world is unraveling. It started with The Party. And Adam Porter. And the night in September that changed everything. The only person who knows about that night is Audrey—Finn's best friend, her witness to everything, and the one person Finn trusts implicitly. So when Finn's childhood friend Jersey moves back to town—reckless, beautiful Jersey, all lips and eyes and hair so soft you'd want to dip your fingers into it if you weren't careful—Finn gives her blessing for Audrey to date him. How could she possibly say no to Audrey? With Audrey gone for the summer, though, Finn finds herself spending more and more time with Jersey, and for the first time in her life, something feels right. But Finn can't be the girl who does this to her best friend . . . can she?

The Sorceress

The Secrets of the Immortal Nicholas Flamel

MICHAEL SCOTT

NICHOLAS FLAMEL'S HEART almost broke as he watched his beloved Paris crumble before him. The city was destroyed by Dee and Machiavelli, but Flamel played his own role in the destruction. Sophie and Josh Newman show every sign of being the twins of prophecy, and Flamel had to protect them and the pages from the Dark Elders.

But Nicholas grows weaker with each passing day. Perenelle is still trapped in Alcatraz, and now that Scatty has gone missing, the group is without protection. Except for Clarent—the sister sword to Excalibur. But Clarent's power is unthinkable, its evil making it nearly impossible to use without its darkness seeping into the soul of whoever wields it.

If he hopes to defeat Dee, Nicholas must find an Elder who can teach Josh and Sophie the third elemental magic—Water Magic. The problem? The only Elder who can do that is Gilgamesh, and he is quite, quite insane.

Michael Scott is an authority on mythology and folklore. You can visit him at www.dillonscott.com. He lives in Dublin, Ireland.

A fascinating book about the history and culture of China.

China

Land of Dragons and Emperors

ADELINE YEN MAH

THE HISTORY OF China spans thousands of years. Journey through China in this fascinating and absorbing book: discover the land of dragons and emperors, and learn about the significance of its ancient dynasties.

Countless tools and materials that people have used every day for centuries—paper, gunpowder, cast iron, matches, and silk, to name just a few—were first made in China. Chinese society has progressed through major changes, but lucky numbers, festivals, beliefs about colors, the practice of footbinding, the building of the Great Wall, and the larger-than-life people of China are all integral parts of this ancient civilization and still have an impact on life today.

Bestselling author Adeline Yen Mah explores an extraordinary view of the great story of China over the last two millennia in this nonfiction work, which also includes black-and-white photographs.

Adeline Yen Mah divides her time between Los Angeles, London, Shanghai, and Hong Kong. You can visit her at www.adelineyenmah.com.

Guinevere's Gamble

Chrysalis Queen Quartet

NANCY MCKENZIE

MUCH HAS CHANGED over the last few months in Gwynedd, but Guinevere is still uncertain where her future lies. She recently made the unsettling discovery that she has been guarded all her life by a pagan tribe who believes she is destined to save them—they believe she and the great king will one day wed. But this prophecy is so at odds with her inferior position in the castle as Queen Alyse and King Pellinore's lowly ward, she can't believe it's true. Now more complications arise as Guinevere and her cousin accompany Alyse and Pellinore to a meeting between Welsh kings, presided over by one of the High King Arthur's knights. While there, Guinevere discovers she has a powerful enemy: King Arthur's sister, Princess Morgaine. But why would Morgaine hate her?

Guinevere is tumbling into her destiny in ways she never imagined, and she may soon have to face the prophecy with new eyes. . . .

Nancy McKenzie is the author of several novels based on Arthurian tales. She lives in Danbury, Connecticut.

*Funny and touching—

It's Not You, It's Me

KERRY COHEN HOFFMANN

ZOE LOVES HENRY.

Henry dumps Zoe.

Zoe wants Henry back—at any cost.

Zoe's two best friends come up with a plan to help Zoe get what she thinks she wants. The plan: make Henry jealous.

But the plan takes a surprising turn. . . .

Spanning thirty-one days in the cycle of a breakup, Kerry Cohen Hoffmann's humorous and poignant novel depicts a girl whose single-minded focus on her ex-boyfriend has pulled her far from the person she most needs to win back—herself.

Kerry Cohen Hoffmann's young adult novels include The Good Girl and Easy (S&S), an ALA-YALSA Quick Pick and finalist for the Oregon Book Award. She lives in Portland, Oregon.

Meet Mare, a grandmother with flair and a fascinating past.

Mare's War

TANITA S. DAVIS

OCTAVIA AND TALI are dreading the road trip their parents are forcing them to take with their grandmother over the summer. After all, Mare isn't your typical grandmother. She drives a red sports car, wears stiletto shoes, flippy wigs, and push-up bras, and insists that she's too young to be called Grandma. But somewhere on the road, Octavia and Tali discover there's more to Mare than what you see. She was once a willful teenager who escaped her less-than-perfect life in the deep South and lied about her age to join the African American battalion of the Women's Army Corps during World War II.

Told in alternating chapters, half of which follow Mare through her experiences as a WAC member and half of which follow Mare and her granddaughters on the road in the present day, this novel introduces a larger-than-life character who will stay with readers long after they finish reading.

Tanita S. Davis is the author of the young adult novel A la Carte, published by Knopf in June 2008. A native Californian, she lives in Glasgow, Scotland.

Likely Story: Red Carpet Riot

DAVID VAN ETTEN

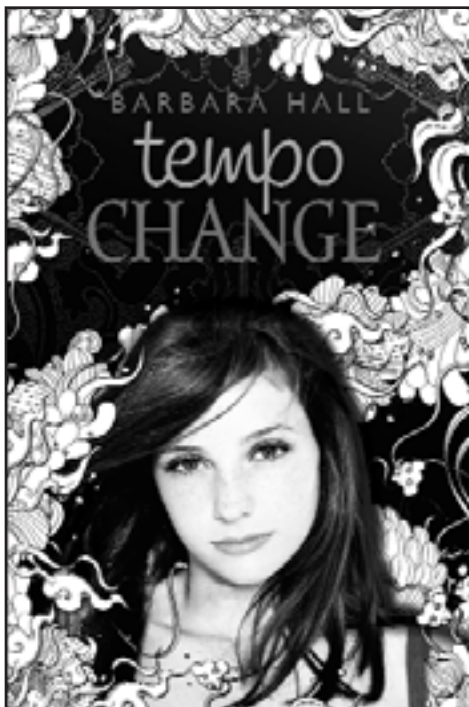

WHEN WE LAST left Mallory, her first show had just aired to rave ratings; her conniving mother was engaged to her dreaded producer boyfriend, Richard; she wasn't sure if her boyfriend, Keith, would stick by her; and the school secretary had some unwelcome news about her student status. Now, just when her show gets a Daytime Emmy nomination, she's got to fend off sneaky saboteurs, decide between Keith and Dallas, her show's hunky star, break off her mother's engagement, and pass gym class!

Hang on for a wild ride that takes us to the end of Mallory's story, and maybe her rope, as the Emmy Awards inch closer and closer and she's got to do-si-do as fast as she can to keep up.

David Van Etten is actually three writers: Chris Van Etten is a full-time writer for ABC's One Life to Live; David Ozanich is a freelance writer and playwright; and David Levithan is the author of Boy Meets Boy and many other young adult novels for Knopf.

It's tough enough defining your identity—imagine if your father was a rock legend.

Tempo Change

BARBARA HALL

BLANCHE KELLY'S DAD is a famous indie rock icon, but not many people at the private school she attends on scholarship know this. Her father left when she was in the first grade, and she can't quite forgive her mom for not understanding that an artist like her dad needs the time and space to connect to his muse.

When Blanche creates an all-girl rock band, their sound captures a wide audience and the band is invited to compete at the Coachella Music Festival. Blanche feels this could be the perfect time for a reunion with her father. Won't he be proud to hear her band? Won't he be happy to get to know his only daughter?

Author Barbara Hall sensitively explores the expectations between parents and teens, as well as the value of learning about your past to make your own future.

Barbara Hall is the author of eight novels and has written and produced numerous television shows, including Joan of Arcadia. She lives in Santa Monica, California, with her daughter.

Are Alyzon's new abilities
 a blessing . . . or a curse?

Alyzon Whitestarr

ISOBELLE CARMODY

ALYZON WHITESTARR DOESN'T take after her musically talented father or her nocturnal, artistic mother. In fact, she's the most normal member of a very eccentric family . . . until the day that an accident leaves her more unique than she ever could have dreamed.

Suddenly colors are more vibrant to Alyzon; her memory is flawless; but strangest of all is Alyzon's sense of smell. Her best friend smells of a comforting sea breeze. She registers her father's contentment as the sweet scent of caramelized sugar. But why does the cutest guy in school smell so rancid?

With Alyzon's extrasensory perception comes intrigue and danger, as she becomes aware of the dark secrets and hidden ambitions that threaten her family. In the end, being different might be less of a blessing than a curse. . .

Isabelle Carmody is an award-winning, critically acclaimed fantasy writer in her native Australia. She is the author of the Little Fur quartet and the Obernewtyn Chronicles. She lives in Apollo Bay, Australia, and Prague, Czech Republic.

Fairy Lust

CYN BALOG

MORGAN SPARKS HAS always known that she and her boyfriend, Cam, are made for each other. But when Cam's cousin Pip comes to stay with the family, Cam seems depressed. Finally Cam confesses to Morgan what's going on: Cam is a fairy. The night he was born, fairies came down and switched him with a healthy human boy. Nobody expected Cam to live, and nobody expected his biological brother, heir to the fairy throne, to die. But both things happened, and now the fairies want Cam back to take his rightful place as Fairy King.

Even as Cam physically changes, becoming more miserable each day, he and Morgan pledge to fool the fairies and stay together forever. But by the time Cam has to decide once and for all what to do, Morgan's no longer sure what's best for everyone, or whether her and Cam's love can weather an uncertain future.

Cyn Balog is the race and event manager for Runner's World, Running Times, and Bicycling magazines. She lives in Pennsylvania with her husband and infant daughter.

Days of Little Texas

R. A. NELSON

WELCOME, ALL YE faithful—and otherwise—to a ghost story, a romance, and a reckoning unlike anything you’ve read before. Acclaimed YA author R. A. Nelson delivers a tantalizing tale set in the environs of the evangelical revival circuit and centered around Ronald Earl, who at ten became the electrifying “boy wonder” preacher known as Little Texas. Now sixteen, though the faithful still come and roar with praise and devotion, Ronald Earl is beginning to have doubts that he is worthy of and can continue his calling. Doubts that only intensify when his faith and life are tested by a mysterious girl who he was supposed to have healed, but who is now showing up at the fringe of every stop on the circuit. Is she merely devoted, or is she haunting him? Fascinating and original, this is an unusual story whose reverb will be deeply felt and which will inspire lively book discussion.

R. A. Nelson made his literary debut with the “terrifying [and] poetic” Teach Me, followed by the “incandescent” Breathe My Name (both quotes from Kirkus Reviews). He and his family live in north Alabama. Visit him on the Web at www.ranelson.com.

Girl to the Core

STACEY GOLDBLATT

MOLLY O'KEEFE'S BOYFRIEND, Trevor, is moving too fast, but when she catches him kissing his ex, Molly thinks it might be her own fault. After all, it was her idea to take things slow. In fact, her best friend, Vanessa, recently talked her into buying a neon spandex Halloween costume, and her nine-year-old neighbor, Claire, somehow got her to participate in a sixteen-mile walkathon. Despite Trevor's apologies and Vanessa's attempts to hook her up with rebound guys, Molly is utterly heartbroken. Then she finds comfort in a most unusual place: Girl Corps, a club Claire belongs to. As a fifteen-year-old, Molly hardly fits the Girl Corps profile. Still, she can't deny that being with the little girls in the group gives her a sense of confidence and identity.

But now Molly's newly enlightened self is at odds with almost everyone in her life. As for Trevor, he won't leave Molly alone, and that means trouble, because whether she likes it or not, Molly still has feelings for him. Will Molly turn her back on what she has learned, or will she stand her ground and embrace the strong girl at her core?

A warmhearted, delectable novel about what it means to love and be loved.

The Sweet Life of Stella Madison

LARA M. ZEISES

WHEN STELLA MADISON'S food-loving parents help her land a summer job at the local newspaper, there's only one catch: she's expected to write about food. Luckily, Stella has Jeremy, the hot new intern at her mom's restaurant, who's more than happy to help. But where does that leave Stella's boyfriend, Max, who recently dropped the L-word? And could her separated parents be cooking up romances of their own?

"Stella Madison's summer of food and love is a great read full of broken hearts, broken promises, and broken eggs. A must for anyone who eats."

—E. Lockhart, author of The Boyfriend List

"This book's got all the right ingredients: friends, family, boys, and food. The perfect summer read!"

—Sarah Dessen, New York Times bestselling author of Lock and Key and Just Listen

Lara M. Zeises lives in Wilmington, Delaware.

The Treasure Map of Boys

Noel, Jackson, Finn, Hutch, Gideon—and me, Ruby Oliver

E. LOCKHART

RUBY IS BACK at Tate Prep, and it's her thirty-seventh week in the state of Noboyfriend. Her panic attacks are bad, her love life is even worse, and what's more:

Noel is writing her notes, Jackson is giving her frogs, Gideon is helping her cook, and Finn is making her brownies. Rumors are flying, and Ruby's already-sucky reputation is heading downhill.

Not only that, she's also: running a bake sale, learning the secrets of heavy-metal therapy, encountering some seriously smelly feet, defending the rights of pygmy goats, and bodyguarding Noel from unwanted advances.

In this companion novel to The Boyfriend List and The Boy Book, Ruby struggles to secure some sort of mental health, to understand what constitutes a real friendship, and to find true love—if such a thing exists.

E. Lockhart is the author of two other books about Ruby Oliver—The Boyfriend List and The Boy Book—and of Fly on the Wall. She lives in Brooklyn.

*Half-human, half-angel,
 Meridian Sozu has a dark responsibility.*

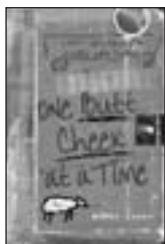

Meridian

AMBER KIZER

SIXTEEN-YEAR-OLD MERIDIAN HAS been surrounded by death ever since she can remember. As a child, insects, mice, and salamanders would burrow into her bedclothes and die. At her elementary school, she was blamed for a classmate's tragic accident. And on her sixteenth birthday, a car crashes in front of her family home—and Meridian's body explodes in pain.

Before she can fully recover, Meridian is told that she's a danger to her family and hustled off to her great-aunt's house in Revelation, Colorado. It's there that she learns that she is a Fenestra—the half-angel, half-human link between the living and the dead. But Meridian and her sworn protector and love, Tens, face great danger from the Aternociti, a band of dark forces who capture vulnerable souls on the brink of death and cause chaos.

Amber Kizer is not one of those authors who wrote complete books at the age of three and always knew she wanted to be a writer. She merely enjoyed reading until a health challenge forced her to start living outside the box. She lives in the Seattle area on a veritable Noah's Ark—without the big boat and only some of the rain. The Monster Variations

DANIEL KRAUS

SOMEONE IS KILLING boys in a small town. The murder weapon is a truck, and the only protection is a curfew enacted to keep kids off the streets. But it's summer—and that alone is worth the risk of staying out late for James, Willie, and Reggie.

Willie, who lost his arm in the first hit-and-run attack, finds it hard to keep up with his two best friends as they leave childhood behind. All of them are changing, hounded by their parents, hunted by the killer, and haunted by the “monster,” a dead thing that guards the dangerous gateway between youth and manhood. But that's not all: shadowing the boys everywhere is Mel Herman, the mysterious and brilliant bully whose dark secrets may hold the key to their survival. As the summer burns away, these forces collide, and it will take compassion, brains, and guts for the boys to overcome their demons—and not become monsters themselves.

In this chilling and poignant debut novel, Daniel Kraus deftly explores the choices boys grapple with and the revelations that occur as they become men.

Daniel Kraus is a writer, editor, and filmmaker. He lives with his wife in Chicago.

Joel Gustafson's journey toward becoming a man continues.

When the Snow Fell

HENNING MANKELL

AS IT HAS in the past, the first snow of the year signifies to Joel Gustafson his very own New Year's Eve. So when the snow begins to fall on a cold November day, Joel gets busy making new resolutions—three, to be exact.

As the winter days pass, life becomes ever more complicated. Joel has questions and the answers don't necessarily come easily, but he is determined to keep his resolutions—for his father, for himself, and for their future.

In this companion novel to A Bridge to the Stars and Shadows in the Twilight, readers follow Joel's journey as he realizes along the way that it will require determination, strength, and valor to truly become a man.

Henning Mankell is the prizewinning and internationally acclaimed author of novels for both adults and young people.

An all-new masterpiece from the author of King Dork.

Andromeda Klein

FRANK PORTMAN

ANDROMEDA KLEIN is a quiet, bookish girl with an unexciting life. . . . Until her world takes a turn for the weird. Strangely and suddenly, Andromeda's tarot readings have begun to predict events with bizarrely literal accuracy. And what seems impossible is beginning to look more and more plausible—Andromeda's once-upon-a-time partner-in-occultism, Daisy Wasserstrom, has, maybe, begun to harass her. Which wouldn't be quite so strange if Daisy hadn't died a year ago.

But what is weird is arguably getting worse. Omens, dreams, numerology, seeming coincidences, hidden cards, twin cell-phones, and images from a file of comics drawn by a previous inhabitant of her family's suburban duplex are all coming together to hint at buried truths. Only the more Andromeda uncovers, the more she's going to want to leave it all buried.

Frank Portman lives in Oakland, California. You can visit him on the Web at www.frankportman.com.

One day, something's going to snap. . . .

Diary of a Witness

CATHERINE RYAN HYDE

ERNIE DOESN'T HAVE a lot of friends at school. Just Will. They have stuff in common—like fishing. But more important, they have common enemies: the school jocks, who seem to find bullying just another sport.

For the most part, Ernie and Will take life at high school in stride. Until Will has one very bad day. Now nothing is remotely funny. Ernie finds himself a witness—to loss, to humiliation, and to Will's anger—an anger that's building each and every moment.

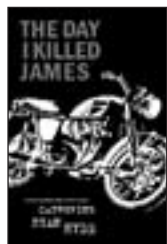

Ernie doesn't want to believe his best friend is changing, but he can't deny the truth. Soon he has a choice: join or die. Or can he find another way?

Girl, Barely 15: Flirting for England

SUE LIMB

JESS JORDAN IS barely fifteen. Fred is her often-aggravating best guy friend; her father is a lonely bachelor; Flora is her gorgeous best friend, a constant liability; and Ben Jones is barely a twinkle in her eye. Into this innocent scene are dropped thirty or so helpless French exchange students. Jess and her mother are assigned to house Eduoard, a shy, awkward, and painfully English-deprived boy Jess's age. To counter what Jess fears is Eduoard's growing crush on her, Jess convinces her friend Fred to pose as her boyfriend, but he refuses to take their fake relationship seriously. Add a gorgeous, womanizing French student, an ill-fated camping trip in a student's backyard, and Flora just being, well, Flora, and you have all the makings of an international incident.

Sue Limb's writing career has included various assignments for magazines and newspapers, radio work, television series, and several books for adults and children. She lives in Gloucestershire, England.

Classic Judy Blume novels for a new generation.

Are You There God? It's Me, Margaret.

JUDY BLUME

MARGARET SIMON, ALMOST twelve, has just moved from New York City to the suburbs, and she's anxious to fit in with her new friends. When she's asked to join a secret club she jumps at the chance. But when the girls start talking about boys, bras, and getting their first periods, Margaret starts to wonder if she's normal. There are some things about growing up that are hard for her to talk about, even with her friends. Lucky for Margaret, she's got someone else to confide in . . . someone who always listens.

Here's to You, Rachel Robinson

TROUBLE IN RACHEL'S family is spelled with a capital C—for Charles.

From the outside, Rachel looks like the perfect daughter in the perfect family. She's a straight-A student, a gifted musician, and a good friend. But her older brother, Charles, seems determined to ruin everything Rachel feels as if it's all falling apart. Her best friends, Stephanie and Alison, find Charles funny. They urge Rachel to lighten up and enjoy the end of seventh grade. Easy for them to say. Not so easy for Rachel. Not even when Jeremy Dragon, the coolest boy in ninth grade, notices her. Is it possible that perfection isn't the key to an exciting life?

An ALA Best Book for Young Adults

Just as Long as We're Together

HOW CAN YOU be best friends with someone who keeps secrets from you—important secrets?

Stephanie hopes all three of them can be best friends, because she really likes Alison. But is it possible to have two best friends? Or is it true that two's company, three's a crowd?

STAR BECK IS super-duper megastar famous. She rocks—literally—every night in concert for thousands of cheering fans. But the pop star life is getting a little old. In the blink of an emerald green eye, Star finds herself . . . buying a car. Eating cheeseburgers. Swapping her stilettos for flip-flops. Getting a job that doesn't require dancing, winking, or mall appearances. And falling for the cutest, realest boy she's ever met.

Imaginary Enemy

JULIE GONZALEZ

JANE WHITE GOES by the pen name Gabriel when she writes letters to Bubba, her imaginary enemy. She's been writing to Bubba (short for Beelzebub) since second grade, blaming him every time something in her life goes wrong. It's never her fault! She doesn't want to admit that her impetuous behavior and smart-mouthed comments often land her in trouble. And now that she's a teenager, Jane's slacker ways exude an I-don't-care attitude. But Jane does care. She definitely cares the day she receives a letter from Bubba. How can an imaginary enemy write back?

★ “Readers will get a kick out of Jane's fumbblings and successes, both imaginary and real.”—Publishers Weekly, Starred

“The rich details and large cast of characters simultaneously give Jane's perspective on events and allow glimpses between the lines. Gonzalez shows how a myriad of plot lines click together in a satisfying and deceptively low-key resolution.”—Kirkus Reviews

Julie Gonzalez's previous young adults novels are Ricochet and Wings. She lives in Pensacola, Florida.

Stray

STACEY GOLDBLATT

SIXTEEN-YEAR-OLD NATALIE KAPLAN has a special talent: when she meets a person, she knows right away what kind of dog they'd be. Natalie herself resembles an Ibizan hound—quiet, playful, loyal, smart, and above all, obedient.

Just like the Ibizan, Natalie is very mindful of her master's rules, but at the first sign of freedom, she is prone to stray. And who can blame her when the gorgeous and mysterious Carver Reed comes to live with the Kaplan family for the summer? Little by little, Natalie is drawn to Carver's spontaneity and free spirit, and before long, she turns into another breed of girl—one who surprisingly bites the hand that feeds her.

When Stacey Goldblatt was in high school, she spent every Saturday at a family friend's veterinarian clinic. Currently, she boards in San Diego with her husband, two children, and two cats. You can visit her at www.staceygoldblatt.com.

The Castaways

The Curse of the Jolly Stone Trilogy, Book III

IAIN LAWRENCE

THE SPIRITED ADVENTURE that began in The Convicts and continued in The Cannibals has its riveting conclusion in The Castaways—in which Tom Tin and his four convict companions save two sailors stranded on an iceberg. There's Mr. Beezley, with his tattooed hands and icy stare; and Mr. Moyle, with his pig-like face and rotten teeth, who supposedly eats children. As Tom grows wary of the men, he suspects they are plotting to get rid of him. But how? And if Tom and the other boys can't stop the sailors, will they ever make it home to England, where Tom's diamond remains buried, and where he still stands a chance of sorting out his tangled fate?

“The quirky characters and an incredible story with fast action will keep you turning the pages to see what happens next, complete with a very satisfying, surprise ending.”—Myshelf.com

But Nick's world shifts again when Sasha breaks up with him. Then weeks later, while Nick's still reeling from the breakup, she turns up at his doorstep and tells him she's pregnant, and Nick finds himself struggling once more to understand the girl he can't stop caring for, the girl who insists that it's still over.

Angel Isle

PETER DICKINSON

ONCE THE TWENTY-FOUR most powerful magicians in the Empire pledged to use their magic only to protect the people. But the promise that bound them has now corrupted them. They have become a single, terrible entity with a limitless desire for domination. Only the Ropemaker may be able to stop them, but he has not been seen for more than two hundred years.

Into this dangerous world come Saranja, Maja, and Ribek. They seek the Ropemaker so that he might restore the ancient magic that protects their Valley. It is the task they were born to, but now it seems there is far more than the Valley at stake should they fail. . . .

★ "The complex, multilayered story includes more heady explorations of magic, joined here by thoughts on the meaning of true love. This is sure to be a hit with fans of [The Ropemaker]." —Booklist, Starred

This is Jenny Downham's debut novel. She lives in England.

Watch out, daytime soaps,
there's a new kid on the channel!

Likely Story Book 1

DAVID VAN ETTEN

MALLORY IS A teenage girl living in L.A. and her mother is the oft-nominated, never-winning star of a daytime soap; she is, in fact, the ultimate drama queen. After yet another blowout about her mother's awful plotlines and overacting, Mallory starts blogging about how she wishes soap operas were more like real kids' lives instead of the ridiculous storylines the shows usually feature. Her mother's agent reads the blog, offers to show it around, and a star is born!

Soon Mallory's caught up in her own whirlwind drama, both at school and on the lot, as she works to protect the integrity of her original idea, cope with her mother's jealousy, get through school, and get her best-friend-but-not-the-best-actress a lead role on the show.

David Van Etten is actually three writers: Chris Van Etten is currently a full-time writer for ABC's One Life to Live; David Ozanich is a freelance writer and playwright; and David Levithan is the author of Boy Meets Boy and many other young adult novels for Knopf.

Possession

CHRIS HUMPHREYS

RUNE MAGIC, TIME travel, transformation: Sky's grandfather opened up a world of limitless possibility . . . then asked the impossible. He asked Sky to kill a man.

Sky and Kristin know they have to stop Sigurd. But how, when he can possess any person, any beast, at will? The secret of possession lies in Meg, an accused witch, and in Matthew, the Witchfinder determined to capture her. But the price for knowing what Sigurd knows is steep—to defeat their grandfather, will they have to become exactly like him?

In this thrilling conclusion to the Runestone Saga, the final choice between everlasting life and the necessity of death will be made at one of the great turning points in history. And the outcome rests precariously on one final cast of the runes. . . .

Chris Humphreys had a long and successful career as an actor before turning to writing plays and then novels. He was born in Canada, grew up in Los Angeles, and currently lives in Vancouver with his wife and young son.

Dreamrider

BARRY JONSBURG

MICHAEL TERNY IS at his seventh school in four years and he knows that whatever he does, he will be ridiculed and pushed around. Michael is the fat kid. But Michael is also a lucid dreamer—he can recognize when he is dreaming and make the dream unfold exactly as he wants. Here he is safe and completely in control. Safe, that is, until he finds the dream world and real world colliding. . .

“Readers will be intrigued by the many paranormal ideas presented in a story that gradually and effectively reveals its many layers.”—Booklist

“Jonsberg’s prose is spare, his pacing excellent, his plotting memorable.”

—Publishers Weekly

“Readers who love the shocking twists of Fight Club or The Sixth Sense will revel in the movie-ready bizarre turns this novel takes, and they will likely find themselves flipping back to reread key passages.”—The Bulletin

Barry Jonsberg divides his time between writing and part-time teaching and finds it very difficult to do one without the other. He lives in Darwin in the Northern Territory of Australia.

Rogelia's House of Magic

JAMIE MARTINEZ WOOD

IN ROGELIA'S HOUSE OF MAGIC, three different fourteen-year-old girls find friendship and special powers as they are trained in the ways of the curandera by a wise old woman.

When Rogelia becomes a maid at Marina Peralta's home, it's obvious to Marina and her friend Fern that they have a real mystic on their hands. Soon Rogelia agrees to teach the girls the magic of their ancestors, much like she taught her granddaughters, Xochitl and Graciela. Even though Marina and Fern are thrilled to have this chance to understand and use their powers, Xochitl isn't happy about sharing such a sacred thing with anyone but her sister, who perished in a car accident. Besides, magic has let Xochitl down before—why wouldn't it now?

But as the girls will eventually discover, at Rogelia's House of Magic, anything is possible.

Jamie Martinez Wood is the author of The Teen Spell Book: Magick for Young Witches, The Enchanted Diary: A Teen's Guide to Magick and Life, The Wiccan Cookbook, and The Wiccan Herbal. She lives in California with her husband and children. You can visit her at www.jamiewood.com.

A Bridge to the Stars

HENNING MANKELL

TWO THINGS ARE hard for Joel Gustafson to cope with: not knowing why, and not being able to do anything about it. Joel's father was once a sailor who lived by the sea. Joel's mother once lived with them. Joel's father abandoned the sea. Joel's mother abandoned Joel and his father.

While looking out his window one night, Joel sees a lonely dog on the street. Joel spots the animal again and begins sneaking out night after night, trying to find it. During these nocturnal outings, Joel discovers aspects of life he has never imagined. And then one night he discovers that his father's bed, too, is empty.

As Joel investigates his father's mysterious absences and continues to search for the dog, he discovers his own inner strength and learns about adult disappointments and needs.

Henning Mankell is the prizewinning and internationally acclaimed author of novels for both adult and young readers. His other novels about Joel and his father are Shadows in the Twilight and When the Snow Fell, both available from Delacorte Press.

The Promises of Dr. Sigmundus: The Hollow People

BRIAN KEANEY

"KEANEY IS SURE to gain a big readership with this first title. . . . It will captivate readers with a taste for suspense and psychological thrills."

—School Library Journal

In Tanegar, a sinister island where the laws of the mysterious Dr. Sigmundus hold sway, dreaming will get you locked up and branded a lunatic. Dante is a lowly kitchen boy. Bea is the privileged daughter of physicians. They aren't meant to meet or share ideas, or, most dangerous of all, their dreams. But with the arrival of a notorious prisoner to the island's asylum, their worlds collide. Together they begin to question whether the promises they've based their lives on have been spun from lies and illusion—and if now is the time to break them.

The Invisible Road

RAFAEL ÁBALOS

TRANSLATED BY NOËL BACA CASTEX

GRIMPOW HAD NO idea who the dead man was, but hidden in his leather bag was a treasure that would change his life forever. Clutched in the man's firm grip was a stone. A stone that will shape Grimpow's destiny. For when he holds it in his hand odd things begin to happen. Visions of places he's never been fill his mind and he's able to read the strange language in a message meant for someone else.

So begins his journey with the stone. A centuries'-long journey that has driven sane men crazy, turned peaceful men to violence, and made strong men powerless. No man has ever unlocked its secrets. But no boy has ever tried.

★ “Ábalos . . . proves himself adept at moving the multiple story lines of the labyrinthine plot at a fast pace. His elaborate novel should win over not only teenage fantasy fans but adults as well.” —Publishers Weekly, Starred

★ “A refreshing take on the vampire romance.”—Publishers Weekly, Starred

Suck It Up

BRIAN MEEHL

BEFORE I WROTE this book I thought all vampires were night-stalking, fang-popping, blood-sucking fiends. Then I met Morning McCobb. He's a vegan vampire who drinks a soy-blood substitute called Blood Lite. He believes staking should be a hate crime. And someday he hopes to march in a Vampire Pride Parade. He is also the first vampire to out himself and try to show people of mortality, like you and me, that vampires are just another minority with special needs. Trust me—this is like no other vampire book you'll ever feed on.

“Appealing characters and an original vampire world. Delightful for those who like their romance vaguely paranormal, their adventure romantic and their vampires defanged.”—Kirkus Reviews

“A flawed and affable protagonist . . . snarky humor, outsider-looking-in perspective, and fresh new takes on the familiar.”—School Library Journal

The future of the book industry lies with new literary voices. For that reason, we are committed to growing alongside our authors by implementing unique publishing and marketing programs that enhance our lists and deliver continued success stories to you: the bookseller, the teacher, the librarian. We know that it is the love of children's literature we share with you that helps get these new voices into readers' hands and, for this, we thank you.

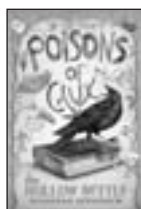

"As president of Random House Children's Books, I am always eager and excited to acquire new talent for our house and our readers. It is a thrill to open the doors of our house to a new voice. The unequaled teamwork that goes into each and every Random House Children's Book makes the challenge of breaking out a new author at a big house one that is unanimously embraced. I take great pride in knowing that we are contributing to the enrichment of young readers, as well as supporting new literary voices. Random House Children's Books is truly motivated by this and we certainly could not do it as successfully without the help of booksellers, teachers, and librarians who believe in our cause."—Chip Gibson

First Book and Random House Children's Books

Encouraging New Readers Together Since 1992

Dear First Book,

"I think and believe that books are important. . . . Books take me places like the stars."—Roshawn

"The importance of developing early literacy skills cannot be overstated: we know that our kids will do better in school and in life if they are given the opportunity to read and interact with books from a very early age. Because of First Book, millions of children in Head Start programs across the country experience the magic and wonder of reading every day."—Michael McGrady, Deputy Director, National Head Start Association

The most important thing that can be done to improve the literacy rate in our country is to ensure that children have access to books. This is true simply because the only behavioral measure that correlates significantly with reading scores is the number of books in the home. Having age-appropriate books on shelves at home can dramatically change the course of an otherwise disadvantaged child's life.

Since 1992, First Book has been placing brand-new books into the hands of children in need, profoundly impacting their lives. The First Book model was developed to leverage the work of local heroes who reach children through existing literacy programs in a variety of settings, such as Head Start centers, libraries, soup kitchens, churches, housing projects, and after-school initiatives. After receiving books from First Book, surveys verify that a child's interest in reading more than doubles, and that, in turn, they share that passion with others in their family.

First Book has distributed 50 million books over the past 15 years, but that's only a start. Random House is making a significant, multiyear commitment to First Book because, together, we have what it takes to make a real impact in our world.

A $1.00 cash donation to First Book results in $10 worth of books directly to children in need.

Children's Book Council

Celebrate Children's Book Week! The 90th annual observance of Children's Book Week will be May 11–17, 2009. A celebration of the written word, Children's Book Week introduces young people to new authors and ideas in schools, libraries, homes, and bookstores. Through Children's Book Week, the Children's Book Council encourages young people and their caregivers to discover the complexity of the world beyond their own experience through books. Special materials will be available from the Children's Book Council, including posters, bookmarks, and other items to decorate your walls, promote your events, and, most importantly, encourage kids to read. Be sure to visit the Children's Book Council's Web site at www.cbcbooks.org for more information, ideas, and materials for Children's Book Week 2009.

 Random House Children's Books is a member of the Children's Book Council (CBC), a nonprofit trade organization that encourages the use and enjoyment of books and related literacy materials for young people. Our books from the current and immediately preceding year are available for examination at the CBC Library, 12 West 37th Street, 2nd Floor, New York, NY 10018. The library is open to the public from 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday.
