INFANT • TODDLER

Baby Books

Soft books made of cloth and vinyl are perfect for infants, and feature simple text and art printed on safe, washable materials.

Board Books

Board books, made of sturdy cardboard pages, come in many shapes and sizes suitable for young babies as well as toddlers. Chunky Books, the youngest board book format, are sized for the littlest hands. A wide range of other board book series not only entertain toddlers with rhyming text, word repetition, textures, and flaps, but also introduce simple concepts such as ABCs, colors, and shapes. The bestselling, interactive Great Big Flap Books, filled with flaps to lift, provide a bridge to the preschool level.

Each category is arranged alphabetically by title.

Movie Tie-Ins

Picture books make up the broadest of children's book categories, as the variety of writing and illustration styles yields books suitable for children of many ages. Picture books can be read to young children or read independently by older children; our selection also includes several anthologies with richly illustrated text suitable for older readers. Hardcover and paperback editions are listed side by side. The opening sections highlight three of our most significant picture book collections, followed by an extensive general listing.

Categories are arranged alphabetically by title.

Beginning Readers

Using only 223 words, Dr. Seuss created the classic tale of the Cat in the Hat in 1957 and changed the world of children's books forever. With sales of over 400 million copies, Beginner Books continue to play an unsurpassed role in teaching generations of children the joys of reading.

The Step into Reading series of full-color, affordable paperbacks is divided into five levels sure to educate, enlighten, delight, and foster a love of reading forever:

- Early: Preschool–Kindergarten
- Step 1: Preschool–Grade 1
- Step 2: Grades 1–3
- Step 3: Grades 2–3
- Step 4: Grades 2–4

Early Chapter Books

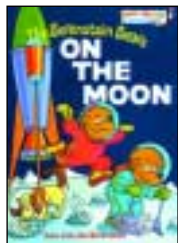

These books provide a smooth transition between full-color beginning readers and middle grade chapter books by offering strong stories, large type, wide margins, short chapters, and a dash of illustration. Young readers, energized by the joy of reading independently, can be voracious consumers at this stage, so early chapter books are published in an inexpensive paperback format, with a strong slant toward series reading. Favorite series include Magic Tree House, Junie B. Jones, A to Z Mysteries, and Nate the Great.

The general categories are arranged alphabetically by title. Numbered series are listed in chronological order.

Please note that all Bright & Early and Beginner Books will be priced at $8.99/$13.99 Can. effective June 1, 2002.

MIDDLE GRADE FICTION

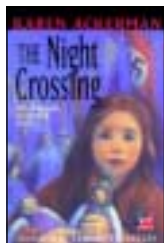

Middle Grade Fiction (General) Middle Grade Series

Middle grade fiction, also known as middle readers or intermediate readers, is traditionally defined as titles suitable for children ages 8 through 12 (grades 3–7), though that range can vary depending on a child's individual reading skills, the style of writing, and the subject matter. Many of the classic tales in children's literature can be found in this section, including Madeleine L'Engle's Time Quartet series, Lois Lowry's Number the Stars, Louise Fitzhugh's Harriet the Spy, Norton Juster's The Phantom Tollbooth, and two recent Newbery winners, Louis Sachar's Holes and Christopher Paul Curtis's Bud, Not Buddy. The Yearling line of digest paperbacks has been publishing popular and award-winning middle grade fiction for over thirty years.

The general fiction category is arranged alphabetically by author, then title within the author listing. (Some related titles have been grouped together.) In the series section, numbered series are listed in chronological order.

YOUNG ADULT FICTION

Young Adult Fiction (General) Young Adult Series

Young adult titles are generally appropriate for readers ages 12 and up, though titles may skew as young as age 10 depending on the maturity of the reader. The subject matter is often grittier and more complex than in middle grade titles as authors present topics of relevance to teens. Bestsellers published include Lois Lowry's The Giver, Scott O'Dell's Island of the Blue Dolphins, Caroline B. Cooney's The Face on the Milk Carton and its sequels, as well as the collected works of Robert Cormier, Gary Paulsen, Philip Pullman, and Tamora Pierce.

The general fiction category is arranged alphabetically by author, and then title within the author listing. (Some related titles have been grouped together.) In the series section, numbered series are listed in chronological order.
