

How To Use This PDF

This PDF catalog was designed to be distributed electronically. Pages can be printed on a laser printer on an as-needed basis or the document can be downloaded to your hard drive in it's entirety to be used off line.

Navigate easily with the use of the Bookmark function, as circled below. Bookmarks on the left (TOC) and pages on the right. Clicking arrows that appear on the left of the page shows more linked pages. On TOC page there are links to title and author information as well. The cursor changes to a pointing finger when passed over a link.

To change views on-screen, use the magnification tool or click on different view options (see circled below) or adjust magnification to 150% using the magnification box at the bottom of the window.

To print a limited number of pages, choose File —> print, then choose your print range (the page numbers you'd like to print). For example, to print page 10-14, enter the range as "From: 10 To: 14 " as circled below.

If you have any questions or concerns about the use of this document, please contact Nancy Neumann at nneumann@randomhouse.com

2001-2002 Backlist Catalog

How to Use This Catalog

The main section of the catalog contains our full list of active children's titles, arranged by age levels and grouped by format, beginning with books for infants and toddlers and progressing all the way to young adult titles.

The next section highlights our perennially favorite characters and licenses, from the beloved works of Dr. Seuss and the Berenstains to the varied creations of Sesame Workshop and Disney.

The final section highlights our bestselling holiday titles from Black History Month to Christmas. Award listings, a title/author index, and ordering information follow. Titles featured in the favorite character and holiday sections are also included in the appropriate age group/format listings in the main section.

Please Note

This catalog includes in-print titles published through August 2001. Availability, prices, and jacket art are subject to change. For the latest title information as well as news on our most recent publications, please visit us online at www.randomhouse.com/kids

We have included all of our Random House Children's Books publishing imprints in this catalog. If there is a reinforced Gibraltar Library Binding (GLB) edition available, that title information is listed below the corresponding trade edition. The symbol (Ⓛ) denotes that a title is also available as a retail and library edition audiobook from our sister division, Listening Library; please visit our online catalog or contact your sales representative or Customer Service (1-800-726-0600) for further information.

Disney Read-Aloud Storybooks

Leo Lionni Picture Books

Picture Books/Illustrated
Storybook

Movie Tie-Ins

Picture books make up the broadest of children's book categories, as the variety of writing and illustration styles yields books suitable for children of many ages. Picture books can be read to young children or read independently by older children; our selection also includes several anthologies with richly illustrated text suitable for older readers. Hardcover and paperback editions are listed side by side. The opening sections highlight three of our most significant picture book collections, followed by an extensive general listing.

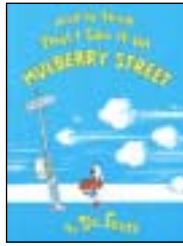

Categories are arranged alphabetically by title.
