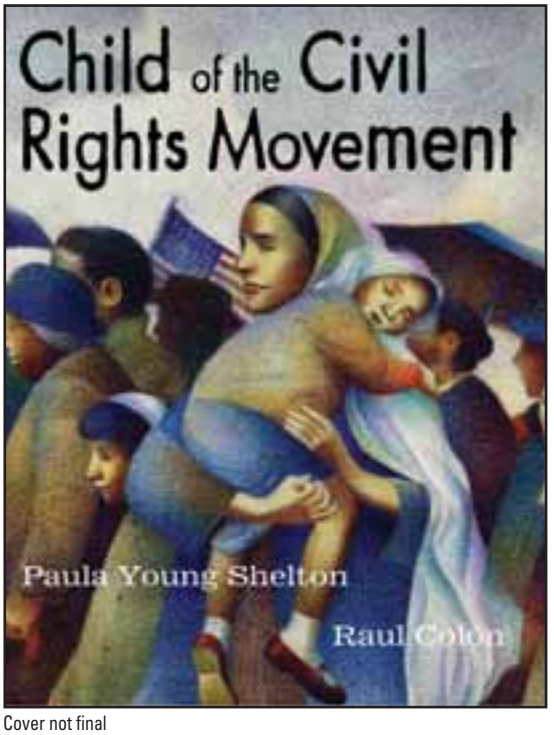
What was it like growing up around the key architects of the Civil Rights Movement?



Cover not final

Child of the Civil Rights Movement

PAULA YOUNG SHELTON
ILLUSTRATED BY RAUL COLÓN

PAULA YOUNG SHELTON, daughter of Civil Rights activist Andrew Young, brings a child's unique perspective to an important chapter in America's history. Paula grew up in the deep south, in a world where whites had and blacks did not. With an activist father and a community of leaders surrounding her, including Uncle Martin (Martin Luther King), Paula watched and listened to the struggles, eventually joining with her family—and thousands of others—in the historic march from Selma to Montgomery.

Poignant, moving, and hopeful, this is an intimate look at the birth of the Civil Rights Movement.

Paula Young Shelton is the daughter of civil rights leader and former U.N. ambassador Andrew Young. She is a teacher in Washington, D.C., and a member of the National Black Child Development Institute. Her husband, Hilary O. Shelton, is the director of the NAACP Washington Bureau.

Raul Colón is the acclaimed illustrator of numerous children's books.

Kiss Kiss

SELMA MANDINE

"WHAT IS a kiss like?" That's what a teddy bear asks a little boy in this sweet and enchanting picture book. From Grandmother's noisy kisses, to Father's prickly kisses, to Little Brother's chocolate kisses, Teddy learns there are many different kinds of kisses—but the best kisses are from the ones you love!

Selma Mandine was born in 1973 in Hong Kong. She is a trained designer and photographer. Selma now lives in France and is an illustrator of children's books.

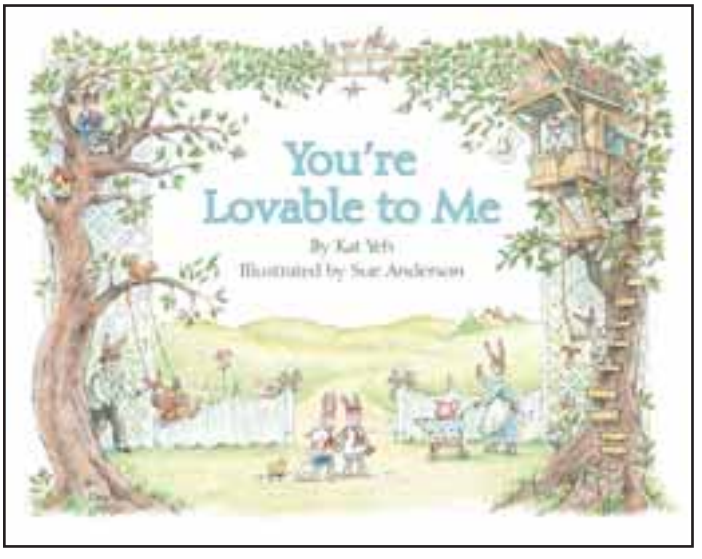
All you need is love.



You're Lovable to Me

KAT YEH
ILLUSTRATED BY SUE ANDERSON

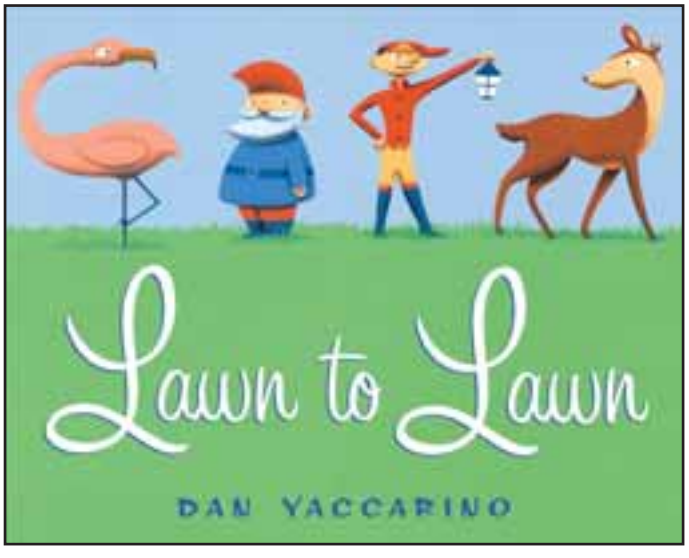
IN THIS WARMHEARTED tale of multigenerational love, repentant bunnies apologize to their mama for the day's shenanigans. Mama Bunny gathers her children together and reassures them that she will always love them: "No matter what your feelings are, whatever they may be . . . I'm your mama. You're my bunnies. And you're lovable to me." After the young bunnies are tucked in, Mama Bunny's papa drops by for tea and to tell her that she, too, is his bunny and infinitely lovable to him.

Old-fashioned illustrations and a gentle rhyme will endear readers to this bedtime picture book that has the making of a love-classic.

Kat Yeh spent many years as a copywriter in New York in the sports marketing and promotions fields and in advertising with Saatchi & Saatchi. She has continued her education in creative and nonfiction writing and children's literature at NYU and Columbia University. She lives in Lloyd Harbor, New York, with her husband and their two children.

Sue Anderson completed her art training at the Ringling School of Art and Design and is the illustrator of Off We Go.

The incredible journey . . .
of four lawn ornaments!



Lawn to Lawn

DAN YACCARINO

NOT EVERYONE LOVES lawn ornaments. But Pearl was different. Pearl was their friend—the only human who knew they were real.

So when Pearl's family moves and (shockingly!) leaves their pink flamingo, deer, gnome, and lawn jockey behind, Flo, Betty, Norm, and Jack know what they must do. They must find Pearl no matter how long and perilous the journey.

Through cities and suburbs, over mountains and through swamps, the ornaments make their dangerous way. They survive storms and menacing gargoyles. They get directions from weather vanes and other statuary. And always, always, they must avoid the dreaded trash truck!

In this hysterical and quirky tale of toys-come-to-life, Dan Yaccarino reminds us that home is where the heart is and that no journey is too difficult when it leads to the one you love.

Dan Yaccarino is an internationally acclaimed author-illustrator with more than 30 books to his credit. Dan is also the creator of the animated TV series Oswald. He lives in New York City with his wife and their two children.

Shake, Rattle & Turn That Noise Down!

How Elvis Shook Up Music, Me and Mom

MARK ALAN STAMATY

FOR HIS EIGHTH birthday, Mark Alan Stamaty's parents gave him his very own radio. Little did his mother realize that that innocent-looking plastic box would one day be the gateway for a new kind of sound that would "rock" her nearly out of her mind. . . .

Mark first heard the howling thunder of Elvis Presley singing "Hound Dog" on the radio one lazy day and his life was forever changed. Soon he was styling his hair like the King and practicing his dance moves with a tennis racket as his pretend guitar in front of the mirror. But his mother lived in constant fear that her son's new love of rock 'n' roll would turn him into a juvenile delinquent. Could Mark's performance at his Cub Scout talent show change her mind?

Mark Alan Stamaty is the author-illustrator of Who Needs Donuts? and Alia's Mission: Saving the Books of Iraq. He lives in New York City.

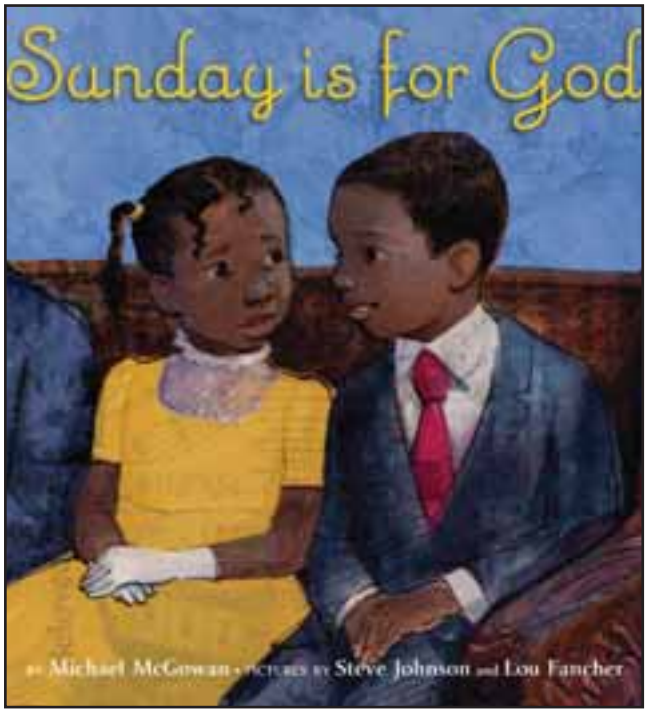
A boy comes to appreciate church in this story about family and faith.



Sunday Is for God

MICHAEL McGOWAN
ILLUSTRATED BY STEVE JOHNSON AND LOU FANCHER

"WEEKDAYS ARE FOR SCHOOL and Saturday's for having fun. But Sunday is the Lord's Day. Sunday is for God."

A boy longs to play in the river on this hot summer day, but instead he has to sit quietly in a pew. His collar itches and his tie's too tight—why does the Lord care whether people get dressed up for church, anyway? But as hymns and prayers fill the room, he begins to appreciate the simple beauty of a day set aside for family and prayer. At the end of the service, he explains a prayer to his little sister by whispering, "The Lord will take care of us no matter what. Like Momma and Daddy"—a deeply comforting message for young readers.

This is Michael McGowan's first picture book. He sings in a church choir and rings the bells in a church tower in Harlem.

Steve Johnson and Lou Fancher have collaborated on many award-winning and bestselling picture books, including Amazing Peace by Maya Angelou.

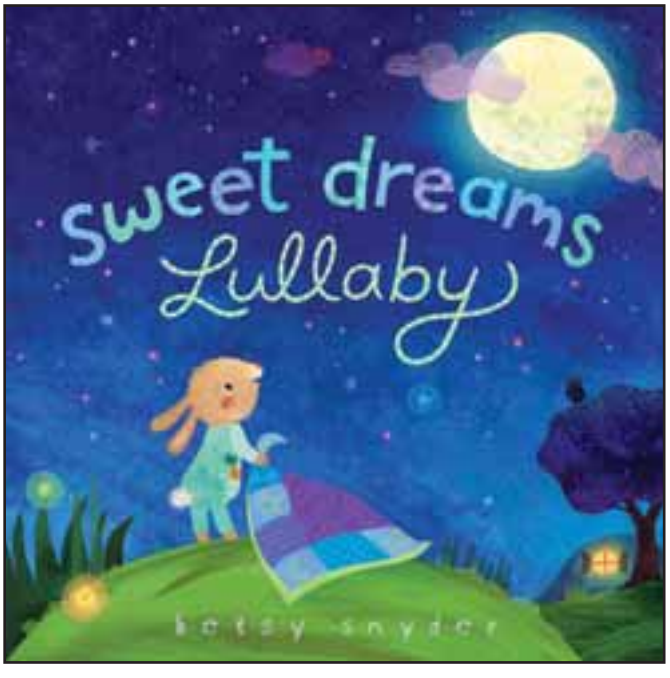
Bedtime for bunny!



Sweet Dreams Lullaby

BETSY SNYDER

DREAM OF PURPLE twilight skies,

a bedtime kiss from butterflies.

caterpillars in cocoons are tucked in tight beneath the moon.

This peaceful and imaginative picture book invites a bunny—tucked snugly in bed—to dream of comforting scenes from nature's bedtime. Each spread reveals a delightful dreamscape for children to imagine as they drift off to the lulling rhyming text. From the talented author-illustrator of Haiku Baby—which was selected as a CCBC Choices 2009 title—and Have You Ever Tickled a Tiger? comes the perfect bedtime read for young boys and girls!

In addition to writing and illustrating children's books, Betsy Snyder is a seasoned illustrator-designer of children's greeting cards. Her work has been recognized with the Please Touch Museum's 23rd Annual Book Award, a Silver Addy Award–Cleveland (2006), and has been selected for the Society of Illustrators 49th and 50th Annual Award Shows (2006, 2007). MARISABINA RUSSO

AMELIA IS A VERY BIG BUNNY. At recess, the other bunnies tell her that her feet are too long for hopscotch, they say she's too tall to jump rope, and of course, no one will get on the seesaw with her. Amelia is a very big and lonely bunny. But when a new very small bunny named Susannah arrives in the classroom, something amazing happens. Readers will delight as they watch Amelia transform from a shy bunny into a confident friend.

From author-illustrator Marisabina Russo comes an endearing tale that celebrates the power of friendship and the fun of standing out in a crowd. With lively accessible artwork, here is the perfect book for every little bunny who worries about fitting in.

Marisabina Russo is the author and illustrator of numerous books for children, including The Line Up Book, which won the International Reading Association Award; Come Back, Hannah!, which was named a Charlotte Zolotow Highly Commended book; and most recently, The Bunnies Are Not in Their Beds. She lives in Westchester County, New York.

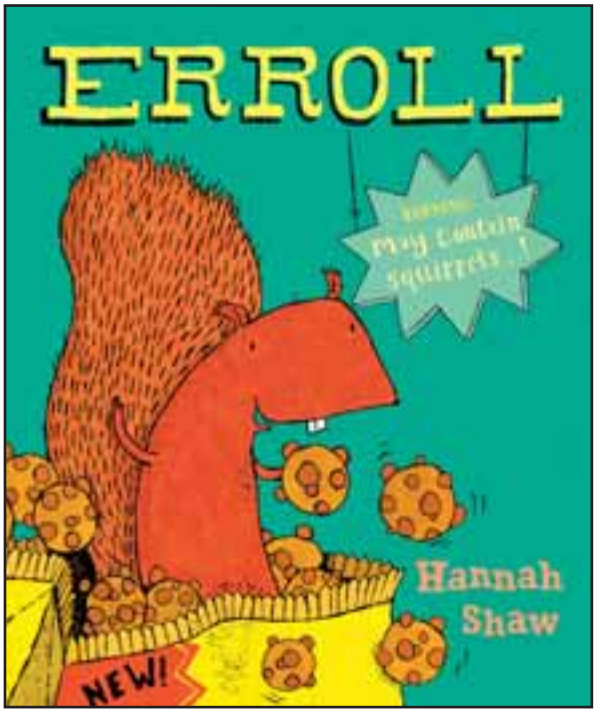
A nutty tale of Squirrel Gone Wild for kids who like high-energy shenanigans.



Erroll

HANNAH SHAW

WHEN SOMETHING SUPREMELY silly is needed for storytime: choose Erroll. Or as Erroll himself might say: "Pick me! Pick me! Pick me!" And then he'd turn a somersault, swing from the drapes, and get peanut butter all over everything.

For kids who like high-energy shenanigans, and for grown-ups who'd like to almost prove the point that a neat-and-tidy suburban home may not be the best place for a very wild critter, this fun and funny story of a boy who finds a talking squirrel in his snack package will be just the ticket.

Erroll is the second picture book by Hannah Shaw, who received a Publishers Weekly starred review for her debut, Sneaky Weasel. She lives in Cherington, England. Visit her online at www.hannahshawillustrator.co.uk.

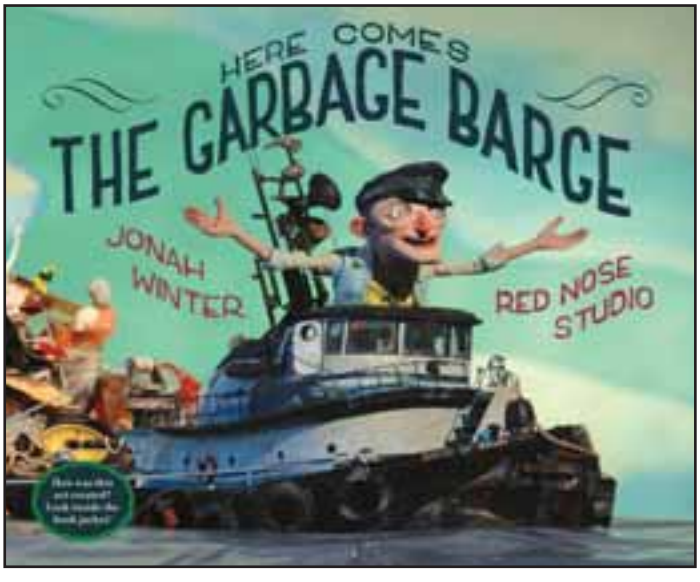
Perfect for Earth Day, a hilarious—true!—story of garbage on the high seas.



Here Comes the Garbage Barge

JONAH WINTER
ILLUSTRATED BY RED NOSE STUDIO

REDUCE, REUSE, RECYCLE! Teaching environmental awareness has become a national priority, and this hilarious book (subtly) drives home the message that we can't produce unlimited trash without consequences. Based on incredible true events, Jonah Winter brings us the flavorful story that starts in a little town on Long Island that has a big problem: 3,168 tons of garbage and nowhere to put it! Enter the garbage barge, who hauls the junk down the coast of North America looking for a place to dump it. . . .

Humorous language and amazing art built out of junk, toys, and found objects by Red Nose Studio make this the perfect book for Earth Day or any day. Photos of the work-in-progress on the back side of the jacket offers added appeal.

Jonah Winter is the author of You Never Heard of Sandy Koufax?!, Muhammad Ali: Champion of the World, and Dizzy, all of which received multiple starred reviews. He lives in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

Red Nose Studio creates eccentric worlds of sculptural and 3-D illustrations. Red Nose Studio's illustrations have appeared in The New York Times, the Wall Street Journal, Chicago Tribune, and other publications.

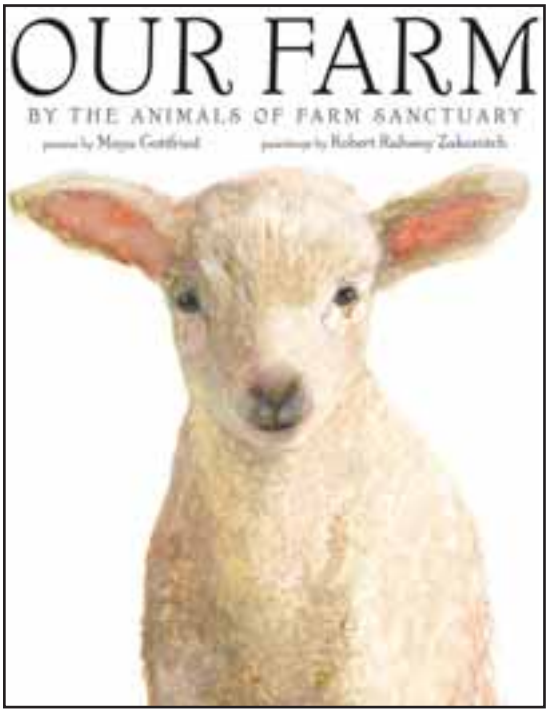
Cows and chickens and piglets welcome you to their farm!



Our Farm

By the Animals of Farm Sanctuary

POEMS BY MAYA GOTTFRIED
ILLUSTRATED BY ROBERT RAHWAY ZAKANITCH

MAYA THE COW, J.D. the piglet, Hilda the sheep, and a dozen more animals all speak directly to the reader, showing off their unique personalities in this wonderful collection of poems. Master watercolorist Robert Rahway Zakanitch provides a portrait that perfectly captures the essence of each creature. Together the poems and paintings add up to a picture of life on the friendliest farm around.

Maya Gottfried based her poems on real animals from Farm Sanctuary where she worked as a volunteer. Farm Sanctuary is a safe haven for injured or abused farm animals with locations in New York and California.

Maya Gottfried is a freelance writer and works for a PR firm in New York City. She lives in Brooklyn, New York.

Robert Rahway Zakanitch is an artist who lives and works in New York City. He was awarded a Guggenheim Foundation Grant, and his work is represented in many museum collections. Read more about his work at www.zakanitch.com.

The Smash! Smash! Truck

Recycling as You've Never Heard It Before!

AIDAN POTTS

WHAT SELF-RESPECTING GLASS bottle would want to be trapped in a trash dump for hundreds of thousands of years, when it could be transformed over and over again into new and exciting containers? Luckily, the Smash! Smash! Truck is on hand to speed up the recycling process, making things go round faster. Professor Potts takes us all the way back to the Big Bang to look at how the earth naturally recycles its resources and ends with a series of glorious smashes as a modern recycling truck is loaded and unloaded.

As he did in Uneversaurus, Professor Potts makes science engaging and informative with lighthearted, accessible text and clever, fun illustrations.

Aidan Potts, alter ego of the dashing Professor Potts, has worked as an illustrator for all the national daily newspapers in England and currently produces a weekly comic strip about idioms for the Times Educational Supplement. He lives in London.

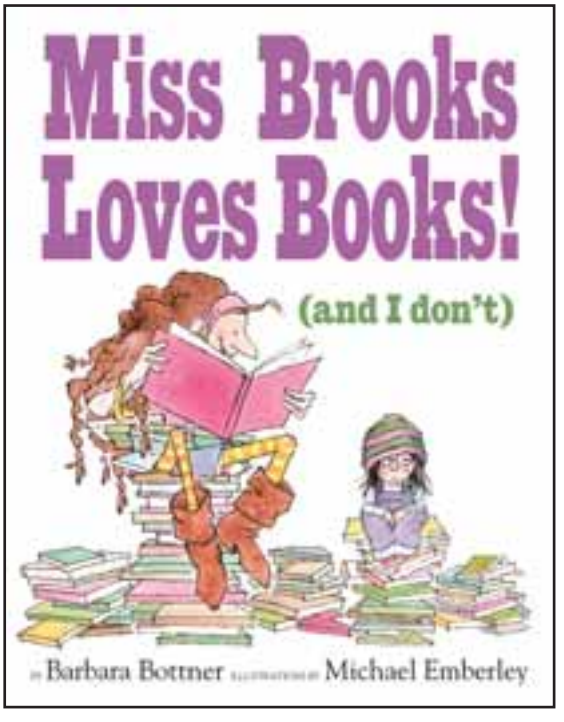
A celebration of books and book lovers—even reluctant ones.



Miss Brooks Loves Books! (and I Don't)

BARBARA BOTTNER
ILLUSTRATED BY MICHAEL EMBERLEY

WITH THE HELP of Miss Brooks, Missy's classmates all find books they love in the library—books about fairies and dogs and trains and cowboys. But Missy dismisses them all—"Too flowery, too furry, too clickety, too yippity."

Still, Miss Brooks remains undaunted. Book Week is here and Missy will find a book to love if they have to empty the entire library. What story will finally win over this beastly, er, discriminating child? William Steig's Shrek!—the tale of a repulsive green ogre in search of a revolting bride—of course!

Barbara Bottner and Michael Emberley pay playful homage to the diverse tastes of child readers and the valiant librarians who are determined to put just the right book in each child's hands.

Barbara Bottner is the author of more than 36 books. She lives in Los Angeles.

Michael Emberley has been writing and illustrating children's books since 1979. He lives in Ireland.

Pantaloon

A Golden Classic

KATHRYN JACKSON
ILLUSTRATED BY STEVEN SALERNO

PANTALOON IS A poodle with a sweet tooth. He adores cookies and yummy pastries. So when the Baker is looking for a helper, Pantaloon applies for the job.

"Oh, no, Pantaloon!" says the Baker. "You look to me as if you'd eat more than you'd bake." But Pantaloon proves him wrong in this charming Golden classic, brilliantly reillustrated by Steven Salerno.

Kathryn Jackson wrote dozens of Golden Books and story collections in the 1940s and 1950s, some of which have never been out of print. Her many titles include The Animals' Merry Christmas and Tawny Scrawny Lion, and, with her husband, Byron, The Saggy Baggy Elephant and Pirates, Ships, and Sailors.

Steven Salerno has illustrated many popular picture books for children, including Mrs. Wow Never Wanted a Cow by Martha Freeman, The Dirty Little Boy by Margaret Wise Brown, and Chicken Chuck by Bill Martin, Jr. His illustrations also appear in magazines, advertising campaigns, and on product packaging. He lives in New York City.

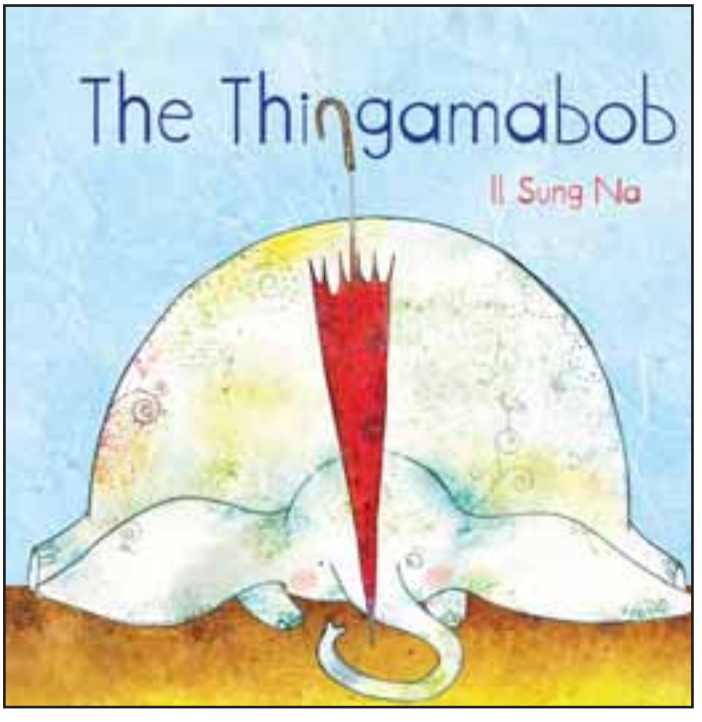
A delightful story about making—and sharing—an exciting discovery!



The Thingamabob

IL SUNG NA

ONE DAY, he found the thingamabob.

He had no idea what it was or where it came from. . . .

So begins the story of a curious elephant and a mysterious red object. But what is it?! When none of his friends can tell him, the little elephant decides to experiment. He thinks: Maybe I can fly with it? (Maybe not.) Maybe I can sail in it? (Maybe not.) Maybe I can hide behind it? (Maybe not.) Nothing seems to work, until big drops of rain begin to fall. The little elephant does not want to get wet. Luckily, with the thingamabob (an umbrella), he does not need to get wet!

With bright, adorable illustrations and a simple, playful text, Il Sung Na captures the excitement of making—and sharing—an unexpected discovery.

Originally from Korea, Il Sung Na studied illustration at Kingston University and now lives in London, where it always rains and where he always carries a thingamabob. To learn more about him and his work, please visit www.ilsungna.com.

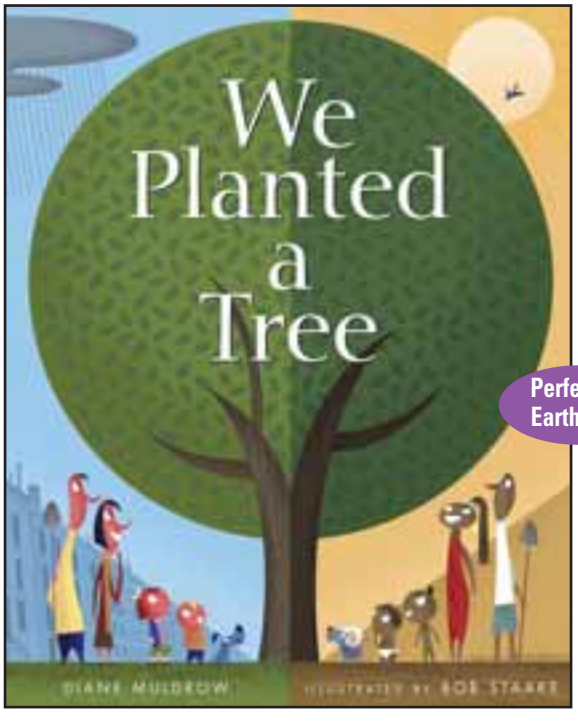
A "green" modern-day classic, illustrated by Bob Staake!



We Planted a Tree

DIANE MULDROW
ILLUSTRATED BY BOB STAAKE

WE PLANTED a tree and it grew up,

While it reached for the sky and the sun. . . .

In this simple poem illustrated by award winner Bob Staake, two young families in two very different parts of the world plant a tree. As the trees flourish, so do the families . . . while trees all over the world help clean the air, enrich the soil, and give fruit and shade.

With a nod to Kenya's successful Green Belt Movement, Diane Muldrow's elegant text celebrates the life and hope that every tree—from Paris to Brooklyn to Tokyo—brings to our planet. Perfect for young readers!

Diane Muldrow, an editorial director at Golden Books, has written dozens of children's books, including Mama, Where Are You?, Mama, What's in There?, Who's Your Daddy?, and the Dish series for middle graders. She lives in Brooklyn.

Bob Staake's The Red Lemon, was a New York Times Best Illustrated Children's Book of the Year. The Donut Chef has received great reviews and is featured on the popular blog BOING BOING. He lives on Cape Cod.

Hugo and the Really, Really, Really Long String

BOB BOYLE

IN A LITTLE house on the top of a hill lives a happy little guy named Hugo. When Hugo sees a mysterious red string, he just knows he's going to find something wonderful at the end of it! Hugo's journey takes him across the river, underground, and throughout town—all while gathering curious new friends along the way! What does Hugo finally find at the end of the mysterious red string? An embarrassing, hilarious, wonderful surprise! A rhyming refrain and Bob Boyle's signature animated, geometric art style will entertain readers as they learn about what happens when new friends work toward a common goal.

Bob Boyle is the creator and executive producer of the hit shows Wow! Wow! Wubbzy! (Nickelodeon) and Yin Yang Yo! (Disney XD). Bob has also worked as an animator for the popular Nickelodeon shows The Fairly OddParents, Danny Phantom, and Garfield and Friends.

Paris in the Spring with Picasso

JOAN YOLLECK
ILLUSTRATED BY MARJORIE PRICEMAN

THIS EVOCATIVE PORTRAIT OF the artists that made Paris tick in the early 20th century is a perfect introduction to the world of contemporary art and literature . . . and to Paris!

On any day of the week, if you cross Paris's Luxembourg Gardens, you will come to a cobbled street called rue de Fleurus. Follow it to number 27, and you will arrive at Gertrude Stein's home. Inside, she and her friend Alice B. Toklas are getting ready for their soiree with Pablo Picasso, Max Jacob, and some other friends. While they are tidying, Pablo is at his easel, working on a painting. His brilliant black eyes never leave the canvas. And what is Max doing? Well, he is completely absorbed in a poem he is writing.

Joan Yolleck reviews children's books for The Globe and Mail, Canada's national newspaper. This is her first children's book. She lives in Toronto, Ontario.

Marjorie Priceman is a two-time recipient of a Caldecott Honor award—for Zin! Zin! Zin! A Violin! and Hot Air. She is also the author-illustrator of How to Make a Cherry Pie and See the U.S.A., as well as How to Make an Apple Pie and See the World. A graduate of the Rhode Island School of Design, she lives in Lewisburg, Pennsylvania.

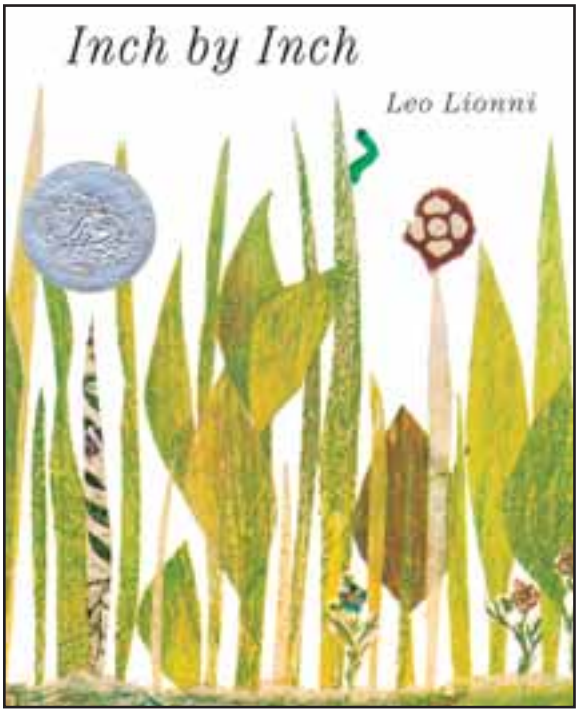
A classic Caldecott Honor Book now available in a gift edition.



Inch by Inch

LEO LIONNI

SOMETHING TO CELEBRATE this spring: the 50th anniversary of this Caldecott Honor Book and the 100th anniversary of its creator, Leo Lionni. Long unavailable in hardcover from its original publisher, Inch by Inch tells the tale of a tiny green inchworm who can measure anything, from a robin's tail to a toucan's beak. But when a nightingale demands that the inchworm measure its song, the clever worm calls on its skill to creatively save his life. Knopf is proud to add this classic to the many beloved picture books by Leo Lionni.

"A handsome and appropriate book to give pleasure to little children and their elders."—The Horn Book Fanfare

A Caldecott Honor Book

Leo Lionni, a renowned designer, illustrator, and creator of children's books, was the recipient of the 1984 American Institute of Graphic Arts Gold Medal and was honored posthumously in 2007 with the Society of Illustrators Lifetime Achievement Award. His picture books include four Caldecott Honor Books: Inch by Inch, Frederick, Swimmy, and Alexander and the Wind-Up Mouse. Hailed as "a master of the simple fable" by the Chicago Tribune, he died in 1999 at the age of 89.

Anatole

EVE TITUS
ILLUSTRATED BY PAUL GALDONE

ANATOLE IS A most honorable mouse. When he realizes that humans are upset by mice sampling their leftovers, he is shocked! He must provide for his beloved family—but he is determined to find a way to earn his supper. And so he heads for the tasting room at the Duvall Cheese Factory. On each cheese, he leaves a small note—"good," "not so good," "needs orange peel"—and signs his name. When workers at the factory find his notes in the morning, they are perplexed—but they realize that this mysterious Anatole has an exceptional palate and take his advice. Soon Duvall is making the best cheese in all of Paris! They would like to give Anatole a reward—if only they could find him . . .

Anatole and the Cat

ANATOLE IS THE happiest, most contented mouse in all of Paris. He is Vice President in charge of Cheese Tasting at Duvall's Cheese Factory. He works in secret at night—the people at Duvall have no idea that their mysterious taster is really a mouse! So M'sieu Duvall thinks nothing of bringing his pet cat to the factory. . . . Clever Anatole must act to protect his job, and his life! He must do what no mouse has done before—find a way to bell the cat. Bonne chance, Anatole!

Caldecott Honor Books

Eve Titus was the author of numerous bestselling and beloved children's books, including the Anatole books and many chapter books about a mouse detective—Basil of Baker Street. She died in 2002.

Paul Galdone illustrated nearly 300 books during his long career, many of which he also retold. He illustrated nearly all of Ms. Titus's books, winning a Caldecott Honor for both Anatole and Anatole and the Cat. He died in 1986.

Little Rabbit's Loose Tooth

LUCY BATE
ILLUSTRATED BY DIANE DEGROAT

WHAT SHOULD LITTLE Rabbit do with her loose tooth when it comes out in a dish of chocolate ice cream? Throw it away? Wear it on a necklace? Draw stars around it and hang it on the wall? Or leave it under her pillow for the tooth fairy?

Little Rabbit solves her dilemma in this gentle classic that captures all the excitement of losing a first tooth.

Alia's Mission

Saving the Books of Iraq

MARK ALAN STAMATY

★ "THE STORY of Iraqi librarian Alia Muhammad Baker, who, fearing looting and bombs, hid more than 30,000 books prior to the invasion of Iraq, is so compelling. . . . Sequential panels concisely depict complex sequences of actions and emotions, allowing Stamaty to pack more detail into 32 pages than is possible in a traditional picture book. Stamaty's black-and-white ink, graphite, and wash artwork is equally nuanced; one can even discern the eerie, flickering shadows cast by the burning library across townspeople's faces."

Let's Make Rabbits

LEO LIONNI

"LET'S MAKE rabbits," says the scissors to the pencil, and, before the reader's eyes, two rabbits appear—one drawn by the pencil, the other cut from brightly patterned paper by the scissors. When the rabbits are hungry, the scissors and the pencil provide paper carrots. But one day the taste of a real carrot leads to a magical surprise. This imaginative tale is being reissued in celebration of four-time Caldecott Honor Book winner Leo Lionni's 100th anniversary.

"A wonderful combination of collage and pencil drawing provides a lesson in art appreciation as well as a tribute to imaginative reality."

—School Library Journal

Leo Lionni wrote and illustrated more than 40 children's books, including four Caldecott Honor Books: Inch by Inch, Swimmy, Frederick, and Alexander and the Wind-Up Mouse. He died in 1999 at the age of 89.

Nicolas, Where Have You Been?

LEO LIONNI

IN CELEBRATION OF four-time Caldecott Honor winner Leo Lionni's 100th anniversary, this fable will appear in paperback for the first time. It features a mouse named Nicolas—perhaps a cousin to the beloved Frederick—a big, bad bird; and a flock of good Samaritan birds. The book, with its moral "one bad bird doesn't make a flock," was hailed by Horn Book Magazine as "a fine, cheerful example of an ethical, philosophical idea cast as a delightful picture book."

"A rich story both in appearance and theme. Even preschoolers can have a book discussion about this one."—Booklist

Dino Babies!

Pictureback®

DR. ROBERT T. BAKKER
ILLUSTRATED BY LUIS V. REY

WERE DINOSAURS GOOD parents? Were newly hatched dinos left to fend for themselves, like baby turtles? Or were they protected until they were fully grown, like baby eagles? Citing specific examples from the fossil record and making comparisons with living animals, renowned paleontologist Robert T. Bakker explains to young readers how we know that allosaurus babies didn't have to hunt for themselves; how giant titanosaurs nested in crowded rookeries (and must have walked very carefully!); how Psittacosaurus was a dinosaur babysitter—and numerous other fossil finds, all of which indicate that yes, dinosaurs were good parents. A world-class pairing of dinosaur science and illustration for just $3.99!

Dr. Robert T. Bakker is one of the most respected vertebrate paleontologists in the world. Often credited with starting the "Dinosaur Rennaisance," he is curator of paleontology at the Houston Museum of Natural Science.

Luis V. Rey is the winner of the 2008 Lazendorf PaleoArt Award, the most prestigious international award recognizing achievement in paleontological scientific illustration.

ILLUSTRATED BY ARISTIDES RUIZ AND JOE MATHIEU

CATS NORMALLY DON'T LIKE WATER, but the Cat in the Hat is no normal puss! He's fond of ponds, and in this latest Cat in the Hat's Learning Library book, he takes Sally and Dick on a trip to show them how ponds are fascinating places teeming with life.

From algae to snails, leeches, insects, fish, frogs, newts, turtles, ducks, swans, and more, the Cat explains how all different kinds of plants and animals make their home in and around ponds, as well as examining the difference between complete and incomplete metamorphosis and the various stages of frog development. Ideal for spring and summer reading, this is a beginning reader that will inspire kids to get outside and explore!

Bonnie Worth is the author of countless books for young readers.

Aristides Ruiz has illustrated all the Cat in the Hat's Learning Library Books, among many others.

Joe Mathieu has illustrated countless children's books.

Bible Stories of Boys and Girls

Little Golden Book

CHRISTIN DITCHFIELD
ILLUSTRATED BY JERRY SMATH

YOUNG READERS WILL enjoy these exciting Bible stories about kids not so different from themselves. From the story of David defeating Goliath with his slingshot, to Miriam, who watched over her baby brother, Moses, as he lay in his basket in the bulrushes, this Little Golden Book has something for both boys and girls and is a great introduction to Bible stories.

Wonders of Nature

A Little Golden Book Classic

JANE WERNER WATSON
ILLUSTRATED BY ELOISE WILKIN

"ISN'T IT A wonder that out in the pond, smooth wiggly tadpoles lose their tails and grow legs, and turn into frogs? And that fuzzy caterpillars weave silken cocoons around themselves and go to sleep, then wake up as pretty moths or butterflies?"

It's a rare nonfiction book that's also a simple, beautiful poem. In this gorgeous Little Golden Book from 1957, Eloise Wilkin's stunning and realistic artwork is accompanied by gentle text that brings an awe of nature to the youngest readers.

How Do Lions Say I Love You?

DIANE MULDROW
ILLUSTRATED BY DAVID WALKER

HOW DO ANIMALS say "I love you"?

Bears like to say it with a kiss on the muzzle.

A mama cow says it with a lick and a nuzzle.

Sweet, simple rhymes and soft pastel illustrations show some of the unique and touching ways in which different animals show love to their little ones and each other.

Diane Muldrow is the author of a number of children's books, including Mama, Where Are You?, Mama, What's in There?, and Somewhere So Sleepy for preschoolers, as well as the Dish series for middle graders.

David Walker has illustrated numerous children's books. His colorful palette and charming characters delight young readers everywhere.

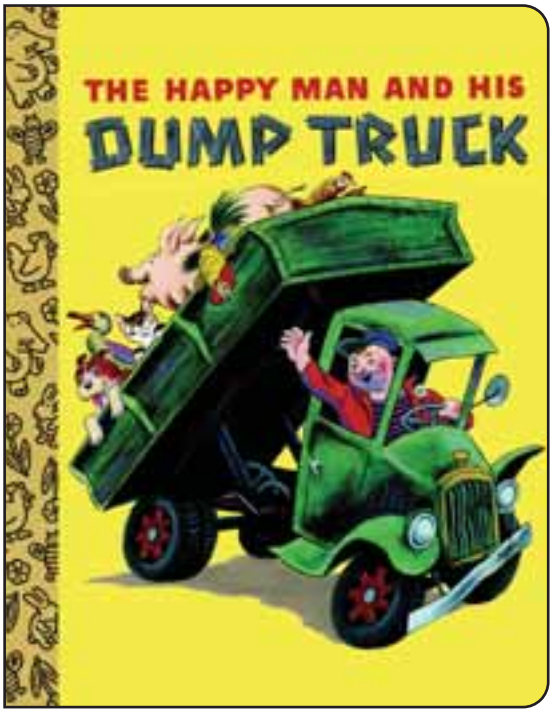
Another bestselling Little Golden Book Classic is now a board book!



The Happy Man and His Dump Truck

Little Golden Treasures

MIRYAM
ILLUSTRATED BY TIBOR GERGELY

IN THIS SWEET and very simple story, a friendly man with a dump truck befriends a pig and gives him a ride in the back of his truck. He tips the dumper—a perfect slide for the pig! Soon a hen, a rooster, a dog, a duck, and a cat get to go for a joyride too. "What a fine sliding board!" they all cry. Whee!

Tibor Gergely was one of the most prolific Golden Books illustrators, bringing to life some of the most beloved Little Golden Books characters: Scuffy the Tugboat and Tootle. He also illustrated the bestselling Little Golden Books The Fire Engine Book, Seven Little Postmen, and The Good Humor Man.

Go green with Teenie Greenies!

Eco People on the Go!

JAN GERARDI

CHEER UP, KERMIT—now it's easy being green! Toddlers discover environmentally friendly ways to get around in this adorable lift-the-flap board book with playful rhymes and illustrations by author-illustrator Jan Gerardi. People go green as they zoom and glide or share a ride through seven on-the-go spreads before stopping to plant trees to help the earth.

The Little Composter

JAN GERARDI

HOW DOES YOUR garden grow? With apple cores and carrot tops and wiggly worms all in a row! A young child builds a compost in this back-to-the-earth lift-the-flap board book. Toddlers will love these seven spreads of playful rhymes and illustrations that show how much fun working with dirt can be.

Jan Gerardi has illustrated many books for children. Teenie Greenies are the first books she has both written and illustrated. She lives in New Jersey with her husband, daughter, and three dogs.

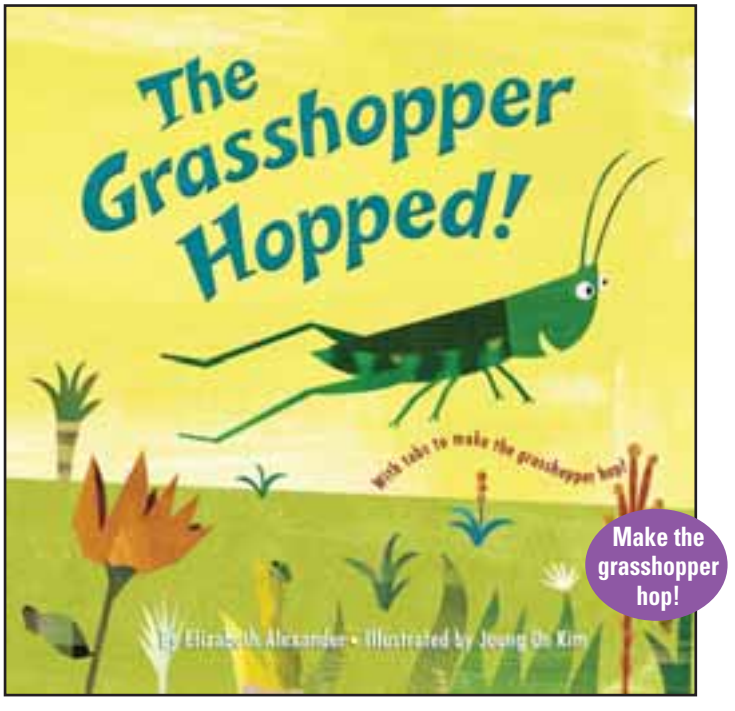
A curious grasshopper hops his way into children's hearts in this interactive book!



The Grasshopper Hopped!

ELIZABETH ALEXANDER
ILLUSTRATED BY JOUNG UN KIM

HIPPITY-HOP! HIPPITY-HOP!

GRASSHOPPER HOPS off on an adventure that lands him in lots of peculiar places—the soup, which is too hot; the fridge, which is too cold; the sea, which is too salty; and into the mouth of the big hungry frog, which is . . . well, you'll have to read more to find out! How far will poor Grasshopper have to hop before he finds the right place to be?

This funny and fun-filled story is brought to life with easy-to-move tabs that allow children to help the grasshopper find his favorite spot.

Elizabeth Alexander is a designer for a large children's book publisher. This is her second novelty book, following the successful Little Pumpkin's Big Surprise. She lives in New York City.

Joung Un Kim has illustrated many children's books in her eye-catching cut-paper style.

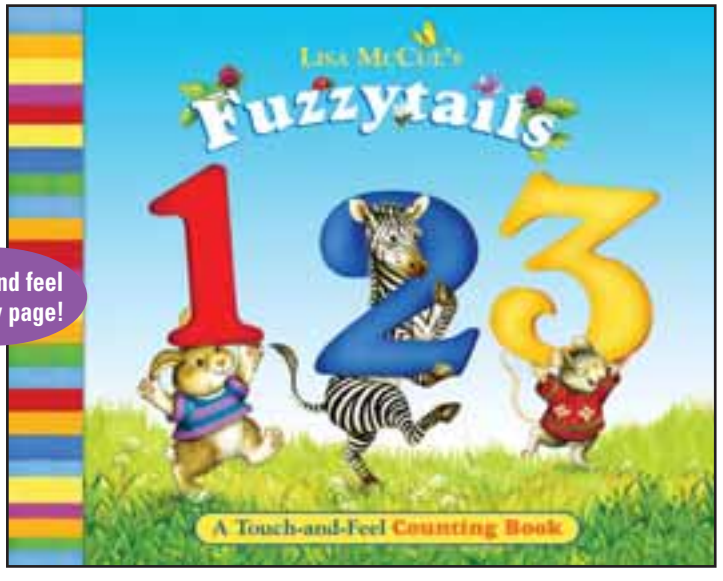
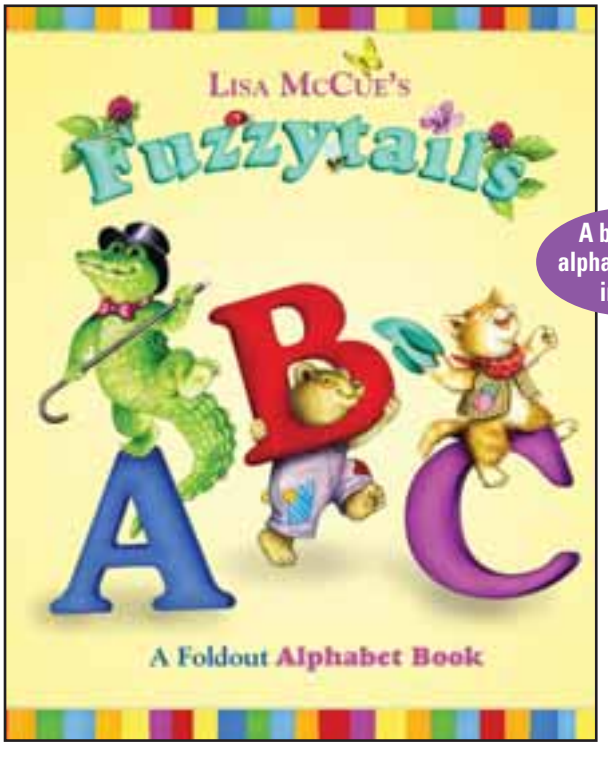
Two delightful new titles from beloved author-illustrator Lisa McCue!



Touch and feel on every page!



A book and alphabet poster in one!

Fuzzytails 123

A Touch-and-Feel Counting Book

LISA McCUE

ONE PANDA LOVES patches and corduroy pants.

Two piggies in the garden really love to dance.

Little ones will love learning numbers from 1 to 10 with Lisa McCue's gorgeous touch-and-feel counting book! They can feel bumpy "alligator skin," a fuzzy bunny, slippery ice where penguins play, soft moss where monkeys jump, and more. McCue's menagerie includes her familiar furry creatures and less expected ones, shown in different environments—all illustrated in a new, bright color palette and with rich, eye-pleasing patterns.

Fuzzytails ABC

A Foldout Alphabet Book

LISA McCUE

ALBERT ALLIGATOR TAPPY-TAPS atop the A.

He's always first in line, and that's the alligator way.

Little ones can learn their letters with this unusual alphabet book. Lisa McCue's amusing animals introduce the letters from A to Z with funny rhymes and lots of alliteration.

But that's not all! The back of the foldout accordion pages presents the animals without the text, so when the perforations at the front and back of the book are detached, the foldout can be removed, creating a lovely alphabet frieze perfect for decorating a nursery or playroom.

Over the course of a long, fruitful career, Lisa McCue has illustrated scores of well-loved children's books and has written and illustrated dozens of others. Her Random House books include Fuzzytail Bunny, Fuzzytail Farm, 10 Little Puppy Dogs, Puppy Peek-a-Boo, and The Animal's Advent. She lives in Annapolis, Maryland.

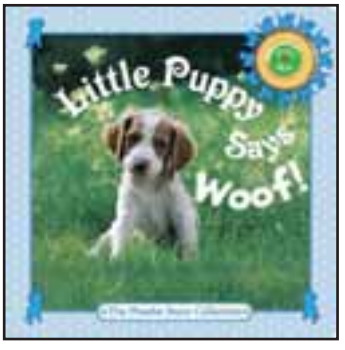
Little Animal board books that "TALK"!

Perfect for Easter!



Little Duck Says Quack!

JUDY DUNN
PHOTOGRAPHY BY PHOEBE DUNN

QUACK-QUACK-QUACK! This sweet story about a boy and a duckling is based on the perennial bestseller, The Little Duck. Youngsters can push the sound button to make the duck quack while the story is being read.

Little Puppy Says Woof!

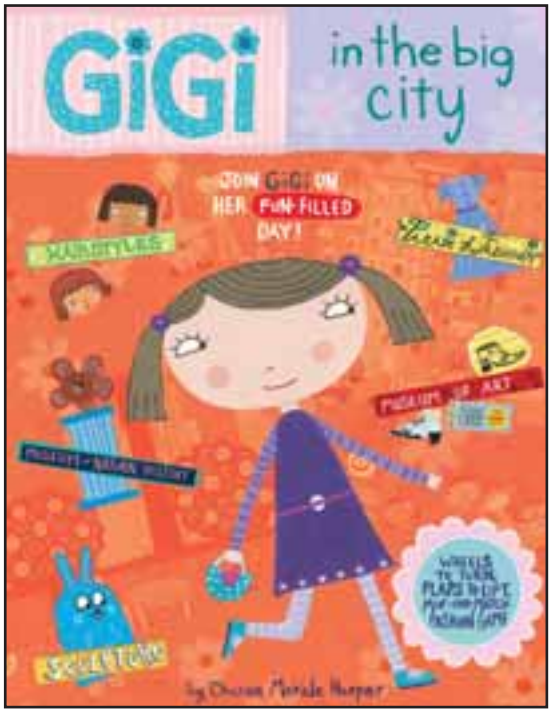
JUDY DUNN
PHOTOGRAPHY BY PHOEBE DUNN

WOOF-WOOF! This heartwarming story about a young boy and his dog has been adapted from the bestselling The Little Puppy. Little ones can push the button to make the puppy bark at any time.

Each of these charming abridgements of our bestselling Picturebacks includes a push-button sound chip that toddlers can press to make the animals "talk." Illustrated with Phoebe Dunn's familiar photographs and now printed on sturdy cardstock, these interactive books will delight a whole new audience!

Phoebe Dunn was a world-renowned photographer known especially for her pictures of children and animals. Her photos have been published around the world in more than 20 children's books, a number of them written by her daughter, Judy Dunn.

A fun and educational book with flaps, wheels, and pull tabs galore!



Gigi in the Big City

CHARISE MERICLE HARPER

GIGI IS SPENDING a day in the big city—and what a day it is! She travels through town on mass transportation, shops in various stores, goes to lots of museums, meets interesting people and learns about their occupations, and then goes home to dream of her fun-filled and informative day.

Through the use of lift-the-flaps, pull tabs, and wheels, readers will learn about all kinds of things—birthstones, different kinds of literature, the history of shoes and makeup, information on art and different mediums, natural history (the world's largest tusks, flower, and butterfly!), mermaids and fairies, and what different people do at work.

Young girls will have the time of their lives with Gigi—and learn lots of new things in the process.

Charise Mericle Harper has written and illustrated numerous children's books, including Milo's Special Words; Good Night, Leo; When Randolph Turned Rotten; Fashion Kitty; Amy and Ivan; There Was a Bold Lady Who Wanted a Star; and others. She lives in Mamaroneck, New York, with her husband and their two children.

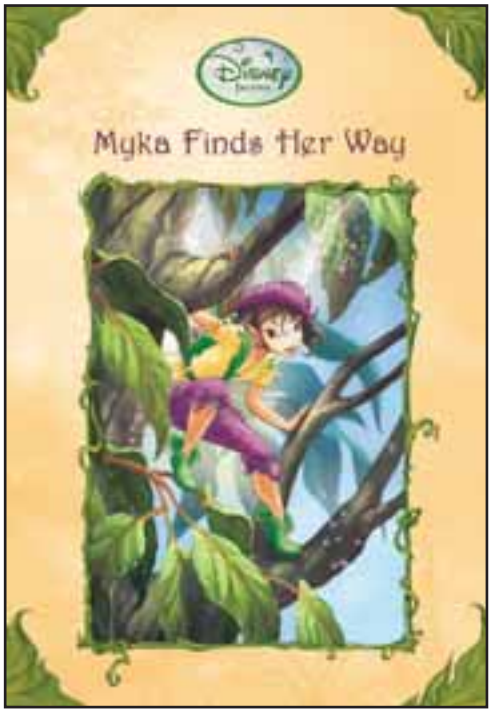
Introducing a new fairy and a new talent—scouting!



Myka Finds Her Way

A Stepping Stone Book™

MYKA CAN SPOT an ant carrying a crumb in a faraway field. She can see an inchworm sliding along a twig in a distant wood. She's a brave-hearted, sharp-eyed fairy scout. Then one morning Myka thinks she spots something dangerous and sounds an alarm—a false alarm. Now Myka's no longer so sure of herself. She's starting to think something is wrong with her eyes, but she doesn't want anyone to know. Can Myka count on her other senses to help her fool everyone?

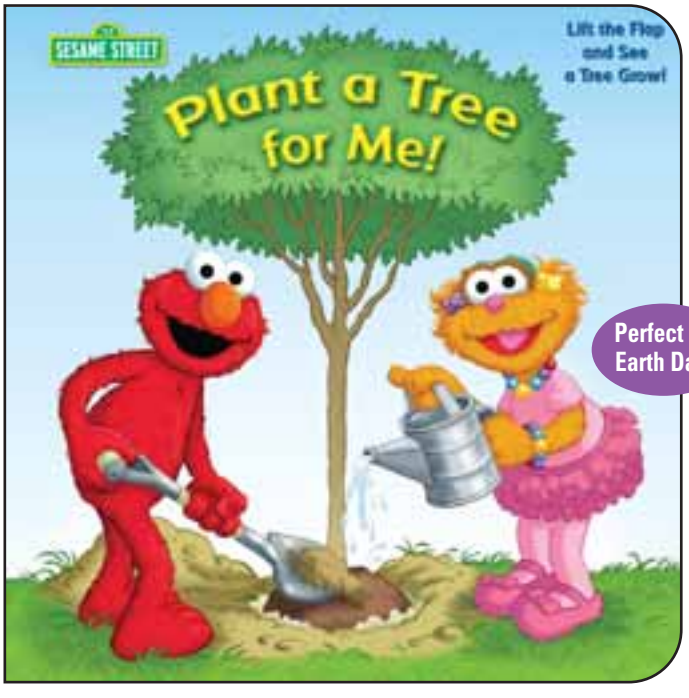
The Call of Kur

A Stepping Stone Book™

LEGEND SAYS THAT WHOEVER controls the Sumerian super beast known as Kur will possess the power to conquer the world. Zak Saturday holds the final clue to Kur's identity, and now the world's secret scientists and a group of creepy cryptids are scrambling to get their hands—and claws—on him. As Kur's power grows, Zak will have to think and act fast before the cryptids start a war with humanity! Fans of the popular animated series The Secret Saturdays will love Zak's exciting adventures in this easy-to-read chapter book featuring action-packed full-color illustrations.

Sesame Street goes green!



Plant a Tree for Me!

THE SESAME STREET monsters jump on the green movement bandwagon! Simple text and speech balloons give young ones basic information about how trees help the environment and the ways in which we all benefit from the trees on our planet. Illustrations show different species of trees and their leaves through the cycle of the seasons with labels to identify them. The payoff comes at the end with a large lift-the-flap that shows how, from a tiny seed, a mighty (and environmentally neccessary!) tree grows.

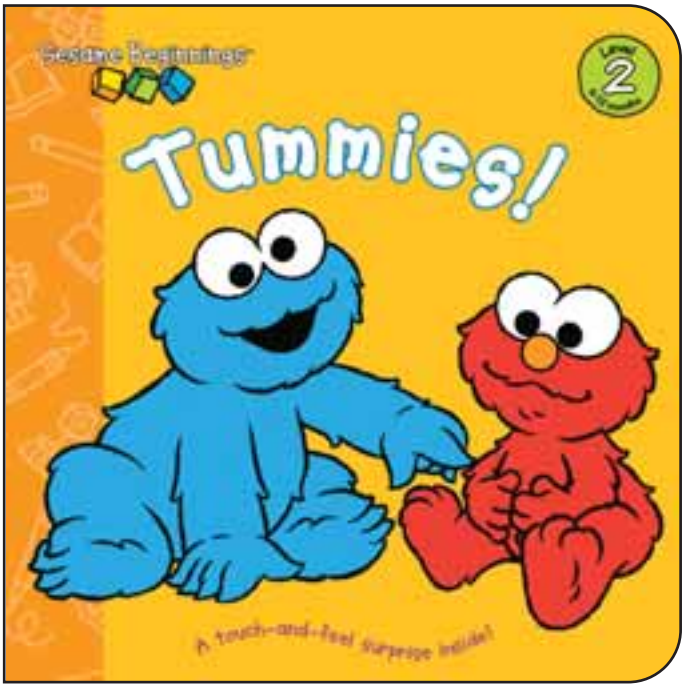
Babies and toddlers will be tickled by Tummies!



Tummies!

Sesame Beginnings

TUMMIES, TUMMIES EVERYWHERE! What do little ones do with tummies? They crawl on them, listen to them rumble, fill them with yummy food, wiggle and scratch them—and lots more. Sesame Beginnings offers a charming, rhyming ode to the home of the belly button—a body part everyone has in common, and the target of tickles, giggles, and general fun. And there's a touch-and-feel tummy on the last page!

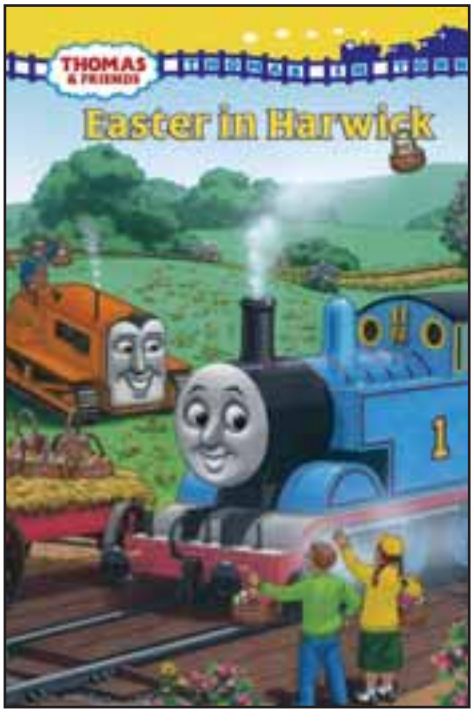
Thomas delivers Easter fun.



Easter in Harwick

THE REVEREND W. AWDRY

FOR THE CHILDREN of Harwick, Easter and the big egg hunt can't come soon enough. But when Terence loses all the eggs in the countryside, it's up to Thomas to deliver the children to Easter. This latest installment in the popular Thomas in Town series will be the perfect fit for young engineers' Easter baskets.

In the early 1940s, a loving father crafted a small, blue, wooden train engine for his son, Christopher. The stories that The Reverend W. Awdry made up to accompany this wonderful toy were first published in 1945. He continued to create new adventures and characters until 1972 when he retired from writing. He died in 1997 at age 85.

Uglydoll:
Ugly Colors

DAVID HORVATH AND SUN-MIN KIM

FIRST CAME THE alphabet. Then came the numbers. Now Uglydoll co-creators David Horvath and Sun-Min Kim have whomped up their third Ugly Board about—what else? Colors, the full spectrum from red to purple, including the all-important combo, plaid!

David Horvath and Sun-Min Kim are a husband-and-wife team living in Los Angeles with their daughter, Mina. They met in art school in New York, where they began creating and designing art and toys together. Their relationship continued to grow, and the Uglydolls were born in 2001, quickly becoming a worldwide success with fans of all ages. David, Sun-Min, and the Uglydoll family (24 characters and still growing) have won the Toy of the Year Award and have been featured on CNN, MSNBC, and the Today show and in the New York Times, InStyle, and Time magazine.

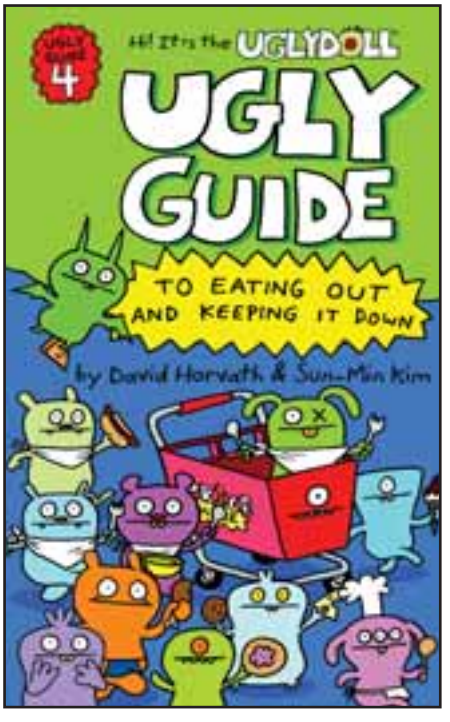
What do Uglydolls eat to keep themselves so Ugly?



Uglydoll:

Ugly Guide to Eating Out and Keeping It Down

DAVID HORVATH AND SUN-MIN KIM

EXPLORE THE CULINARY side of Uglytown in this fourth Ugly Guide by David Horvath and Sun-Min Kim. In 64 colorful pages you'll discover what and where the Uglydolls eat, from the low-brow joints that sell abducted cow burgers and bug-'n'-buns, to the high-brow Chez Fancy Pants where the lines to the mobile coat check are sooooooo long. Ugly fans will love watching their favorite characters chow down in Uglytown, where imitation unicorn only costs a dime and stupid milk sells for a nickel.

The everyday adventures of two best friends . . .

Porky and Bess

Step into Reading—Step 4

ELLEN WEISS AND MEL FRIEDMAN
ILLUSTRATED BY MARSHA WINBORN

PORKY IS MESSY . . . morning, noon, and night. Bess is perfect in every way imaginable—from her well-appointed cupboard to the figure eights she skates at the local pond. But somehow these two unlikely friends complement one another like tea and toast. So when Porky finds himself in a pickle—he can't finish writing his poem and the secret ingredient from his favorite recipe is missing—who is there to lend a hand? Bess, of course! The everyday adventures of these two very different friends will delight newly independent readers who are ready for some funny, episodic storytelling.

Ellen Weiss and Mel Friedman have written hundreds of books for kids of all ages. They live in New York City and the Berkshires.

Marsha Winborn is the illustrator of more than 25 books for children, including the popular Digby and Kate series. She lives in Santa Fe, New Mexico.

Spring Surprises

Step into Reading—Step 2

ANNA JANE HAYS
ILLUSTRATED BY HALA WITTWER SWEARINGEN

IT'S TIME TO say goodbye to winter and celebrate all the fun and exciting surprises springtime offers—like flying kites, making mud pies, watching new baby animals take their first steps, and dancing among the raindrops. This joyful ode to all things spring is filled with easy-to-decode rhymed text and bright, inviting art. Spring Surprises includes two sheets of stickers.

Anna Jane Hays is a former editorial director and child development specialist for The Children's Television Workshop, the previous incarnation of Sesame Workshop. She has written and coedited numerous books for young children, including several Step into Reading Phonics Readers. She lives in Santa Fe, New Mexico.

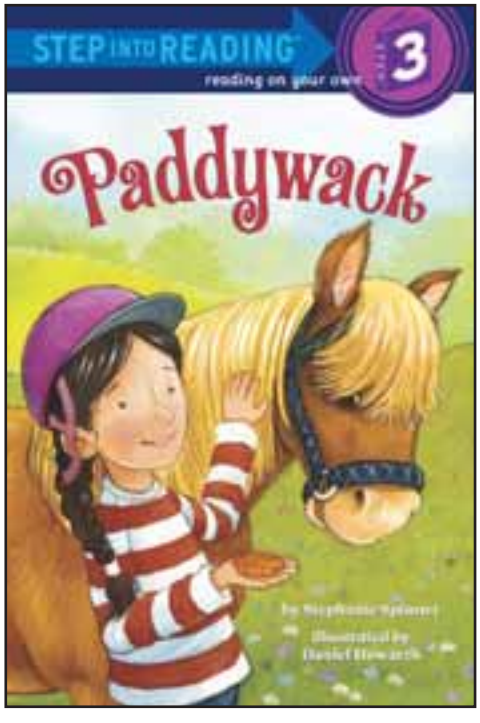
Paddywack is a pony with attitude!



Paddywack

Step into Reading—Step 3

STEPHANIE SPINNER
ILLUSTRATED BY DANIEL HOWARTH

PADDYWACK IS A petite nine hands high, and every pony inch is packed full of spunk. It hasn't been easy, but he now has his rider, Jane, well trained. He'll trot. He'll canter. He'll jump the jumps. He's a perfect pony . . . when she gives him treats. But on the day of the big horse show, Jane is so nervous she forgets his treats. Will Paddywack dig in his hooves? Or can he rise to the occasion?

This sweet story is sure to capture young horse-lovers' hearts.

Stephanie Spinner is a well-known author who writes for various age groups. Her popular Stepping Stone book Aliens for Breakfast was a Texas Bluebonnet Award winner. She also publishes literary fiction for Knopf, such as Quiver, Quicksilver, Damosel, and an adaptation of The Nutcracker. She lives in Sherman, Connecticut.

Daniel Howarth is the illustrator of Why I Love Christmas and What Are You Doing in My Bed? This is his first book for Random House.

GIBBS DAVIS
ILLUSTRATED BY SALLY WERN COMPORT

KIDS WILL BE kids—even when they live in the White House! From Willie and Tad Lincoln (who rode their pet goats through the East Room) to Malia and Sasha Obama (who were advised by the Bush twins to trick-or-treat down the aisles of Air Force One), the children featured in this newly updated edition of First Kids share a unique experience and role in American history.

Gibbs Davis is the author of many children's books, including Wackiest White House Pets. She was a featured author at the American Presidential Experience during the Democratic Convention in 2008, and cohost of the First Annual Reading Discovery Event with Barbara Bush at the George Bush Presidential Library in Texas. She lives an exotic mid-coastal life, splitting her time between New York City and Milwaukee.

Sally Wern Comport is the award-winning illustrator of numerous children's books. She lives in Annapolis, Maryland.

Leapin' leprechauns—it's two new Magic Tree House books!

Magic Tree House #43:
Leprechaun in Late Winter
A Stepping Stone Book™

MARY POPE OSBORNE
ILLUSTRATED BY SAL MURDOCCA

JACK AND ANNIE are on their third mission to find (and inspire!) creative people to bring happiness to others through the arts (Mozart and Louis Armstrong so far). Set in Ireland, Jack and Annie meet an Irish girl and go on a magical adventure that changes the girl's life—she grows up to be Lady Gregory, who helped bring back the Irish legends, started a theater, and helped the Irish people regain both their heritage and their pride.

Magic Tree House Research Guide #21:
Leprechauns and Irish Folklore
A Nonfiction Companion to Leprechaun in Late Winter

MARY POPE OSBORNE AND NATALIE POPE BOYCE
ILLUSTRATED BY SAL MURDOCCA

DO THE FOLK stories about leprechauns match our ideas about them today? Are there other fairies in Irish tradition? What are the origins of these stories? Why do people believe in leprecahuns and fairies? Find out the answers to these questions and more in Magic Tree House Research Guide #21: Leprechauns and Irish Folklore, Jack and Annie's guide to the wee folk of Ireland.

Mary Pope Osborne and Natalie Pope Boyce are sisters who grew up on army posts all over the world. Mary is the author of more than 50 acclaimed books for children. Natalie has worked as a children's librarian and as a teacher of English and ESL.

Sal Murdocca has illustrated more than 200 children's trade and textbooks. He is also a librettist for children's opera, a video artist, an avid runner, a hiker, and a bicyclist, and a teacher of children's illustration at the Parsons School of Design. He lives and works in New York with his wife, Nancy.

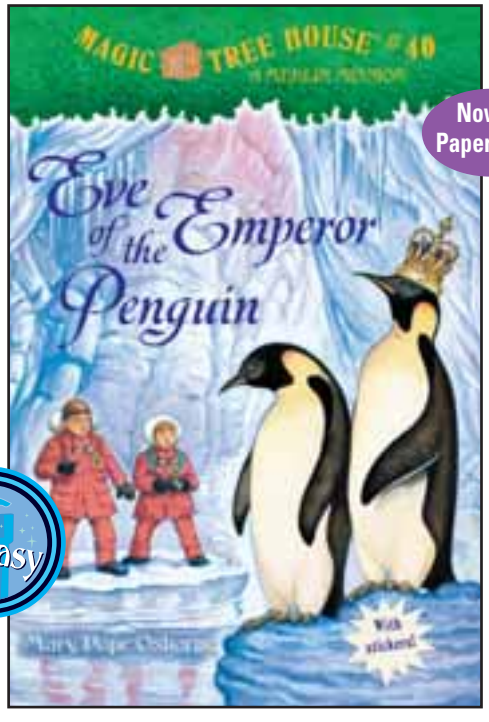
Stay cool with Jack and Annie—and temporary tattoos!



Magic Tree House #40:
Eve of the Emperor Penguin
A Stepping Stone Book™

MARY POPE OSBORNE
ILLUSTRATED BY SAL MURDOCCA

JACK AND ANNIE ARE on a mission to learn the final secret of happiness! This time, the magic tree house whisks them away to the super-cold continent of Antarctica—the land of ice and snow and penguins—where they're supposed to find the Cave of the Ancient Crown. But when they meet a group of scientists and reporters, Jack and Annie are surprised to discover that they are in contemporary times! How will they find an ancient crown if they're with these people?

Mary Pope Osborne takes young readers to the very ends of the earth, where science, mystery, and magic combine for an unforgettable adventure. This paperback edition includes all-new back matter full of activities and puzzles, plus a bonus sheet of temporary tattoos featuring the artwork of Sal Murdocca.

It's a mystery for every month from A to Z Mysteries author Ron Roy!

Calendar Mysteries #3:
March Mischief
A Stepping Stone Book™

RON ROY
ILLUSTRATED BY JOHN STEVEN GURNEY

IT'S ST. PATRICK'S Day in Green Lawn. Bradley, Brian, Nate, and Lucy dress up a leprechaun statue for the town's yearly contest. They leave it out on the porch overnight, but the next morning, it's missing! Who is behind the mischief? It will take four kids and the luck of the Irish to find out.

Ron Roy perfectly captures the reading level and interest of the earliest chapter book readers in this exciting spinoff of his popular A to Z Mysteries series.

Calendar Mysteries #4:
April Adventure
A Stepping Stone Book™

DINK, JOSH, AND Ruth Rose have hidden Easter eggs for the younger kids to find. Bradley, Brian, Nate, and Lucy have no trouble finding the plastic eggs. But some of the golden eggs disappear! Can the four kids track down the thief?

Ron Roy lives in Connecticut with his white puppy, Pal. He is also the author of Random House's A to Z Mysteries and Capital Mysteries series.

John Steven Gurney has illustrated many books for children, including the entire A to Z Mysteries series and Scholastic's popular Bailey School Kids series. He lives in Brattleboro, Vermont.

Yes, we can . . . put brand-new covers on all the Capital Mystery books!

The classic fantasy Alice in Wonderland—for first chapter book readers!

Cover not final

Alice in Wonderland

A Stepping Stone Book™

LEWIS CARROLL
ADAPTED BY MALLORY LOEHR
ILLUSTRATED BY JOHN TENNIEL

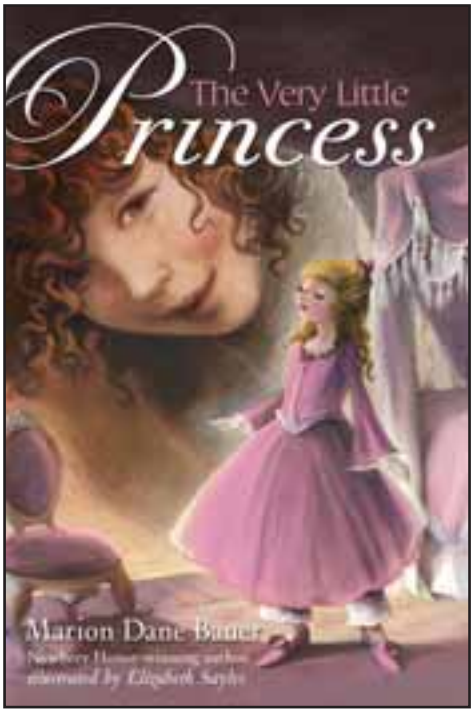
ALICE CAN'T BELIEVE her eyes when a white rabbit wearing a waistcoat and carrying a pocket watch dashes by her. She chases after him, down a rabbit hole to a strange land full of exotic creatures, such as the Mad Hatter and March Hare, a smiling Cheshire cat, a philosophical caterpillar, and a tempermental croquet-playing queen. Alice can hardly keep track of all the curious characters, let alone herself!

Lewis Carroll's classic Alice's Adventures in Wonderland has been adapted to an easier reading level for Stepping Stones, while keeping all the fun, nonsense, and fantastic twists of the original book.

Lewis Carroll's Alice's Adventures in Wonderland was published in 1865, and a sequel, Through the Looking-Glass and What Alice Found There was published in 1871. He died in 1898 at the age of 65.

John Tenniel was born in London in 1820. Queen Victoria knighted John Tenniel for his artistic achievements in 1893, and he passed away in 1914.

Sometimes a doll isn't just a doll . . . she's a princess.



The Very Little Princess

A Stepping Stone Book™

MARION DANE BAUER
ILLUSTRATED BY ELIZABETH SAYLES

REGINA IS ONLY 3-1/4 inches tall, but she knows from the moment she wakes up in her dollhouse bed that she is a princess. Why else would she have such a lovely pink gown? Why else would she have such golden hair and flawless skin? And why else would she have a four-foot, curly-haired human creature to wait on her? Meanwhile Zoey, that four-foot, curly-haired creature, has always dreamed that someday one of her dolls would come alive. But in her dreams, the doll never ordered her around. The doll didn't call her a servant. And the doll was a whole lot nicer!

In a classic storyteller's voice, Marion Dane Bauer tells an exquisite tale of friendship, family, and loss, laced with humor and joy.

Marion Dane Bauer is the author of the Newbery Honor–winning book, On My Honor, and has also won the Kerlan Award for her body of work.

Elizabeth Sayles's luminous art can be seen in more than 20 children's books.

History

A talented orphan may find a new family in Venice. . . .

Anna Maria's Gift

A Stepping Stone Book™

JANICE SHEFELMAN
ILLUSTRATED BY ROBERT PAPP

WHEN ANNA MARIA'S father, a famous violin maker, dies, she is sent to live in the Pieta, an orphanage in Venice. Though she misses her father, she knows he will always be with her, as long as she has the beautiful violin he crafted for her.

Luckily, the Pieta is not just an orphanage—it's also a renowned music school whose teacher is none other than composer Antonio Vivaldi. When Anna Maria becomes his star pupil, another orphan's jealousy leads her to throw Anna Maria's precious violin into the canals. With help from her beloved teacher and new friends, Anna Maria searches Venice's bridges, streets, and canals, but it seems hopeless. Will Anna Maria ever find her father's violin?

Janice Shefelman's love of children's books from an early age led to careers as a teacher, a librarian, and a writer. Her first book, A Paradise Called Texas, was a Texas Bluebonnet Award nominee. Since then she has written dozens of children's books. She lives in Austin, Texas.

The story of a summer of self-discovery from Linda Newbery.

Flightsend

A Summer of Discovery

LINDA NEWBERY

FLIGHTSEND IS CHARLIE'S new home, whether she likes it or not. Her mother sees it as an end to all that's gone so tragically wrong. They had been a proper family. Mum; her boyfriend, Sean; and Charlie, with a new baby sister on the way. But the baby died before she was born and everything changed. Gradually, Charlie's mother pushed Sean away, before resigning from her job and selling the house.

Charlie is certain that the move to a ramshackle cottage, miles from anywhere, can only make things worse. She couldn't be more wrong. For Charlie's mum there's a new business and the fresh start that she knew she needed. And for Charlie there's a new job, new friends, a newly discovered talent for art, and new feelings for two very different men. It's a summer of beginnings, not ends; a summer that Charlie will never forget.

The author of more than 30 books for children and young adults, Linda Newbery is a frequent speaker in schools and at festivals and conferences, and tutors courses for writers of all ages. She lives in rural Northhampton, England.

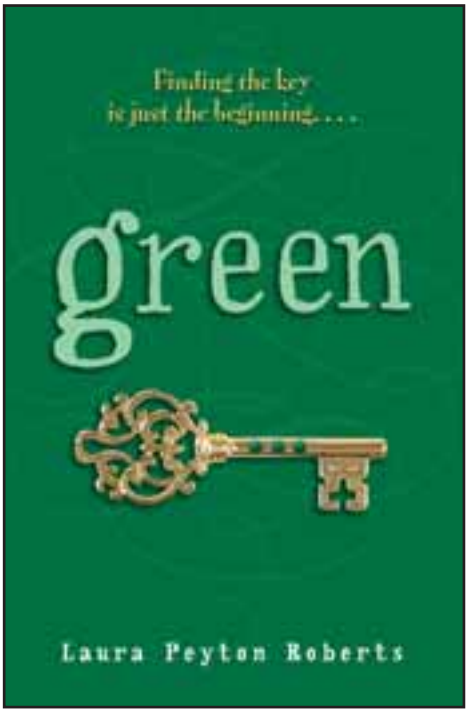
A magical world is counting on Lily. . . .



Green

LAURA PEYTON ROBERTS

TURNING THIRTEEN STARTS off with a bang for Lily. Literally. A birthday present explodes on her porch . . . and soon after a trio of leprechauns (yes, leprechauns) appears in her bedroom. They whisk her away to a land of clover, piskies, a new friend, a cute boy, and lots of glimmering, glittering gold. A world of Green.

It turns out that Lily, like her grandmother before her, is next in line to be keeper for the Clan of Green, and in charge of all their gold. That is, if she passes three tests. And she has to pass them. Because if she doesn't she may never get to go home again. She'll be stuck with the Greens.

Forever.

Laura Peyton Roberts is the author of many books for young readers, including the novels Ghost of a Chance, The Queen of Second Place, and Queen B. She lives with her husband in San Diego, California. Visit her at www.laurapeytonroberts.com.

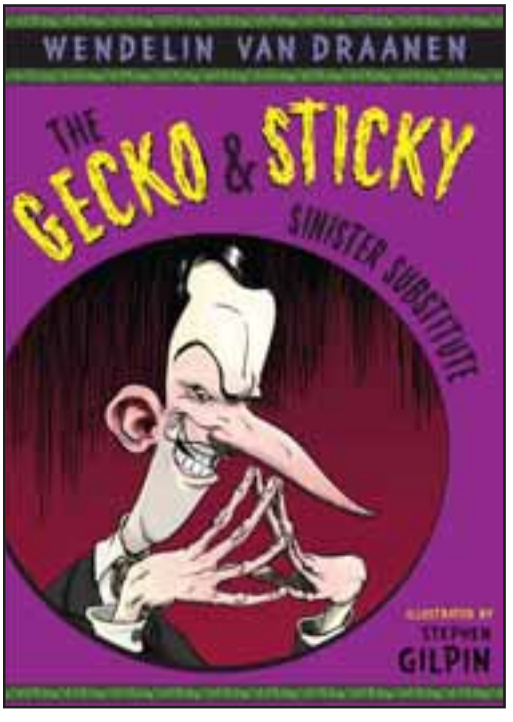
Has the dastardly Damien Black met his match?!



The Gecko & Sticky: Sinister Substitute

WENDELIN VAN DRAANEN
ILLUSTRATED BY STEPHEN GILPIN

DAVE'S MOST DESPISED teacher, a gleeful frog dissector named Ms. Veronica Krockle, is absent. Her students are psyched! But Sticky is suspicious. Especially when the substitute teacher turns out to be strangely interested in geckos. Or rather, boys with pet geckos.

That's no substitute! That's Damien Black, dastardly treasure hunter and master of disguise!

If Damien Black is in school, does that mean he's behind Ms. Krockle's absence? Could she have been kidnapped? And does that mean Dave has to rescue her? Ay chihuahua! The capped crusader is (reluctantly) on the case.

Wendelin Van Draanen spent many years as a teacher before devoting herself to writing full-time. She lives in central California.

Stephen Gilpin graduated from the School of Visual Arts. He lives in Kansas.

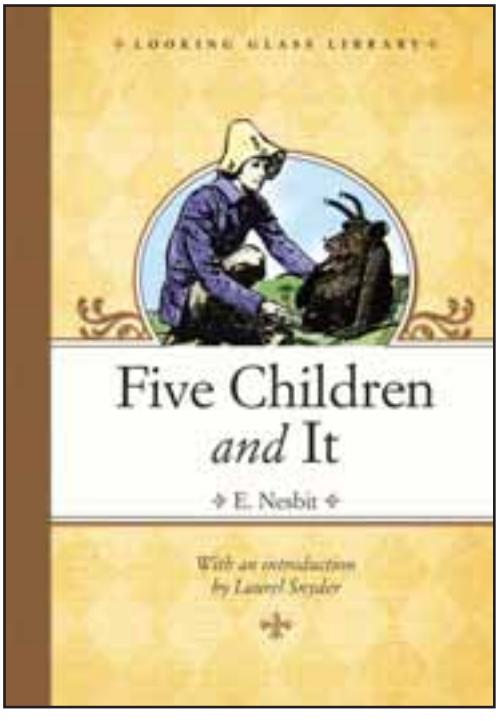
A classic tale of backyard magic and exotic mayhem.



Five Children and It

Looking Glass Library

E. NESBIT
INTRODUCTION BY LAUREL SNYDER

WHAT WOULD YOU do if you could wish for anything in the world? In E. Nesbit's classic middle-grade tale of adventure and mayhem, five children discover a Psammead, a grumpy magical creature with the ability to grant wishes. At first, their newfound power seems exciting and full of promise, but soon the children realize that getting what you wish for can land you in a whole heap of trouble! This Looking Glass Library edition includes an introduction by Laurel Snyder and line illustrations from the original 1902 publication.

E. Nesbit (1858–1924) is the beloved author of nearly 40 books, including Five Children and It, The Phoenix and the Carpet, and The Story of the Amulet.

The Princess and the Goblin

Looking Glass Library

GEORGE MACDONALD
INTRODUCTION BY JEANNE DUPRAU

CAN A PRINCESS find true happiness marrying a goblin prince? No way! Especially when the goblins plan to kidnap her and drag her underground to the altar. The princess is no helpless damsel, but when she finds herself in trouble, a brave boy named Curdie and a mysterious woman with long silver hair help her to escape the goblins and their wicked plan. This Looking Glass Library edition includes an introduction by underworld fantasy writer Jeanne DuPrau, with line illustrations from the original 1872 publication.

George MacDonald (1824–1905) was a Scottish author, poet, and minister. His encouragement led Lewis Carroll to submit Alice in Wonderland for publication, and his league of dedicated admirers included J.R.R. Tolkien, Madeleine L'Engle, and C. S. Lewis.

HOWARD PYLE
INTRODUCTION BY N. D. WILSON

IT IS EVENING at the Inn of the Sign of Mother Goose. In a dark, smoky room, the world's most famous storytellers gather to weave tales of mystery and enchantment. In this collection of 16 haunting fairy tales, Howard Pyle intertwines each story with the next, crafting a unified world filled with princes and demons, genies and sorceresses, and all the characters that pitch in to wage the age-old battle between good and evil. This Looking Glass Library edition includes an introduction by N. D. Wilson and Pyle's intricate line illustrations from the original 1894 publication.

Howard Pyle (1853–1911) was an American author and illustrator. He is best known for The Merry Adventures of Robin Hood, a compilation of tales about Robin Hood adapted for a young audience.

Series finale!

The Chestnut King

Book 3 of the 100 Cupboards

N. D. WILSON

WHEN HENRY YORK found 99 cupboards hidden behind his bedroom wall, he never dreamed they were doors to entirely new worlds! Unfortunately, Henry's discovery freed an ancient, undying witch, whose hunger for power would destroy every world connected to the cupboards—and every person whom Henry loves. Henry must seek out the legendary Chestnut King for help. Everything has a price, however, and the Chestnut King's desire may be as dangerous as the witch herself.

N. D. Wilson concludes a remarkable, worlds-spanning journey that began with one boy and one hundred avenues to adventure.

N. D. Wilson spent nearly a year living in his grandparents' attic. If there were cupboards in those walls, he never found them. He and his wife live in Idaho, along with their four young explorers. For more information, please visit www.ndwilson.com.

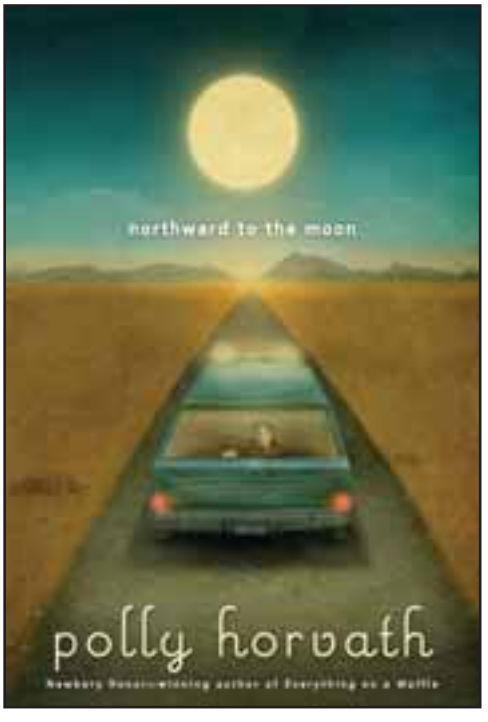
The Newbery Honor winner's brilliant sequel to My One Hundred Adventures.



Northward to the Moon

POLLY HORVATH

JANE AND HER family have moved to Canada . . . but not for long. When her stepfather, Ned, is fired from his job as a high school French teacher (seems he doesn't speak French), the family packs up and Jane embarks on a series of new adventures. At first, she imagines her family as a gang of outlaws, riding on horseback in masks, robbing trains, and traveling all the way to Mexico. But the reality is different: Setting off by car, they visit the tribe of Native Americans with whom Ned once lived, head to Las Vegas in search of Ned's magician brother, and wind up spending the summer with his eccentric mother on her ranch out west. As Jane lives through it all—developing a crush on a ranch hand, reevaluating her relationship with Ned, watching her sister Maya's painful growing up—she sees her world, which used to be so safe and secure, shift in strange and inconvenient ways.

Polly Horvath is one of the most highly acclaimed authors writing today. A National Book Award winner and Newbery Honor recipient, her most recent novel, My One Hundred Adventures, was a School Library Journal Best Book of the Year, a Booklist Editors' Choice, a Kirkus Reviews Best Children's Books, a New York Public Library's 100 Titles for Reading and Sharing, a Parents' Choice Gold Award winner, and an Amazon Best Book of 2008.

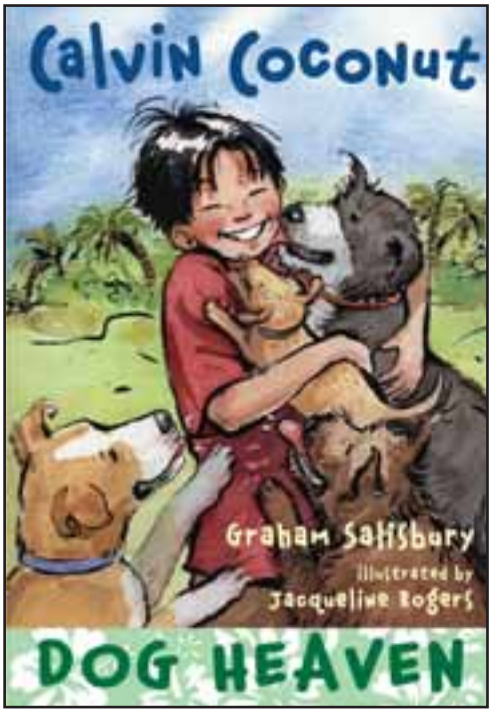
More than anything, Calvin Coconut wants a dog. But how will he get one of his own?



Calvin Coconut: Dog Heaven

GRAHAM SALISBURY
ILLUSTRATED BY JACQUELINE ROGERS

WHAT DO YOU want so badly that you can taste it—and can you persuade someone to give it to you? That's the subject of a writing assignment Calvin's fourth-grade teacher, Mr. Purdy, gives the class. Calvin wants a dog! He reads what he's written to his mom to see just how persuasive he can be. No way, Mom says: Stella, their babysitter, might be allergic, and Calvin is too irresponsible to care for a pet.

Luckily, Mom's boyfriend, Ledward, is on Calvin's side. He takes Calvin to a place he calls dog heaven. There Calvin meets the dog of his dreams—Streak. Now Calvin's got to convince Mom he's dog-responsible, because he and Streak belong together!

Graham Salisbury is the author of two Calvin Coconut books: Trouble Magnet and The Zippy Fix, as well as several novels for older readers, including the award-winning Lord of the Deep, Blue Skin of the Sea, Under the Blood-Red Sun, Eyes of the Emperor, House of the Red Fish, and Night of the Howling Dogs. He lives in Portland, Oregon.

Jacqueline Rogers has illustrated more than 90 books for young readers. She lives in Chatham, New York.

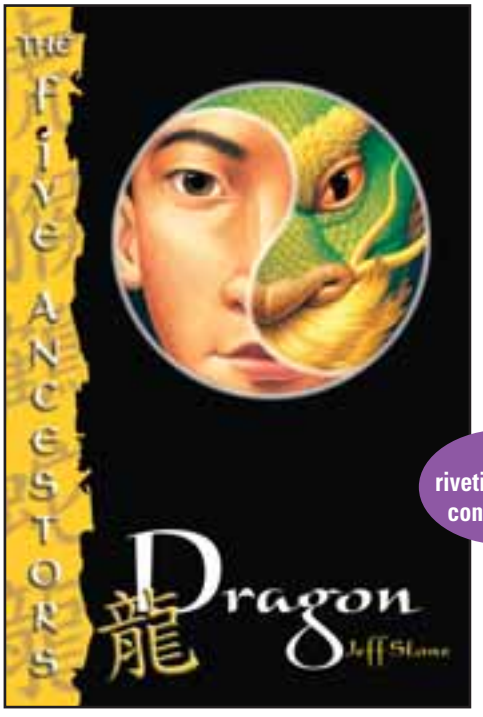
The ultimate battle for control of all of China!



The riveting series conclusion!

The Five Ancestors Book 7:
Dragon

JEFF STONE

LONG, THE DRAGON-STYLE warrior, saw his temple burned, his brothers killed, and his novice siblings fleeing to the four winds. But that was many months ago. Now the five young warriors have reunited with Ying, the redeemed renegade who put all of these events in motion, and ShaoShu, the mousy street thief, to prevent the wily mantis Tonglong from taking over China.

Time is short and distances are great, and the future of China lies in the hands of five young monks.

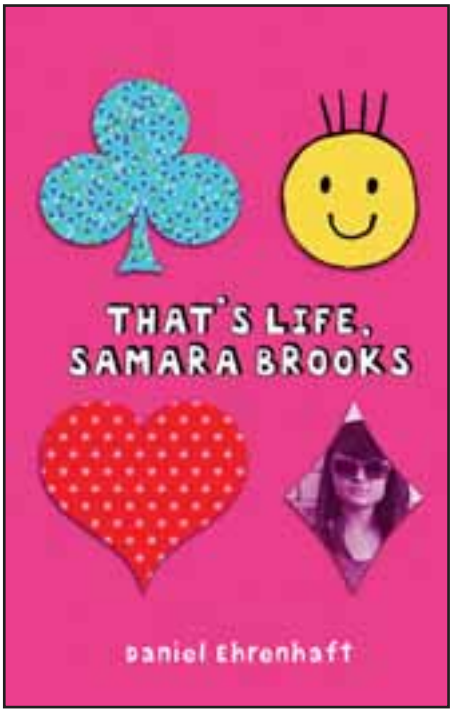
Luck—some people have it . . . and some people make their own.



That's Life, Samara Brooks

DANIEL EHRENHAFT

IS PLAYING BLACKJACK in the school cafeteria that bad? Samara Brooks doesn't think so. She isn't out to hurt anybody. She just wants to create some drama. And she does. Drama . . . and trouble.

When the principal threatens to call her parents, Samara proposes a way to save herself. She'll prove she's not a bad person by conducting a scientific experiment to show that she has the same DNA as one of the friendliest girls at school: class president Lily Frederick. But then Nathan Weiss, a kid obsessed with UFOs and mysterious codes, gets involved. And things get really weird.

Samara's DNA looks exactly like the eye symbols in the Phaistos Disk and the Voynich Manuscript, a six-hundred-year-old riddle that nobody can decipher—not even professional cryptologists. Does that mean Samara's an alien? Is it a coincidence? Or does it prove something that has never been proven before?

Daniel Ehrenhaft has written numerous novels for children and young adults, including The Last Dog on Earth, 10 Things to Do Before I Die, and Tell It to Naomi. He lives in Brooklyn with his wife, author Jessica Wollman, and two ill-behaved pets.

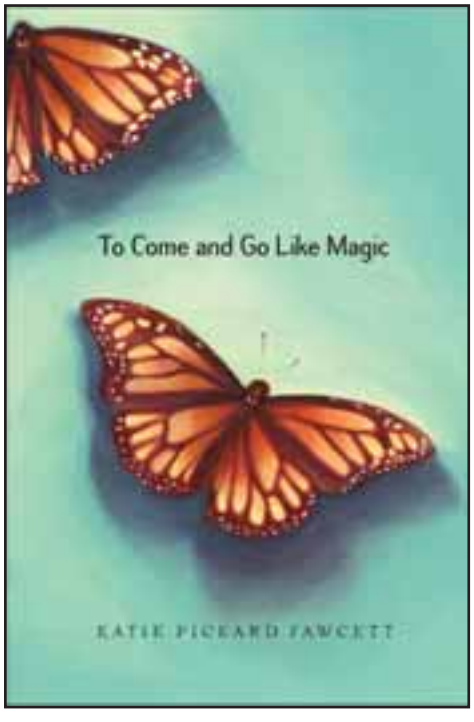
Meadows, fireflies, and deep-rooted secrets—welcome to Mercy Hill.



To Come and Go Like Magic

KATIE PICKARD FAWCETT

TWELVE-YEAR-OLD CHILI SUE Mahoney has never been outside of her small Appalachian town. Momma says Mercy Hill, Kentucky, is her "true home," but Chili longs to see the world—to have the freedom to leave and to explore.

So when Miss Matlock is brought in as the 7th grade substitute teacher, Chili and her classmate Willie Bright are thrilled. Everyone knows Miss Matlock has traveled around the globe. Why she's come back to her childhood home after all this time is a mystery, but Chili and Willie are eager to befriend her despite the rumors. As the three spend time together, Chili learns about the jungles and deserts and cities of the world. But she also discovers that there's more to Mercy Hill than she thought: beauty, in the people and places she's known all her life, and secrets, sometimes where they're least expected.

Told in vignettes and set in 1970s Appalachia, To Come and Go Like Magic is a heartwarming and hopeful debut novel about family, friendship, and the meaning of home.

Katie Pickard Fawcett grew up in the hills of eastern Kentucky and now lives with her husband and son in McLean, Virginia. This is her first novel.

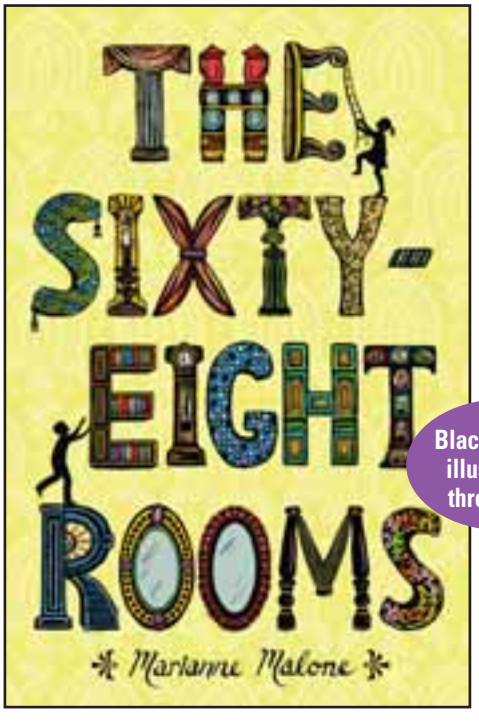
A magical art adventure for kids who loved Chasing Vermeer*!*



Black & white illustrations throughout!

The Sixty-Eight Rooms

MARIANNE MALONE
ILLUSTRATED BY GINA TRIPLETT

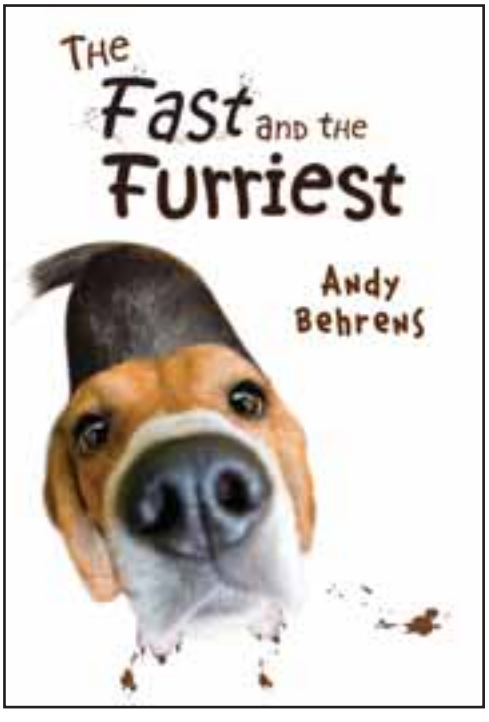
ALMOST EVERYBODY WHO has grown up in Chicago knows about the Thorne Rooms. Housed in the Children's Galleries of the Chicago Art Institute, they are a collection of 68 exquisitely crafted miniature rooms made in the 1930s by Mrs. James Ward Thorne. Each of the 68 rooms is designed in the style of a different historic period, and every detail is perfect, from the knobs on the doors to the candles in the candlesticks. Some might even say, the rooms are magic.

Imagine—what if you discovered a key that allowed you to shrink so that you were small enough to sneak inside and explore the rooms' secrets? What if you discovered that others had done so before you? And that someone had left something important behind?

Fans of Chasing Vermeer, The Doll People, and From the Mixed-Up Files of Mrs. Basil E. Frankweiler will be swept up in the magic of this exciting art adventure!

Marianne Malone is the cofounder of the Campus School Middle School for Girls in Urbana, Illinois. She and her husband divide their time between Urbana and Washington, D.C. This is her first novel.

A boy, his dog, a lazy summer, and . . . dog agility classes??



The Fast and the Furriest

ANDY BEHRENS

MEET KEVIN PUGH, 12-year-old couch potato. Now meet Cromwell, his part beagle, part potato chip dog. Kevin's looking forward to spending his summer doing as little as possible. Unfortunately, Kevin's father, former Chicago Bears star player/super-sports fanatic, Howie Pugh, feels differently. So does Cromwell, who has suddenly and mysteriously developed a fascination with agility competitions: running up seesaws, leaping over hurdles, soaring through hoops (sometimes). If he has to do anything, Kevin would rather do something for newly obsessed Cromwell, but dog agility lessons do not constitute a sport in his father's mind, so football camp it is. Until some well-timed events collide, literally, and soon Kevin's found a way for he and Cromwell to take classes, and the upstart Team Cromwell is born.

Andy Behrens has written a hilarious novel with a dry-as-dirt protagonist who's constantly tortured by the goings-on around him. It's also a charming story about a boy and his dog, as well as a meaningful and heartfelt look at a relationship between a boy and his father who don't always see eye-to-eye.

Andy Behrens is the author of two previous children's books. He lives in Chicago with his wife and daughter.

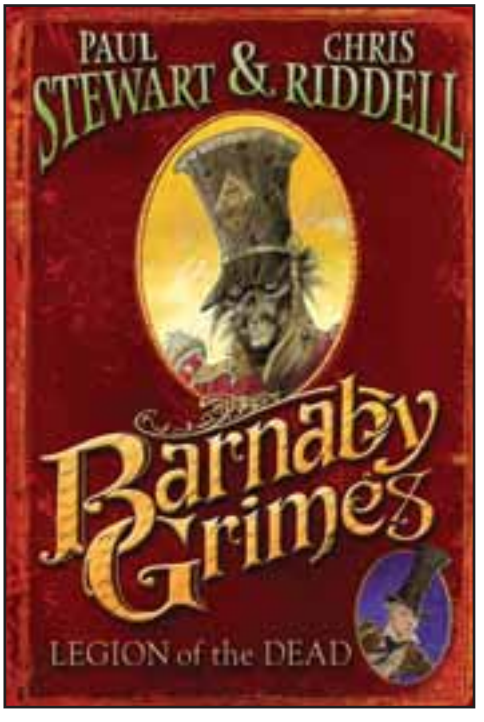
When walking in graveyards, beware the sound of bells. . . .



Barnaby Grimes: Legion of the Dead

PAUL STEWART AND CHRIS RIDDELL

"THE CORPSES swayed where they stood, their bony arms outstretched before them and tattered sleeves hanging limply in the foggy air. I smelled the sourness of the sewers about them; that, and the sweet whiff of death. Their sunken eyes bored into mine. I was surrounded. . . ."

Barnaby Grimes is a tick-tock lad, delivering messages and running errands all over the city, day and night. Gangland funerals and diving expeditions are hazardous enough, but when the graveyards begin to give up their dead, this tick-tock lad is faced with his deadliest challenge yet. . . .

A blood-curdling tale of greed and betrayal. Will Barnaby be defeated by the Legion of the Dead?

Paul Stewart and Chris Riddell's incomparable Barnaby Grimes returns for another adventure in the third installment of the brilliantly exciting horror-thriller series set in Dickensian London.

Paul Stewart and Chris Riddell are the creators of the bestselling Edge Chronicles series and the Far-Flung Adventures series.

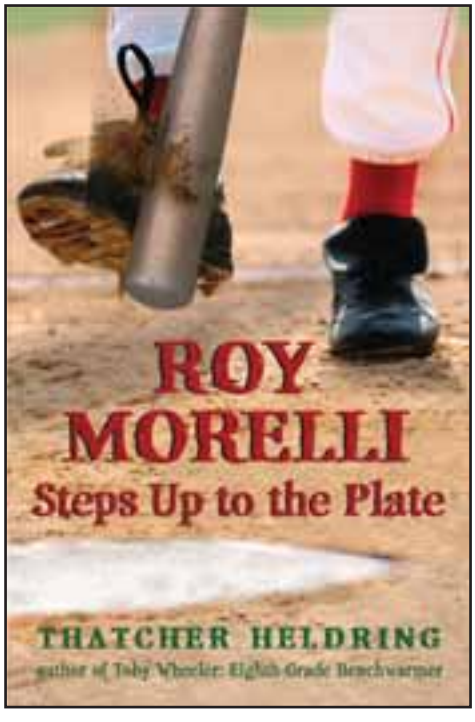
Where is Roy's A-game when he needs it?



Roy Morelli Steps Up to the Plate

THATCHER HELDRING

EIGHTH-GRADER ROY MORELLI can't wait for baseball season to start so he can take his rightful place as shortstop for the Pilchuk All-Star team. Being on the All-Stars is just the warm-up for the big leagues: the varsity baseball team at the high school Roy will go to next year. But when Roy's divorced parents find out he's failing history, they make him quit the All-Stars. It's not his fault the only thing interesting about history class is Valerie Hopkins, and she won't even give Roy the time of day.

Now Roy is stuck on a losing team in the wimpy rec league, and instead of playing ball every spare minute, he's spending his afternoons with a tutor—who just happens to be his dad's brainiac girlfriend. If Roy's going to impress the varsity baseball coach, he's sure he should be looking out for number one, not wasting his time studying. After all, baseball is what Roy does best. But when his grades continue to slide and his teammates get tired of his know-it-all attitude, Roy Morelli will need to step up to the plate. . . .

Thatcher Heldring lives with his wife and son in Seattle, a good place for indoor sports. Visit him online at www.thatchertheauthor.com.

Star in the Forest

LAURA RESAU

ZITLALLY'S FAMILY IS undocumented, and her father has just been arrested for speeding and deported back to Mexico. As her family waits for him to return—they've paid a coyote to guide him back across the border—they receive news that he and the coyote's other charges have been kidnapped and are being held for ransom. Meanwhile, Zitlally and a new friend find a dog in the forest near their trailer park. They name it Star for the star-shaped patch over its eye. As time goes on, Zitlally starts to realize that Star is her father's "spirit animal," and that as long as Star is safe, her father will be also. But what will happen to Zitlally's dad when Star disappears?

★ "A vibrant, large-hearted story."—Publishers Weekly, Starred (on Red Glass)

Laura Resau lived in the Mixtec region of Oaxaca, Mexico, for two years as an English teacher and anthropologist. She now lives with her husband, her dog, and her son, Bran, in Colorado, where she teaches cultural anthropology and English as a Second Language. She is also the author of What the Moon Saw and Red Glass.

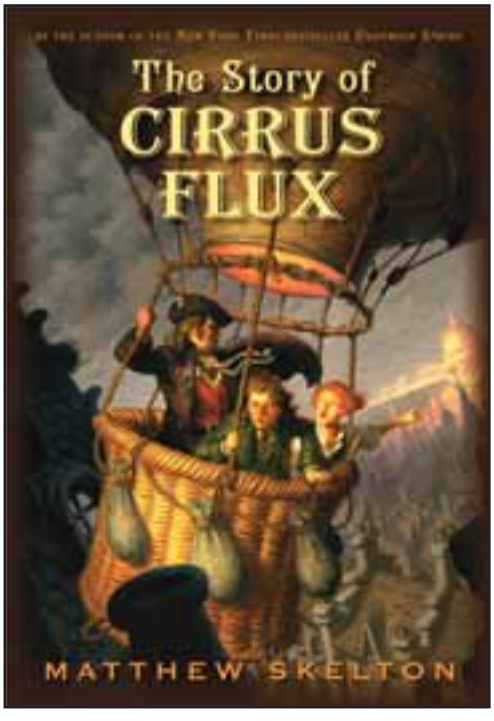
Everyone is after Cirrus Flux—and the power he possesses!



The Story of Cirrus Flux

MATTHEW SKELTON

LONDON, 1783. Orphan Cirrus Flux is being watched. Merciless villains are conniving to steal the world's most divine power—The Breath of God—which they believe Cirrus has inherited. Now he faces a perilous journey through the dirty backstreets of the city as a sinister mesmerist, a tiny man with an all-seeing eye, and a skull-collecting scoundrel pursue him. Cirrus must escape them, but he'll need to trust some unlikely allies if he hopes to thwart his foes . . . and survive a grand and terrifying showdown.

Matthew Skelton was born in the UK and spent most of his childhood in Canada. He has a PhD in English Literature from Oxford University. His debut novel was the New York Times bestseller Endymion Spring.

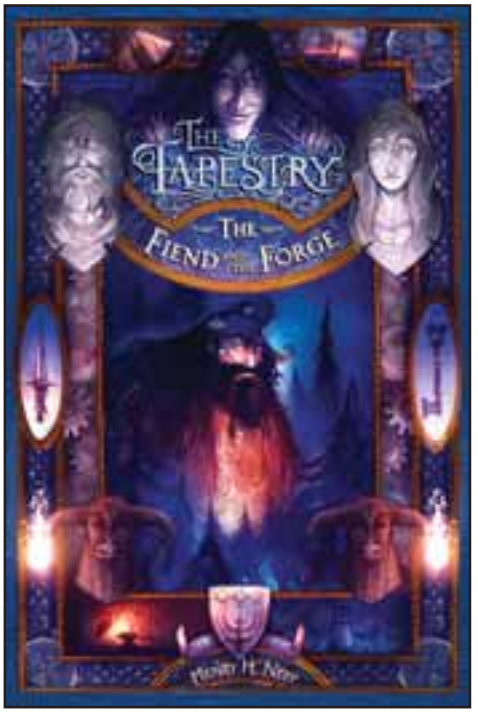
It's the day after the end of the world. . . .



The Fiend and the Forge

Book Three of The Tapestry

HENRY H. NEFF

WITH THE BOOK of Origins firmly in his possession, the villainous Astaroth now has the power to reshape history at will. Plucking pivotal discoveries from mankind's past, he has reduced the world to a pre-industrial nightmare. But while most humans toil as slaves within four demonic kingdoms, Astaroth allows those at Rowan to thrive in peaceful isolation. Theirs is a land where magic and nature flourish . . . so long as none dare oppose the new order.

That proves too steep a price for Max McDaniels. Unsure of his place at Rowan and reeling from tragedy, Max sets out to explore the shifting landscape of a world that has been changed beyond recognition. In the course of his travels, he will be forced to become many things: Prisoner. Gladiator. Assassin. But can he become the hero that mankind so desperately needs?

Henry H. Neff works as a high school teacher of history and fine arts. The Fiend and the Forge is his third book. He lives in San Francisco, California.

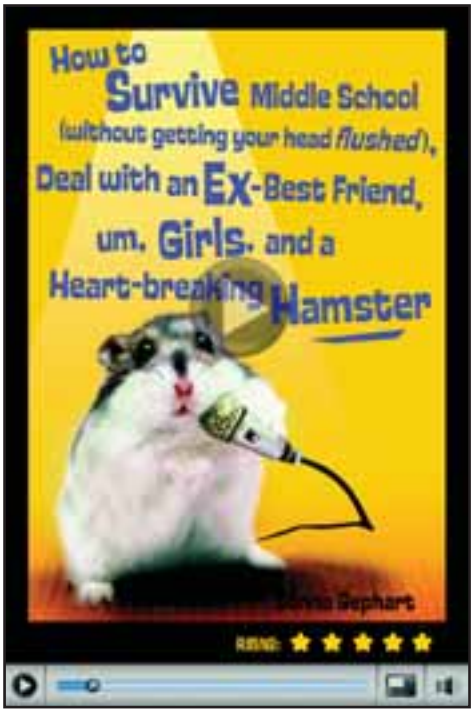
David's a YouTube sensation—and a real-life nobody.



How to Survive Middle School

(Without Getting Your Head Flushed), Deal with an Ex–Best Friend, um, GIRLS, and a Heartbreaking Hamster

DONNA GEPHART

DAVID GREENBERG DREAMS of becoming a TV superstar along the lines of Jon Stewart. But in real life, he's just another kid terrified of starting his first year at Harman Junior High. Things aren't looking any better when David gets duped by his best friend into breaking the dress code on the first day of school. But while he and his buddy are fighting, David is lucky enough to make a new friend, Sophie.

Luckily for David, Sophie loves TV, too, and shares his love of putting together skits to goof on middle-school life. When she posts one of their skits on YouTube, they become an instant overnight sensation! But how will David cope with being an Internet star and a real-life schmoe? Will this lead to his actually becoming popular in real life? And—more importantly—might it convince Sophie to kiss him?

Donna Gephart is the author of As if Being 12 3/4 Isn't Bad Enough, My Mother Is Running for President, which recently won the Sid Fleischman Humor Award. She lives in Jupiter, Florida, with her family.

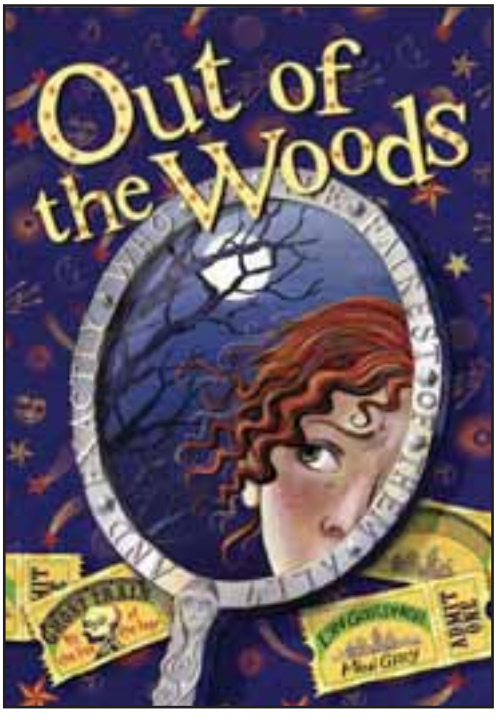
Watch out! The Eden sisters are on the move and back for more adventure!



Out of the Woods

LYN GARDNER
ILLUSTRATED BY MINI GREY

THE FUN FAIR is in town! With its clouds of pink candy floss and whirling big wheel, what child could resist such temptation? Little do the Eden sisters know that they are being lured into a wicked witch's lair. . . . Belladonna wants Aurora's heart and Storm's all-powerful musical pipe, and she will stop at nothing to get them. Driven by vanity and greed, she makes a truly formidable adversary.

After escaping from a deadly game of hide-and-seek in the enchanted fair, our three heroines flee through the woods, with several ravenous wolves and a sweet-toothed lion hot on their heels. Now they face their biggest challenge yet: a treacherous journey into the Underworld. For only when the pipe has been safely returned to the land of the dead will the Eden sisters truly be out of the woods. . . .

Lyn Gardner was born in London. A theater critic for The Guardian, she goes to the theater five or six nights a week, which should leave no time for writing books at all. She and her two daughters have one venerable goldfish (there were two, but one came to a tragic end) and a horse—who is the most demanding, temperamental, and expensive member of the family.

The time of the Owl Keeper is coming soon.

With black & white illustrations!

The Owl Keeper

CHRISTINE BRODIEN-JONES

MAXWELL UNGER HAS always loved the night. He used to do brave things like go tramping through the forest with his gran after dark. He loved the stories she told him about the world before the Destruction—about nature, and books, and the silver owls. His favorite story, though, was about the Owl Keeper.

According to Max's gran, in times of darkness the Owl Keeper would appear to unite owls and sages against the powers of the dark. Gran is gone now, and so are her stories of how the world used to be. Max is no longer brave. The forest is dangerous, the books Gran had saved have been destroyed, and the silver owls are extinct. At least that's what the High Echelon says. But Max knows better.

Maxwell Unger has a secret. And when a mysterious girl comes to town, he might just have to start being brave again.

The time of the Owl Keeper, Gran would say, is coming soon.

Christine Brodien-Jones studied writing at Emerson College, Boston, and has been a journalist, an editor, and a teacher. She now splits her time between Gloucester, Massachusetts, and Deer Isle, Maine.

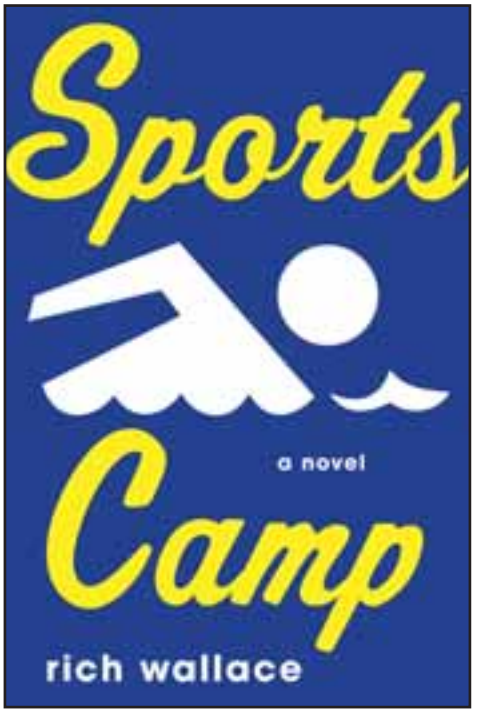
Riley's the smallest kid at Camp Olympia. How can he compete?



Sports Camp

RICH WALLACE

RILEY FEELS LIKE the smallest kid at sports camp. In fact, he is. He just turned eleven in April, but most kids here are twelve, and a few are even thirteen—and gigantic. It's hard enough for a shrimp like Riley to fit in. He just doesn't want to be the weak link as his bunk competes for the Camp Olympia Trophy.

Riley knows he's no good at strength and accuracy games like basketball and softball. But when it comes to speed and endurance events, like running and swimming, he's better than he looks. He's pretty sure he can place in the top ten—and bring in major trophy points—in the final mile-long swim race across Lake Surprise. But he doesn't count on being followed by the shadow of Big Joe, the giant vicious snapping turtle of camp lore. Wasn't that supposed to be a legend?

Rich Wallace is the author of Perpetual Check; One Good Punch, an ALA-YALSA Best Book for Young Adults; and Wrestling Sturbridge, an ALA-YALSA Top Ten Best Book for Young Adults. He lives with his family in Pennsylvania.

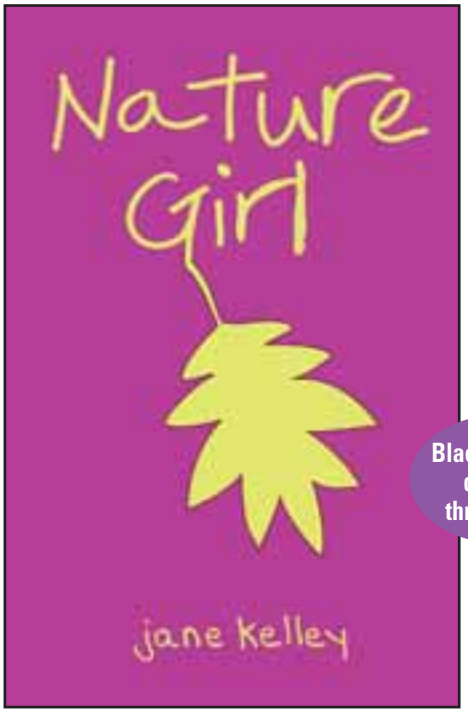
"A laugh-out-loud funny, modern My Side of the Mountain!"—Megan McDonald



Black & white doodles throughout!

Nature Girl

JANE KELLEY

ELEVEN-YEAR-OLD MEGAN IS stuck in Nowhereseville, Vermont, for the summer with no TV, no Internet, no cell phone, and worst of all, no best friend. So when Megan gets lost on the Appalachian Trail with only her little dog, Arp, for company, she decides she might as well hike all the way to Massachusetts where her best friend, Lucy, is spending her summer. Life on the trail isn't easy, and Megan faces everything from wild animals and raging rivers to tofu jerky and life without bathrooms. Most of all, though, Megan gets to know herself—both who she's been in the past and who she wants to be in the future—and the journey goes from a spur-of-the-moment lark to a quest to prove herself to Lucy, her family, and the world!

"First-time novelist Jane Kelley uses the light touch of humor to let in the sunlight. Bravo!"—Sid Fleischman, Newbery Award–winning author

Jane Kelley lives in Brooklyn with her husband and daughter. She has enjoyed many summers in Vermont.

This enchanting debut is the cat's pajamas!

Unfamiliar Magic

R. C. ALEXANDER

DESI IS a witch. And she knows she could be a great witch—if only her mom would teach her any spells. Unfortunately, Desi's mom is more concerned with keeping them safe and their abilities hidden.

When her mom leaves town under mysterious circumstances, it should be Desi's perfect opportunity to explore magic on her own. But Desi has been left in the care of the most unusual babysitter of all time: her pet cat—also her mom's familiar—now transformed into a teenage girl named Cat. And Cat has only three goals: Learn how to eat sushi with her new hairless monkey paws, get the awkward boy next door to pay for her sushi, and keep Desi out of trouble. And that means no magic.

Yeah, right!

This hilarious and high-spirited fantasy is perfect for cat lovers, embattled siblings, and anyone who yearns to find the magic in everyday life.

R. C. Alexander lives in Florida. This is his first novel.

"A must-read series."

Dandelion Fire

Book 2 of the 100 Cupboards

N. D. WILSON

HENRY YORK NEVER dreamed his time in Kansas would open a door to adventure—much less a hundred doors. But a visit to his aunt and uncle's farm took a turn when cupboard doors, hidden behind Henry's bedroom wall, revealed themselves to be portals to other worlds. Now, with his time at the farm drawing to a close, Henry makes a bold decision—he must go through the cupboards to find the truth about where he's from and who his parents are. Following that trail will take him from one world to another, to encounters with wizards and Faeren, and ultimately into direct conflict with the evil of Endor. And this time, the witch is not alone. . . .

"A worthy sequel to 100 Cupboards."—School Library Journal

D. A. NELSON

TEN-YEAR-OLD MORAG JUMPS at the chance to escape a life of drudgery and join Aldiss, a talking rat, and his resourceful companion, Bertie the dodo bird, on their quest to save their homeland from an evil warlock named Devlish, who is intent on destroying it. But first, Bertie and Aldiss will need to stop bickering long enough to free the only guide who knows where to find Devlish: Shona, a dragon who's been turned to stone. Together, these four friends begin their journey to a mysterious island beyond the horizon, where danger and glory await—along with clues to the disappearance of Morag's parents, whose destiny seems somehow linked to her own.

Up and Down the Scratchy Mountains

LAUREL SNYDER

THIS IS THE tale of Lucy (a milkmaid) and her best friend, Wynston (who happens to be a prince, though that's not really his fault). Until recently, they spent their days paddling in the river, picking blackberries, and teasing each other mercilessly. But now, King Desmond has insisted that Wynston devote every spare second to princess-finding.

Lucy feels left out. So she sets off for the Scratchy Mountains to solve the mystery of her missing mother. When Wynston discovers that Lucy is gone, he tears after her, and together they embark on a series of strange and wonderful adventures. Along the way, they find a gigantic man stuck inside an equally gigantic soup pot, an alphabetized town where the weather runs on schedule, and a frightening punishment pit.

The third book in the Pain and the Great One quartet.

Going, Going, Gone! with the Pain & the Great One

JUDY BLUME

THE PAIN AND the Great One are going places! In these new stories, the kids are on the go—the Pain needs a trip to the emergency room; the family goes to the mall and not everyone stays together; the kids visit a county fair and want to ride the Super Slide; and a beach outing includes a boogie board. Lots more action and adventure for the dynamic duo who never stay still.

Judy Blume spent her childhood in Elizabeth, New Jersey, making up stories inside her head. She has spent her adult years in many places, doing the same thing, only now she writes her stories down on paper. Her books have won many awards, including the National Book Foundation's Medal for Distinguished Contribution to American Letters. She lives in Key West and New York City.

James Stevenson has written and illustrated more than a hundred books for children. In forty years at the New Yorker, he published more than two thousand cartoons and covers, as well as numerous written pieces. His illustrated column "Lost and Found New York" frequently appears on the op-ed page of the New York Times.

The Girl Who Threw Butterflies

MICK COCHRANE

★ "With tender poignancy, Cochrane gets right to the heart of young Molly's painful journey. Her father died in an accident, and her mother has withdrawn to deal with her own pain. She shared a love of baseball with her father, which seems to be her only tenuous connection to the happiness she once knew. He taught her how to throw a knuckleball, and she uses that unique skill to join the boys' baseball team. With loving encouragement from some dear friends and some leaps of faith, she comes to terms with the changes in her life. Careful to avoid pathos, the author is particularly adept at capturing just the right turn of phrase as Molly narrates her story. . . . Impeccable syntax lends authenticity to the rocky road that is middle school, baseball practices and games, and to Molly's relationships with her peers and with her mother. Lovely and memorable."—Kirkus Reviews, Starred

Boston Jane: An Adventure

Book 1

JENNIFER L. HOLM

1855. THE UNKNOWN WILDS of the Pacific Northwest—a land not yet tamed, and certainly not fitting for a proper young lady! Yet that's just where Miss Jane Peck finds herself. After a tumultuous childhood on the wrong side of Philadelphia high society, Jane is trying to put aside her reckless ways and be accepted as a proper young lady. And so when handsome William Baldt proposes, she joyfully accepts and prepares to join him in a world away from her home in Washington Territory. But Miss Hepplewhite's straitlaced finishing school was hardly preparation for the treacherous months at sea it takes to get there, the haunting loss she'll face on the way, or the colorful characters and crude life that await her on the frontier.

The Indian in the Cupboard

LYNNE REID BANKS

IT'S OMRI'S BIRTHDAY, but all he gets from his best friend, Patrick, is a little plastic Indian brave. Trying to hide his disappointment, Omri puts the Indian in a metal cupboard and locks the door with a mysterious skeleton key that once belonged to his great-grandmother. Little does Omri know that, by turning the key, his ordinary plastic Indian is about to be transformed into a real, live man from an altogether different place and time! Omri and the tiny warrior called Little Bear could hardly be more different, yet soon the two forge a very special friendship. Will Omri be able to keep Little Bear without anyone finding out and taking his precious Indian from him?

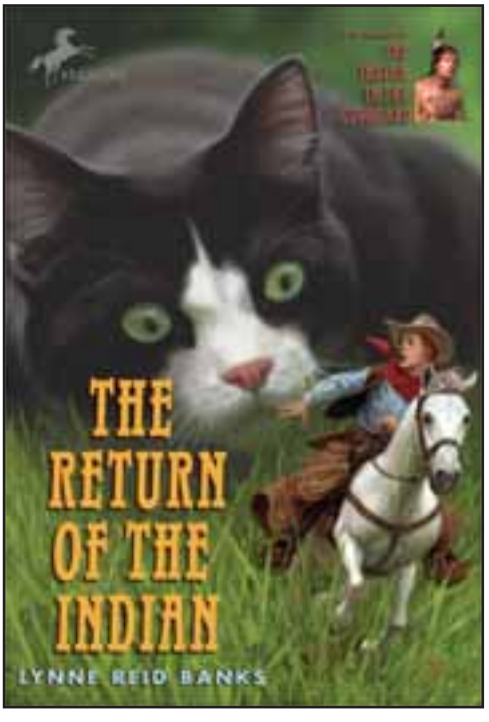
Omri and his Indian friend meet again for more heart-stopping adventures.



The Indian in the Cupboard: The Return of the Indian

LYNNE REID BANKS

A YEAR AGO, Omri and his best friend, Patrick, discovered the magical ability of an old skeleton key to bring plastic figures to life. After sharing many exciting adventures with their new friends, Little Bear the Indian brave and Boone the crying cowboy, Omri and Patrick finally had to say goodbye. Now, after a year of living apart, Little Bear and Boone have returned. The miniature men come from perilous times, and Omri and Patrick's modern-day world is filled with dangers of its own. So when the boys discover a new way of using the magical key, they open the door to a fresh set of glorious and terrifying adventures!

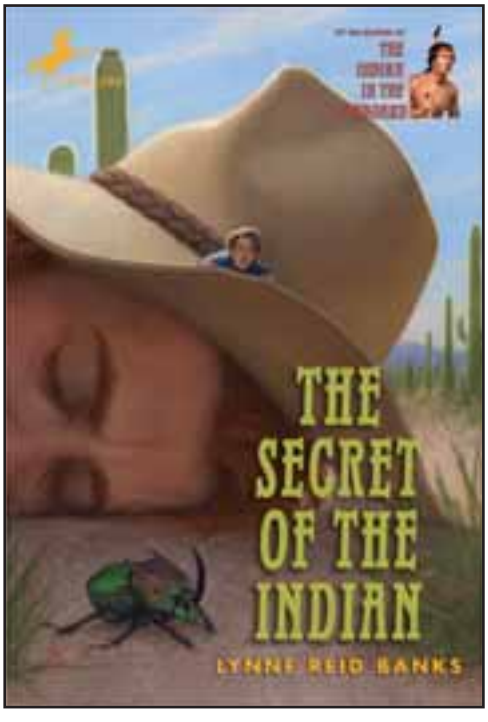
Omri is in danger of losing control of the magic key and cupboard.



The Indian in the Cupboard: The Secret of the Indian

LYNNE REID BANKS

HOME ALONE, OMRI and his best friend, Patrick, have just turned dozens of plastic soldiers into living men with real weapons, in order to defend Omri's house from a street gang. Now, Omri's family has returned, and he has to explain away the little bullet holes in the furniture and the burn on his head, a souvenir from his visit back in time to Little Bear's village. But this is only the beginning of the boys' troubles. In what soon becomes their most exciting string of adventures yet, Omri and Patrick come face to face with the dangers involved in playing with time, space, and other people's lives.

The Second Siege

Book Two of The Tapestry

HENRY H. NEFF

GRAVE FORCES ARE converging to seize control of the Book of Thoth, a hidden artifact whose pages hold the key to creating—or unraveling—the very threads of existence. Under the care and tutelage of Cooper, Rowan's most lethal Agent, Max McDaniels and David Menlo embark on a quest to protect the Book from the demon Astaroth, who would exploit its secrets with dire consequence. And with Astaroth free after centuries of imprisonment, the world outside Rowan's gates has already become hostile.

Far from home, cut off behind enemy lines, Max and his allies must journey across Europe, descend into the fabled Frankfurt Workshop, brave the tangled corners of the Black Forest . . . and cross beyond the veils of our very world.

"After devouring this title, young fans will be clamoring for more."

Autumn Winifred Oliver Does Things Different

KRISTIN O'DONNELL TUBB

AUTUMN WINIFRED OLIVER prides herself on doing things her way. But she meets her match when she, her mama, and her older sis, Katie, move in with her cantankerous Gramps. The Oliver gals were supposed to join Pop in Knoxville for some big-city living, but Gramps's recent sick spell convinced Mama to stay put in Cades Cove, a place of swishy meadows and shady hollers that lies on the crest of the Great Smoky Mountains.

And it's not like there's nothing going on in the Cove. Folks are all aflutter about turning their land into a national park, and Autumn's not sure what to think. Loggers like Pop need jobs, but if things keep going at the current rate, the forests will soon be chopped to bits. And Gramps seems to think there's some serious tourist money to be made. Looks like something different is definitely in order. . . .

Kristin O'Donnell Tubb grew up in East Tennessee, near Cades Cove. She now lives in middle Tennessee with her husband and their two children. Visit her at www.kristintubb.com.

The Elevator Family

DOUGLAS EVANS

FOR THE WILSON family, only the best will do! So when they arrive at the San Francisco Hotel and discover that there are no regular rooms available, they decide to stay in the place that suits them best of all: a room that has its ups and downs—a room called Otis. The Wilsons check in to the hotel elevator!

For three whole days, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson and their ten-year-old twins, Winslow and Whitney, ride to all the floors, happily greeting startled guests who happen to drop in. There's a weary traveling salesman; a British rock group with a funny name; a lovesick bellhop; a society lady and her pampered poodle; and a slew of other surprising visitors. These "fantabulous" guests make the Wilsons' stay unforgettable, but it's the zany but compassionate Wilsons who'll be remembered long after they check out of Otis.

"A funny book."—Booklist

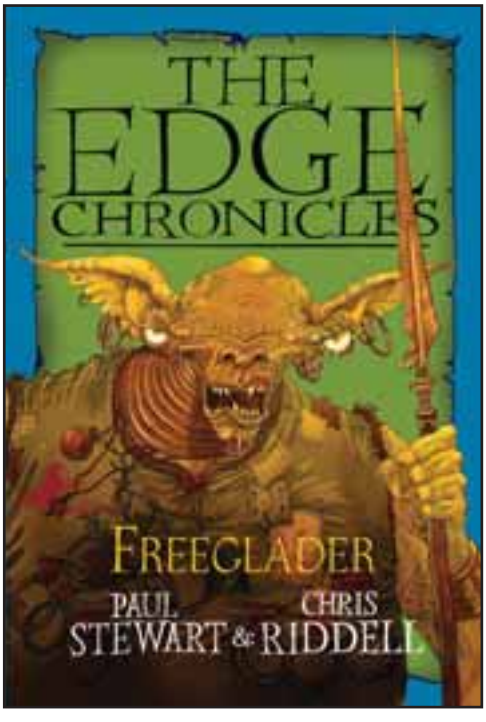
The newest paperback installment in the exciting Edge Chronicles*!*



The Edge Chronicles: Freeglader

PAUL STEWART AND CHRIS RIDDELL

FLEEING FROM THE ruins of New Undertown, Rook Barkwater and his colleagues—the librarian knights Felix Lodd and his banderbear friends—must lead the escaping population to a new life in the Free Glades. But perils aplenty are ahead for the crowd—not to mention some goblins with plans of their own. This is the dramatic and exciting conclusion to the Rook Barkwater sequence that takes the reader on a thrilling journey across the Edgeworld.

Mudville

KURTIS SCALETTA

WELCOME TO MOUNDVILLE, where it's been raining for longer than Roy McGuire has been alive. Most people say the town is cursed—right in the middle of their big baseball game against rival town Sinister Bend, black clouds crept across the sky and it started to rain. That was 22 years ago . . . and it's still pouring. Baseball camp is over, and Roy knows he's in for a soggy summer in Moundville. But when he returns home, Roy finds a foster kid named Sturgis sprawled out on his couch. Even weirder, just a few days after Sturgis's arrival, the rain stops. No one can explain why it's finally sunny, but as far as Roy's concerned, it's time to play some baseball. It's time to get a Moundville team together and finish what was started 22 years ago.

A Midwest Connections Pick by the Midwest Booksellers Association

"[Scaletta] balances perceptive explorations of personal and domestic issues perfectly with fine baseball talk . . . and absorbing play-by-play. Readers will cheer Roy on."—School Library Journal

KAREN DAY

IT'S 1980. Twelve-year-old Madison doesn't use lip gloss like the other girls, but she loves sports and joins her town's baseball league for the summer—the first girl in southern Michigan to play on a boys' team. The press calls her a star and a trailblazer. But Madison just wants to play ball.

Crowds flock to the games, and TV cameras show up. As she learns to deal with the pressure, Madison must also find a way to reconcile her conflicting feelings about playing. Will the boys still like her if she strikes them out? She knows her team will win if she can keep her cool and do what she does best—pitch.

With exciting games, best friends, boyfriends, and a mysterious neighbor, Madison's summer turns out to be full of surprises.

The White Gates

BONNIE RAMTHUN

WHEN TORIN SINCLAIR'S mom gets a job as the town doctor in Snow Park, Colorado, Tor can't wait to learn to snowboard. He wants to know every inch of Snow Park Mountain, from the bunny slope to the White Gates, twin avalanche chutes that are off-limits to even the most experienced riders.

On Tor's first night there, a member of the high school snowboarding team dies. "It's the curse," everyone whispers. Tor and his new friends must piece together a mystery involving an old mine, a Ute curse, the entire snowboarding team, and an attempt to save the wild river otters of Colorado. But to complete the puzzle, will Tor have to ride the deadly White Gates? And how will he survive the avalanche that follows?

The Diamond of Darkhold

The Fourth Book of Ember

JEANNE DuPRAU

SEVERAL MONTHS HAVE passed since Lina and Doon escaped the dying city of Ember and, along with the rest of their people, joined the town of Sparks. It's in the midst of their first hard winter that Doon finds a book with torn pages, eerily similar to the Instructions for Egress. It alludes to a mysterious device from before the Disaster, a piece of technology they were meant to have and that may be waiting for them underground. It doesn't take much for Doon to convince a homesick Lina to join him for one last adventure in Ember. But what—and who—will they find when they return?

In the fourth Book of Ember, bestselling author Jeanne DuPrau brings the series full circle with an action-packed adventure about finding light in a dark world.

"The conclusion is everything a series closer should be, satisfying but provocative."—The Horn Book Magazine

★ "Addie Ann's voice delivers an emotional wallop."—Publishers Weekly, Starred

A Thousand Never Evers

SHANA BURG

IN KUCKACHOO, MISSISSIPPI, in 1963, Addie Ann Pickett worships her brother, Elias, and follows in his footsteps by attending the black junior high school. But when her careless act leads to her brother's disappearance and possible murder, Addie Ann, Mama, and Uncle Bump struggle on, not knowing if he's dead or alive. Then a good deed meant to unite Kuckachoo sets off a chain of explosive events. Addie Ann knows Old Man Adams left his land to the white and black people to plant a garden and reap its bounty together. But the mayor denies it. On garden picking day, Addie Ann's family is sorely tested. Through tragedy she finds the voice to lead a civil rights march all her own and maybe change the future for her people.

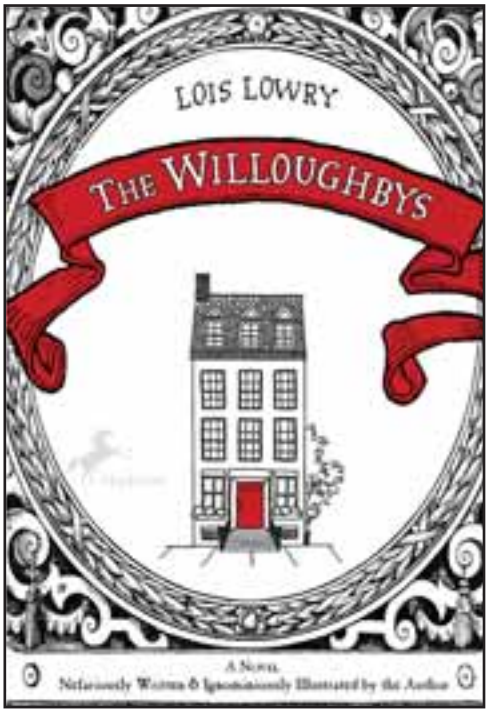
A sparkling satire that will delight readers of all ages.



The Willoughbys

LOIS LOWRY

THE WILLOUGHBYS—TIMOTHY; his twin brothers, Barnaby A and Barnaby B; and their little sister, Jane—are old-fashioned children who adore old-fashioned adventures. Unfortunately, the Willoughby parents are not very fond of their children, and the truth is that the siblings are not too keen on their parents either. Little do the Willoughby kids know that their neglectful mother and father are hatching an evil plan to get rid of them! Not to worry—these resourceful adventurers have a few plans of their own. But they have no idea what lies ahead in their quest to rid themselves of their ghastly parents and live happily ever after.

★ "Sly humor and deadpan zaniness give literary conventions an ironic twist, with hilarious results."—Booklist, Starred

Lois Lowry has twice been the recipient of the Newbery Medal, for Number the Stars and for The Giver. She lives in Cambridge, Massachusetts.

Lucy Rose: Here's the Thing About Me

KATY KELLY

IN HER FIRST book, Katy Kelly introduces us to an original thinker who's got a lot on her mind and she's ready to share (minus the boring parts, of course). Lucy Rose is an unforgettable, one-of-a-kind girl with spark, spunk, and one great pair of cowgirl boots! (No kidding!)

Lucy Rose: Big on Plans

KATY KELLY

IT'S SUMMER AND Lucy Rose is big on fun and big on plans. Parks & Rec is open and she's desperate to make a lanyard keychain, and Jonique is feeling the same about potholders. But first she has to figure out what to do about the absolute pest Ashley, who's making summer not so much fun. And, even though it's the last thing she wants to think about, she knows it's up to her to come up with a way to stop her parents' separation from turning into divorce.

Lucy Rose: Busy Like You Can't Believe

KATY KELLY

LUCY ROSE IS FINALLY in 4th grade and she's busy like you can't believe. School is harder than ever, but she also has a tough job at home. Her mom calls it eavesdropping, but Lucy Rose calls it listening very quietly so she can know things. Only now she knows something about her mom and it's that she has a friend that is a man and it's making her feel horrified to pieces. Part of her doesn't want to know any more, but the other part knows she has to figure out a way to keep those two apart!

Lucy Rose: Working Myself to Pieces & Bits

KATY KELLY

LUCY ROSE IS LUCKY in friends. But sometimes friends are in need, indeed, and she's the first one to volunteer to help! (Even when one of them buys a plumbing store and needs to Diva it up into a bakery.) But with all the things she has to do in 4th grade, and her bingo-calling job, and keeping track of her gigantic vocabulary, and avoiding the word-thief Ashley, and dreaming up a money-making scheme that doesn't cost her money, she's working herself to pieces and bits!

Katy Kelly is the author of all four books about Lucy Rose.

The Fairy Godmother Academy #2:
Kerka's Book

JAN BOZARTH

KERKA LAINE IS not one to sit around and let things happen to her. She knows that she comes from a long line of fairy godmothers and that she is destined to start training as a fairy godmother herself. She just hates waiting for the training to begin! When her dreams take her to Aventurine, the place where human girls go to unlock their own special kind of magic, Kerka is more than ready for it. What she is not ready for is the quest that the fairies give her. She must find her younger sister's voice before the sun rises on a mountain range called the Three Queens. Kerka has no problem with a challenge, but how can she find something that is invisible? It is with this problem that Kerka begins the dangerous journey that will not only determine her future as a fairy godmother, but also the fate of her sisters.

In this second Fairy Godmother Academy book and on the Fairy Godmother Academy Web site, the world of Aventurine grows even more!

Jan Bozarth lives in Austin, Texas.

Lunch Lady and the Author Visit Vendetta

JARRETT J. KROSOCZKA

DEE, TERRENCE, AND Hector are very excited about Author Visit Day. Lewis Scribson is the author of the famous Flippy Bunny books, and Hector is a huge fan! And it gets Dee and Terrence out of math class.

But something is a little off about this special guest. And Coach Birkby, the gym teacher, mysteriously disappears the day of his visit.

What evil designs does this world-famous writer have on his agenda? Lunch Lady's going to get to the bottom of it, even if she has to kick some bunny butt!

Jarrett J. Krosoczka is the author-illustrator of two previous Lunch Lady adventures, as well as many popular picture books, including Punk Farm, Punk Farm on Tour, Max for President, and Baghead. A graduate of Rhode Island School of Design, he now lives in Northampton, Massachusetts, with his family.

Stone Rabbit #4:
Superhero Stampede

ERIK CRADDOCK

AFTER BEING ZAPPED by a homemade reality transmutation device, Stone Rabbit finds himself inside the pages of his favorite comic book. Endowed with stupendous new superpowers and a cool costume, our hero must battle a baneful band of egotistical evildoers to save the world. Will Stone Rabbit be victorious—or will his exploits end up in the bargain bin of Jim Dandy's Comic Emporium?

Superhero Stampede is the fourth book in a full-color series of riotous, rip-roaring graphic novels that chronicles the zany adventures of a quick-tempered and quick-witted young rabbit. Its fast pace and outrageously high visual content will appeal to thrill-seeking young readers everywhere!

Erik Craddock grew up during the '80s and '90s on a steady diet of comics, video games, and pop culture. It was during his time as a student at New York City's School of Visual Arts that Stone Rabbit was born. He lives in Babylon, New York.

You're the star in this unique interactive series!

Your Life, But Better:

Step Back or Step Up

CRYSTAL VELASQUEZ

HAVE YOU EVER read a story and wondered what you would do in that situation? Would you run into the abandoned house after the killer? Or run screaming from the scene to analyze the whole thing with your friends? Would you be bold enough to flirt with your crush—even though he has a girlfriend? Or would you quietly back off, in hopes of meeting a better guy to crush on?

In Your Life, But Better, you don't just read a story—you become the story. Take a quick personality quiz at the end of each chapter, and find out how you would act if you were confronted with the scene you just read. Are you star material? Or the queen of romance? What will you learn about yourself?

Crystal Velasquez is the author of the books based on the PBS series Maya and Miguel, but this is her first book for older readers. She lives, writes, and obsessively takes personality quizzes in New York City, where she works as a managing editor for Ballantine Books.

Charlie Small #6:
The Barbarous Brigands of Frostbite Pass

CHARLIE SMALL

AT THE END of his fifth journal, Charlie Small rocketed out of the strange and dark Underworld and over desert sands and a snowy white mountain range. With a tablecloth over his head and a cushion strapped round his bottom, Charlie parachuted right into the middle of a small, swampy island. Clutching a mainly blank map that's supposed to help him find the infamous Jakeman, he sets off for the next island, only to find himself face to face with a slimy, stinking, roaring swamp monster. . . . Will Charlie manage to slip through its gloopy claws? Can he figure out Jakeman's map and finally find out how to get home? And what are these rumors we've heard of a terrible tribe of weird warriors and a mysterious hairy traveler from the North?

Charlie Small is a keen amateur explorer. His interests include climbing trees, collecting things, playing computer games, and football. He also enjoys conversing in the secret language of the gorillas. His present whereabouts are unknown, but we understand that he's hoping to be home in time for tea.

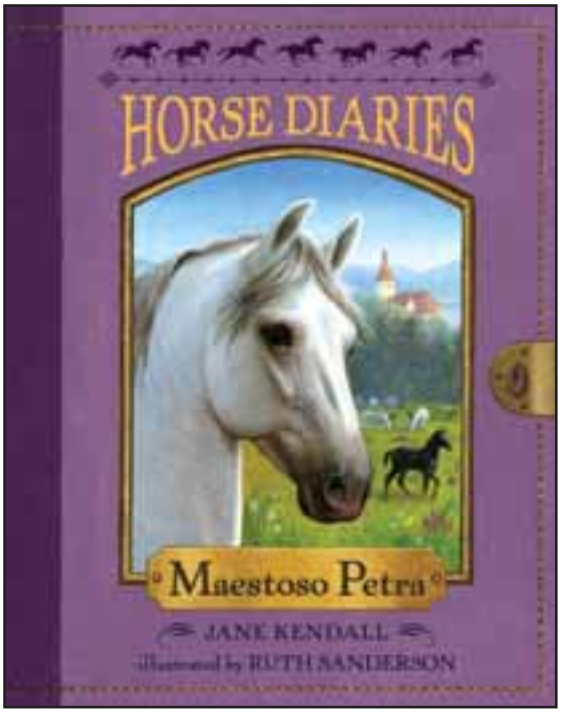
For anyone who has ever dreamed of hearing a horse's story . . .



Horse Diaries #4:
Maestoso Petra

JANE KENDALL
ILLUSTRATED BY RUTH SANDERSON

VIENNA, AUSTRIA, 1938

Maestoso Petra is a world-famous Lipizzaner stallion. He has spent years in the Spanish Riding School, training to perform the complex airs above the ground that only Lipizzaner can accomplish. But when World War II breaks out in Europe, he learns to think less about performing and more about survival. Here is Maestoso Petra's story . . . in his own words.

Jane Kendall is the author of the critically acclaimed young adult historical novels Miranda and the Movies and Miranda Goes to Hollywood. She was an enthusiastic rider growing up, and on one memorable occasion went Christmas caroling on horseback. She lives in Greenwich, Connecticut.

Ruth Sanderson has illustrated books for children of all ages, including Summer Pony and Winter Pony. She lives with her family in Ware, Massachusetts, and her favorite hobby is horseback riding.

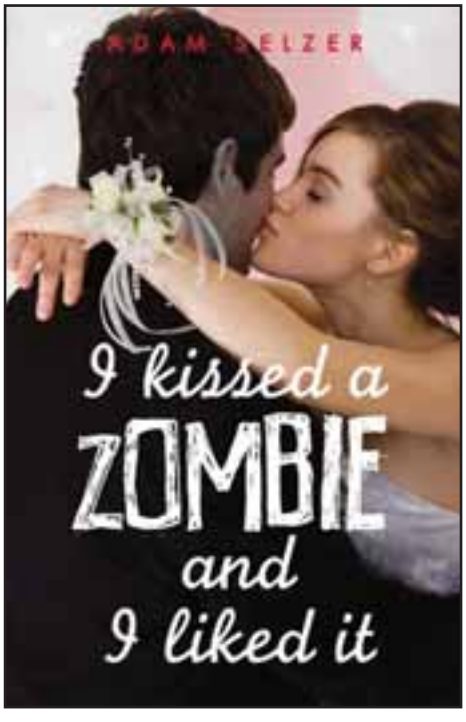
One girl's do's and don'ts of dating the undead.



I Kissed a Zombie, and I Liked It

ADAM SELZER

ALGONQUIN "ALI" RHODES, the high school newspaper's music critic, meets an intriguing singer, Doug, while reviewing a gig. He's a weird-looking guy—goth, but he seems sincere about it, like maybe he was into it back before it was cool. She introduces herself after the set, asking if he lives in Cornersville, and he replies, in his slow, quiet murmur, "Well, I don't really live there, exactly. . . ."

When Ali and Doug start dating, Ali is falling so hard she doesn't notice a few odd signs: he never changes clothes, his head is a funny shape, and he says practically nothing out loud. Finally Marie, the school paper's fashion editor, points out the obvious: Doug isn't just a really sincere goth. He's a zombie. Horrified that her feelings could have allowed her to overlook such a flaw, Ali breaks up with Doug, but learns that zombies are awfully hard to get rid of—at the same time she learns that vampires, a group as tightly-knit as the mafia, don't think much of music critics who make fun of vampires in reviews. . . .

The Debs: Gloves Off

SUSAN McBRIDE

THE FIRST DEBUTANTE ball of the season is only weeks away. Which Rosebud will uncover a dirty secret that could send shock waves through Houston?

Laura: With Avery Dorman back in her good graces, Laura thinks she finally might have the upper hand in her nasty feud with Jo Lynn. However, Laura never expected that she'd get embroiled in another war—with one of her closest friends.

Mac: Still reeling from her unrequited crush on next-door neighbor Alex, Mac is furious when her stepmother sets her up with a pompous party boy as her Glass Slipper Club dance class partner. Could Mac's life get any worse?

Ginger: So much for swearing off sketchy boys. Ginger can't stop lusting after mysterious art genius Kent. Even when she receives ominous text messages warning her to stay away from him.

Jo Lynn: She's hatched the perfect plan to establish her reign at her big Halloween ball. Too bad her boyfriend Dillon has plans of his own.

Susan McBride lives in Missouri. Visit her at www.susanmcbride.com.

Fallen angels, demons, and a mortal or two for good measure . . . Get ready to fall.

Cover not final

Fallen

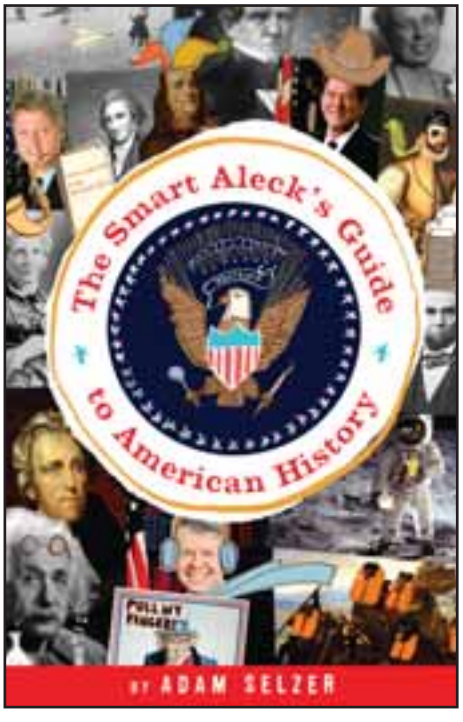
LAUREN KATE

SEVENTEEN-YEAR-OLD LUCE is a new student at Sword & Cross, an unwelcoming boarding/reform school in Savannah, Georgia. Luce's boyfriend died under suspicious circumstances, and now she carries the guilt over his death with her as she navigates the unfriendly halls at Sword & Cross, where every student seems to have an unpleasant—even evil—history.

It's only when she sees Daniel, a gorgeous fellow student, that Luce feels there's a reason to be here—though she doesn't know what it is. And Daniel's frosty cold demeanor toward her? It's really a protective device that he's used again . . . and again. For Daniel is a fallen angel, doomed to fall in love with the same girl every 17 years . . . and watch her die. And Luce is a fellow immortal, cursed to be reincarnated again and again as a mortal girl who has no idea of who she really is.

Lauren Kate recently finished her M.A. in Creative Writing at UC Davis, where she also teaches. She lives and writes in an old farm house in Winters, California. Her first novel, The Betrayal of Natalie Hargrove goes on sale one month before Fallen.

This hilarious "textbook" will amuse and educate smart alecks everywhere.



The Smart Aleck's Guide to American History

ADAM SELZER

DO YOU KNOW America? No, I mean, do you REALLY know America? Would you recognize John Adams in a lineup? Can you identify any presidents between Lincoln and Roosevelt?

Hmmm. I thought so.

Well, you really need this book.

Not only will it improve your sorry historical knowledge, it will crack you up, and give you material to throw your teachers off-balance for entire class periods. Identify their lies! Point out their half-truths! And possibly, just possibly, gain some extra credit for yourself.

Adam Selzer is the author of How to Get Suspended and Influence People. He grew up in the suburbs of Des Moines and now lives in downtown Chicago, where he can write in a different coffee shop every day without even leaving his neighborhood. In addition to his work as a tour guide and assistant ghostbuster (really), he moonlights as a rock star. Check him out on the Web at www.adamselzer.com.

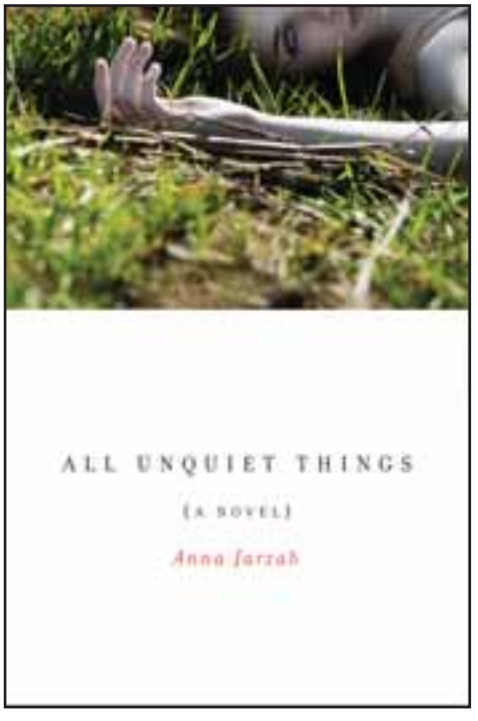
A dark, atmospheric thriller that's an unputdownable debut.



All Unquiet Things

ANNA JARZAB

CARLY: SHE WAS sweet. Smart. Self-destructive. She knew the secrets of Brighton Day School's most privileged students. Secrets that got her killed.

Neily: Dumped by Carly for a notorious bad boy, Neily didn't answer the phone call she made before she died. If he had, maybe he could have helped her. Now he can't get the image of her lifeless body out of his mind.

Audrey: She's the reason Carly got tangled up with Brighton's fast crowd in the first place, and now she regrets it—especially since she's convinced the police have put the wrong person in jail. Audrey thinks the murderer is someone at Brighton, and she wants Neily to help her find out who it is.

As reluctant allies Neily and Audrey dig into their shared past with Carly, her involvement with Brighton's dark goings-on comes to light. But figuring out how Carly and her killer fit into the twisted drama will force Audrey and Neily to face hard truths about themselves and the girl they couldn't save.

Anna Jarzab grew up entirely in the suburbs, first outside Chicago and then in San Francisco's East Bay area, where All Unquiet Things is set. She currently lives in New York City. This is her first novel. Visit her online at www.annajarzab.com.

FDR's Alphabet Soup

New Deal America, 1932–1939

TONYA BOLDEN

FDR'S NEW DEAL, which followed the 1929 stock market crash, was a hugely influential moment in the history of the United States, encompassing everything from the arts to finance, labor to legislation, and some think it helped bring the country out of the Great Depression. Here, Tonya Bolden, writing in her trademark accessible style, creates a portrait of a time that changed American history both then and now.

FDR's First 100 Days and how the United States was changed by it then are closely examined, especially now. The 2009 financial situation is eerily mirrored by that of the late 1920s, and this is a perfect book to help teens understand history and its lasting impact on current events.

Tonya Bolden is the author of more than 20 books for young readers. She lives in the Bronx, New York.

Poems about Love

PAT MORA

BELOVED CHILDREN'S BOOK author and speaker Pat Mora has written an original collection of poems, each with a different teen narrator sharing unique thoughts, moments, sadness, or heart's desire: the girl who loves swimming, plunging into the water that creates her own world; the guy who leaves flowers on the windshield of the girl he likes. Each of the teens in these 50 original poems, written using a variety of poetic forms, will be recognizable to the reader as the universal emotions, ideas, impressions, and beliefs float across the pages in these gracefully told verses.

Also included are the author's footnotes on the various types of poetic forms used throughout to help demystify poetry and showcase its accessibility, which makes this a perfect classroom tool for teachers as well as an inspiration to readers who may wish to try their own hand at writing.

Award-winning author Pat Mora writes poetry, nonfiction, and children's books. She lives in Santa Fe, New Mexico.

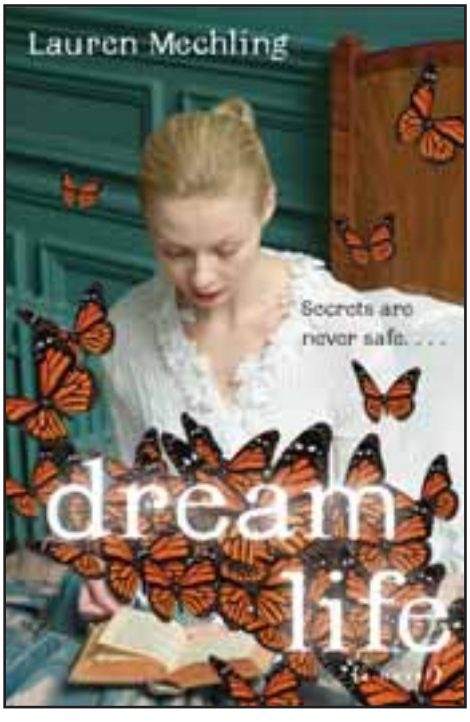
A secret society has its eye on Claire. But what about her own secrets?



Dream Life

LAUREN MECHLING

CLAIRE VOYANTE'S FIRST semester at Henry Hudson High School was eventful, to say the least. As she heads into her second semester, things are calming down a bit. But Claire has a few secrets that are getting harder to keep. Her biggest secret of all? The onyx and ivory cameo necklace her grandmother gave her for her 15th birthday. Ever since she started wearing it, her dreams have been coming to her in black and white and turning out to be oddly prophetic.

Becca's been hanging out with her old prep school friends and never seems to have time for Claire anymore. And soon, Claire discovers why—there's a secret group of society girls with a mysterious identity. And, turns out, a mysterious enemy who's out to get them. The second she sniffs out trouble, Claire jumps on the case. But is it someone close to Claire who's in danger again—or could it be Claire herself whose life is at stake?

Lauren Mechling is the coauthor of all three 10th-Grade Social Climber books. She has written for the New York Times, Marie Claire, and Seventeen. She lives and writes in New York City. You can visit her at www.laurenmechling.com.

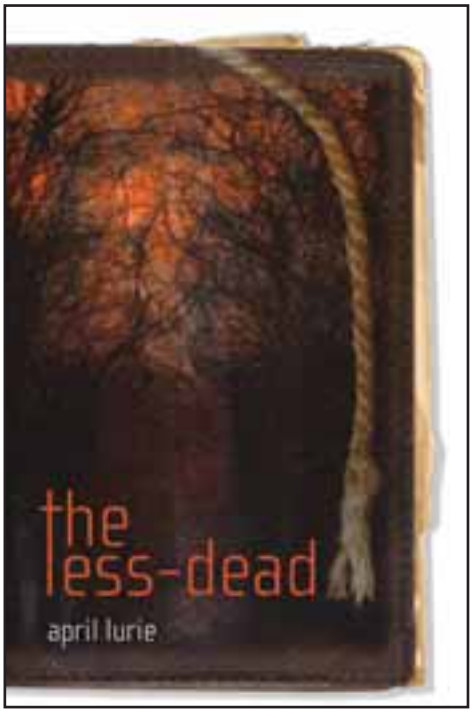
Is a serial killer targeting gay teens?



The Less-Dead

APRIL LURIE

NOAH NORDSTROM HAS been dissing the religious beliefs of his father, who hosts a popular Christian radio show and whom Noah accuses of spreading hate. When two local gay teens are murdered, Noah's anti-evangelism intensifies—he's convinced that the killer is a caller on his dad's program.

Then Noah meets Will Reed, a cool guy. But when he learns that Will is gay, Noah gets a little weirded out. Especially since Will seems really into him. Noah gives Will the brush-off. Meanwhile, the killer is still at large . . . and soon Noah finds the next victim. It's Will.

Racked with guilt, Noah decides to investigate. He knows the serial killer is targeting gay teens, but only those who live in foster homes, whose deaths are not that important to society; they are the less-dead. Noah, however, is determined to prove that someone cares. With the help of Will's journal, which he pocketed at the scene of the crime and in which the killer has written clues, Noah closes in on an opponent more dangerous than he can guess.

April Lurie's previous novels are The Latent Powers of Dylan Fontaine; Brothers, Boyfriends & Other Criminal Minds (a Texas Lonestar Book); and Dancing in the Streets of Brooklyn. She lives in Round Rock, Texas.

Caroline B. Cooney explores powerful moral and emotional issues.

They Never Came Back

CAROLINE B. COONEY

IN A BUSY school cafeteria, a teenage girl is confronted by a classmate who questions her identity. He explains to the students who have crowded around that the girl bears an uncanny resemblance to his cousin, who was taken away by social services five years ago. Her parents abandoned her, fleeing the country after being accused of embezzling millions of dollars. The students are intrigued, but the girl shrugs off the attention as a case of mistaken identity.

As the days pass, however, the boy refuses to relent and even brings his parents in to back him up. But they are not the only adults involved. An FBI agent who has been working the case these past five years believes that whoever this girl is, she can serve as bait to help the FBI capture the fugitives.

In this powerful novel that explores the possibility of mistaken identity, the evils of money and greed, and the heartfelt obligations of family and loyalty, Caroline B. Cooney has once again crafted a page-turner that will resonate with readers.

Caroline B. Cooney is the bestselling author of many books for young people, including the Janie quartet.

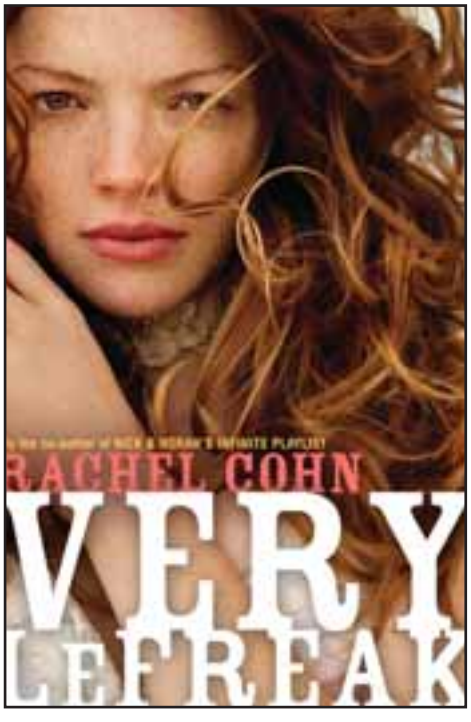
Meet Very LeFreak, the girl addicted to technology in any form.



Very LeFreak

RACHEL COHN

VERY LEFREAK HAS a problem: she's a crazed technology addict. Very can't get enough of her iPhone, laptop, IMs, text messages, whatever. If there's any chance the incoming message, call, text, or photo might be from her super-secret online crush, she's going to answer, no matter what. Nothing is too important: sleep, friends in mid-conversation, class, a meeting with the dean about academic probation. Soon enough, though, this obsession costs Very everything and everyone. Can she learn to block out the noise so she can finally hear her heart?

Rachel Cohn makes her Knopf solo debut with this funny, touching, and surely recognizable story about a girl and the technology habit that threatens everything.

Rachel Cohn is also the author of Gingerbread, Cupcake, and Shrimp; and, with David Levithan, is the coauthor of Nick & Norah's Infinite Playlist and Naomi & Ely's No Kiss List. She lives and writes in Manhattan.

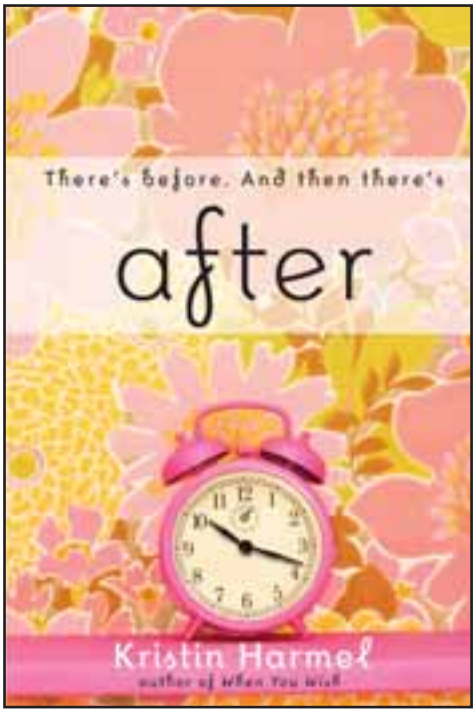
What if you didn't get a chance to say good-bye?



After

KRISTIN HARMEL

LACEY'S WORLD SHATTERS when her dad is killed in a car accident. And secretly? She feels like it's her fault. If she hadn't taken her own sweet time getting ready that morning . . . well, it never would have happened. Her mom wouldn't be a basket case. Her brother Logan wouldn't drink. And her little brother would still have two parents.

But life goes on even if you don't want it to. And when Lacey gets the chance to make a difference in the lives of some people at school, she jumps at it. Making lemonade out of lemons is her specialty. Except she didn't count on meeting a guy like Sam. Or that sometimes? Lemonade can be a pretty bitter drink to swallow.

Kristin Harmel is a longtime contributor to People magazine. It was while working on a People story that she got to meet Kate Atwood, who runs Kate's Club, an organization for grieving kids in Atlanta, which inspired this novel. Kristin lives in Orlando, Florida. To learn more about Kristin, visit her at www.kristinharmel.com.

Fresh Fiction from New Voices

It's a First!

See page 247 for details!

All it takes is an overweight, deaf, wisecracking outsider to solve this mystery!

The Dark Days of Hamburger Halpin

JOSH BERK

BEING A HEFTY, deaf newcomer almost makes Will Halpin the least popular guy at Coaler High. But when he befriends the only guy less popular than him, the dork-namic duo has the smarts and guts to figure out who knocked off the star quarterback. Will can't hear what's going on, but he's a great observer. So, who did it? And why does that guy talk to his fingers? And will the beautiful girl ever notice him? (Okay, so Will's interested in more than just murder . . .)

Those who prefer their heroes to be not-so-usual and with a side of wiseguy will gobble up this witty, geeks-rule debut.

This is Josh Berk's first novel. He lives in Allentown, Pennsylvania, and is a children's services librarian at the Allentown Public Library.

Filled with twists and turns, Kiss in the Dark will leave readers utterly spellbound.

Kiss in the Dark

LAUREN HENDERSON

WITH DAN McANDREW'S murder finally behind her, Scarlett has high hopes for a fresh start at Wakefield Hall Collegiate, the elite English boarding school her grandmother runs. Unfortunately, those hopes are dashed when her nemesis, the infamous Plum Saybourne, is transferred to the school. Plum wastes no time turning Scarlett's impressionable classmates against her.

Scarlett has dealt with Plum's nasty schemes before, and she can handle her archenemy very nicely, thank you—until Plum sets her sights on Scarlett's best friend, Taylor, and new boyfriend, Jase. Then Scarlett is more than willing to fight for what's rightfully hers.

Things only get worse after Scarlett becomes entangled in a mysterious death on campus. Scarlett is compelled to investigate because she wants to protect someone close to her. She never imagines that she'll uncover secrets related to her parents' fatal accident so many years ago. . . .

Lauren Henderson was born and raised in London, where she lives with her husband.

Token of Darkness

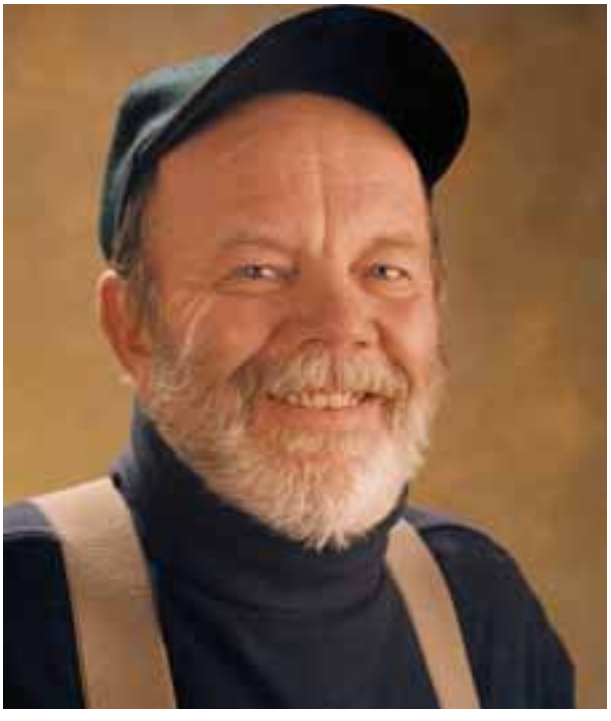
AMELIA ATWATER-RHODES

COOPER BLAKE HAS everything going for him—until he wakes from a car accident with his football career in ruins and a mysterious, attractive girl by his side. Cooper doesn't know how Samantha got there or why he can see her; all he knows is that she's a ghost, and the shadows that surround her seem intent on destroying her.

No one from Cooper's old life would understand what he can barely grasp himself. . . . But Delilah, the captain of the cheerleading squad, has secrets of her own, like her ability to see beyond the physical world, and her tangled history with Brent, a loner from a neighboring school who can hear strangers' most intimate thoughts. Delilah and Brent know that Cooper is in more trouble than he realizes, and that Samantha may not be as innocent as she has led Cooper to believe. But the only way to figure out where Samantha came from will put them all in more danger than they ever dreamed possible.

Amelia Atwater-Rhodes wrote her first novel, In the Forests of the Night, when she was 13 years old. Visit her online at www.ameliaatwaterrhodes.com.

Gary Paulsen plunges readers into the heroic struggle of the American Revolution.



Woods Runner

GARY PAULSEN

SAMUEL, 13, SPENDS his days in the forest, hunting for food for his family. He has grown up on the frontier of a British colony, America. Far from any town, or news of the war against the King that American patriots have begun near Boston.

But the war comes to them. British soldiers and Iroquois attack. Samuel's parents are taken away, prisoners. Samuel follows, hiding, moving silently, determined to find a way to rescue them. Each day he confronts the enemy, and the tragedy and horror of this war. But he also discovers allies, men and women working secretly for the patriot cause. And he learns that he must go deep into enemy territory to find his parents: all the way to the British headquarters, New York City.

Gary Paulsen is the distinguished author of many critically acclaimed books for young people. His most recent books are Lawn Boy, The Amazing Life of Birds, and Mudshark.

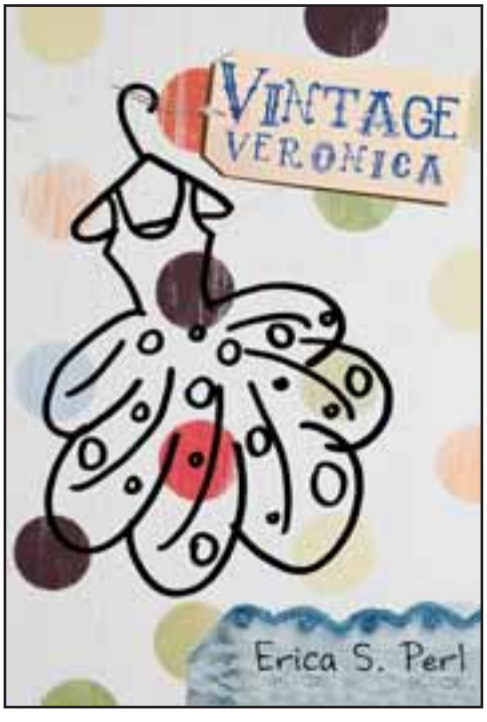
Meet Veronica Walsh, vintage clothing addict and social outcast.



Vintage Veronica

ERICA S. PERL

VERONICA WALSH IS 15, fashion-minded, fat, and friendless. Her summer job in the Consignment Corner section (Employees Only!) of a vintage clothing store is a dream come true. There Veronica can spend her days separating the one-of-a-kind gem garments from the Dollar-a-Pound duds, without having to deal with people. But when two outrageous yet charismatic salesgirls befriend her and urge her to spy on and follow the mysterious and awkward stock boy Veronica has nicknamed the Nail, Veronica's summer takes a turn for the weird. Suddenly, what began as a prank turns into something else entirely. Which means Veronica may have to come out of hiding and follow something even riskier for the first time: her heart.

Erica S. Perl is the author of three picture books: Chicken Bedtime Is Really Early, illustrated by George Bates; Ninety-three in My Family, illustrated by Mike Lester; and Chicken Butt! illustrated by Henry Cole. She lives in Washington, D.C., with her husband and two daughters.

Poisoned Honey

A Story of Mary Magdalene

BEATRICE GORMLEY

THIS STORY BEGINS with Mariamne, a vulnerable girl who knows little of the ways of the world. Much as she wants to be in control of her own destiny, she soon learns she has no such power. She must do as her father and brother see fit, and when tragedy strikes, Mari must marry a man she does not love and enter a household where she is not welcome, for the good of her family.

But she finds a small way to comfort herself when she meets an Egyptian wisewoman who instructs her in the ways of the occult arts. In the spirit world, Mari finds she has power. Here, she really is in control of her fate. But is she? Or is the magic controlling her?

This gripping portrait of one of the most misunderstood and controversial Biblical figures is the story of a young girl's path through manipulation and possession, madness and healing, to a man who will change the world forever.

Beatrice Gormley is the author of dozens of books, including Salome, Miriam, and Julius Caesar: Young Statesman. She lives in Westport, Massachusetts.

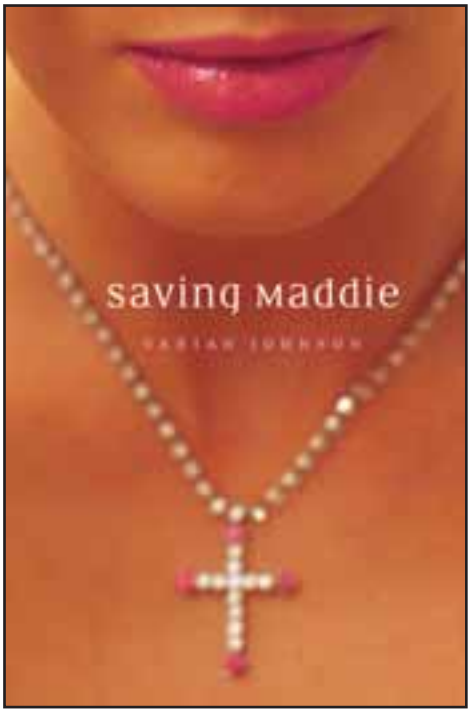
Josh is falling for the girl he's supposed to be saving. . . .



Saving Maddie

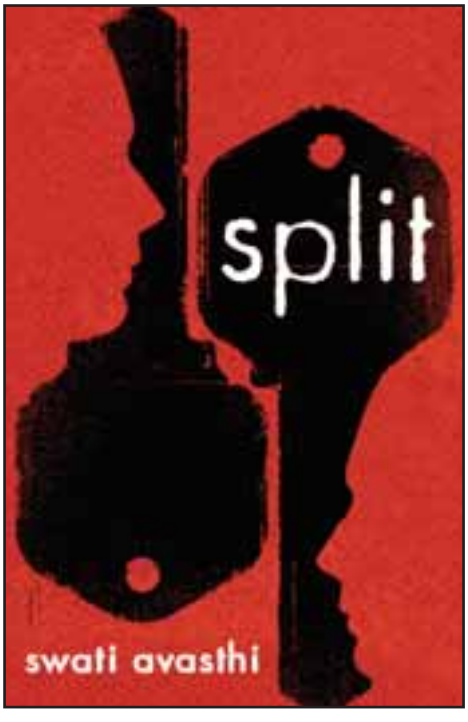
VARIAN JOHNSON

JOSHUA WYNN IS a preacher's son and a "good boy" who always does the right thing. Until Maddie comes back to town. Maddie is the daughter of the former associate pastor of Joshua's church, and his childhood crush. Now Maddie is all grown up, gorgeous—and troubled. She wears provocative clothes to church, cusses, drinks, and fools around with older men. Joshua's ears burn just listening to the things she did to get kicked out of boarding school, and her own home.

As time goes on, Josh goes against his parents and his own better instincts to keep Maddie from completely capsizing. Along the way, he begins to question his own rigid understanding of God and whether, as his mother says, a girl like Maddie is beyond redemption. Maddie leads Josh further astray than any girl ever has . . . but is there a way to reconcile his love for her and his love for his life in the church?

Varian Johnson is the author of the critically acclaimed My Life as a Rhombus. He lives in Austin, Texas.

Running is easy, but true escape is near impossible.



Split

SWATI AVASTHI

SIXTEEN-YEAR-OLD JACE WITHERSPOON arrives at the doorstep of his estranged brother Christian with a re-landscaped face (courtesy of his father's fist), $3.84, and a secret.

He tries to move on, going for new friends, a new school, and a new job, but all his changes can't make him forget what he left behind—his mother, who is still trapped with his dad, and his ex-girlfriend, who is keeping his secret. At least so far.

Worst of all, Jace realizes that if he really wants to move forward, he may first have to do what scares him most: He may have to go back.

First-time novelist Swati Avasthi has created a riveting and remarkably nuanced portrait of what happens after. After you've said enough, after you've run, after you've made the split—how do you begin to live again? Readers won't be able to put this intense page-turner down.

Swati Avasthi teaches creative writing and is working toward her MFA at the University of Minnesota, where she received a grant to complete Split. She lives in Minneapolis with her husband and their two children.

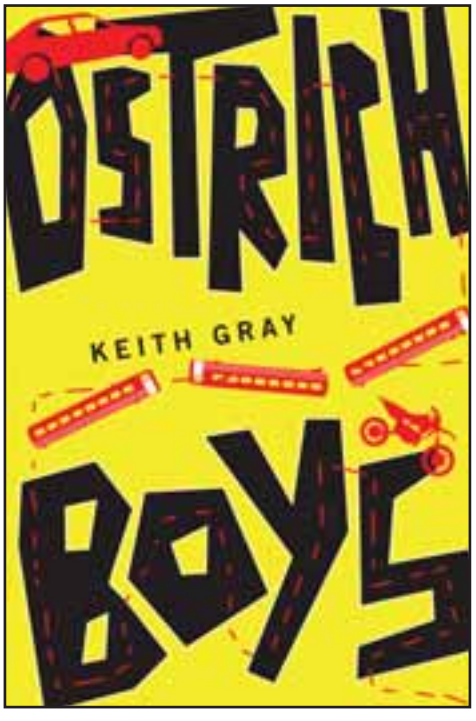
Your best friend's funeral was a joke? Steal his ashes and do it yourself!



Ostrich Boys

KEITH GRAY

ROSS IS DEAD, and Blake, Sim, and Kenny are furious. To make it right, they steal Ross's ashes and set out from their home on the English coast for the tiny village of Ross in southern Scotland, a place their friend had always wanted to go. What follows is an unforgettable journey with illegal train rides, bungee jumping, girls, and high-speed police chases—all with Ross's ashes along for the ride. As events spin wildly out of control, the three friends must take their heads out of the sand long enough to answer the question: What really happened to Ross?

Keith Gray is an award-winning author from the United Kingdom, making his U.S. debut with this action-packed and darkly humorous novel about friendship and loss.

"Funny, page-turning and profound."—The Sunday Times

"One of the most admirable, affecting, and life-affirming books published this year."—The Bookseller

Keith Gray has won the Angus Book Award and the silver medal in the Smarties Prize. Visit him at his Web site, www.keith-gray.com.

The Dead-Tossed Waves

CARRIE RYAN

GABRY LIVES A quiet life. As safe a life as is possible in a town trapped between a forest and the ocean, in a world teeming with the dead, who constantly hunger for those still living. She's content on her side of the Barrier, happy to let her friends dream of the Dark City up the coast while she watches from the top of her lighthouse. But there are threats the Barrier cannot hold back. Threats like the secrets Gabry's mother thought she left behind when she escaped from the Sisterhood and the Forest of Hands and Teeth. Like the cult of religious zealots who worship the dead. Like the stranger from the forest who seems to know Gabry. And suddenly, everything is changing. One reckless moment, and half of Gabry's generation is dead, the other half imprisoned. Now Gabry only knows one thing: she must face the forest of her mother's past in order to save herself and the one she loves.

Carrie Ryan lives in Charlotte, North Carolina. You can visit her at www.carrieryan.com.

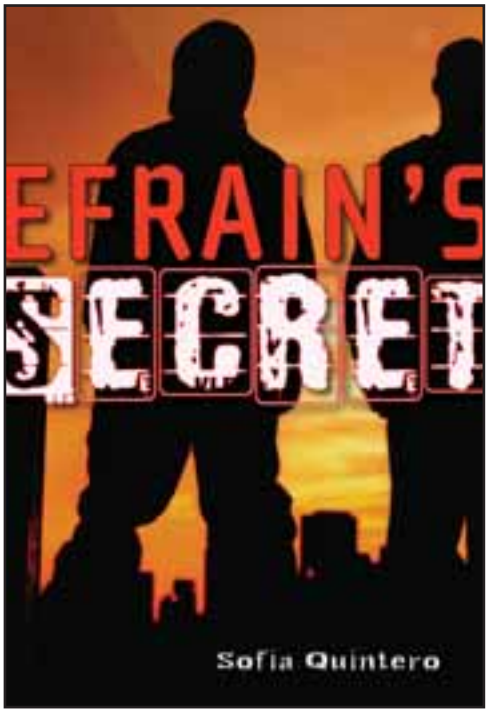
What happens when a good kid makes a decision to lead a double life?



Efrain's Secret

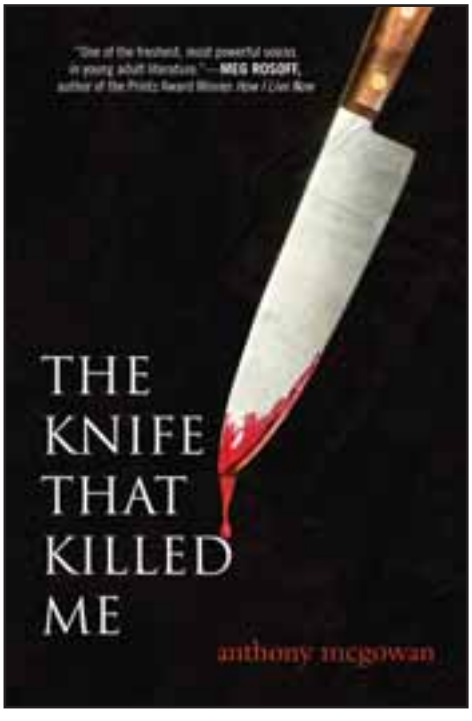
SOFIA QUINTERO

AMBITIOUS HIGH SCHOOL senior Efrain Rodriguez dreams of escaping the South Bronx for an Ivy League college like Harvard or Yale. But how is his family going to afford to pay for a prestigious university when Moms has to work insane hours to put food on the table as it is? And Efrain wouldn't dare ask that good-for-nothing father of his who has traded his family in for younger models. Left with few options, Efrain chooses to do something he never thought he would. He embarks on a double life—honor student by day, drug peddler at night—convinced that by temporarily capitulating to society's negative expectations of a boy like him, he can eventually defy them.

Sofia Quintero makes a stunning debut writing for young adults with this gritty, complex, and real exploration of the life of an urban teen whose attempt to leave one world behind for a better one could cost him everything.

Sofia Quintero is a writer, an activist, an educator, a speaker, and a comedienne. She has written several hip hop novels under the pen name Black Artemis and also writes "chica lit" under her real name. This self-proclaimed "Ivy League homegirl" graduated from Columbia University and lives in the Bronx.

"One of the freshest, most powerful voices in young adult literature."—Meg Rosoff



The Knife that Killed Me

ANTHONY McGOWAN

PAUL VARDERMAN COULD be at any normal high school where bullies, girls, and annoying teachers are just part of life. But "normal" doesn't apply when it comes to the school's biggest bully, Roth—a twisted and threatening thug with an evil agenda.

When Paul ends up delivering a message from Roth to the leader of a gang at a nearby school, it fuels a rivalry with immediate consequences. Paul attempts to distance himself from the feud, but somehow Roth keeps finding reasons for him to stick around. Then one day Roth hands him a knife. And even though Paul is scared, he has never felt so powerful.

Anthony McGowan was born in Manchester, brought up in Leeds, and lives in London. His previous novels for young adults are Hellbent and Jack Tumor.

It's a jungle out there for Sebastian and friends as they explore the unknown.

Sebastian Darke: Prince of Explorers

PHILIP CAVENEY

SEBASTIAN DARKE; HIS snarky buffalope, Max; and fierce fighter Cornelius are off on another hair-raising quest after being hired by a rich merchant to seek out the legendary lost city of Mendip. Not only must they find it, they must bring back valuable proof of its existence. Sebastian doubts they'll reach their destination after trudging through miles of jungle filled with warrior beasts and terrifying tribes. But then he meets the beautiful Keera, whose people believe he's the Chosen One sent to free their tribe from their brutal enemy. Little do they know that Sebastian is definitely not the hero type. He just wants to bring back valuable proof of the lost city. But will the price they must pay outweigh the rewards?

Philip Caveney has written many novels for adults. This is the companion to his first books for young adults, Sebastian Darke: Prince of Fools and Sebastian Darke: Prince of Pirates. He lives in England.

Three Rivers Rising

A Novel of the Johnstown Flood

JAME RICHARDS

SIXTEEN-YEAR-OLD CELESTIA SPENDS every summer with her family at the elite resort at Lake Conemaugh, a shimmering Allegheny Mountain reservoir held in place by an earthen dam. Tired of the society crowd, Celestia prefers to swim and fish with Peter, the hotel's hired boy. It's a friendship she must keep secret, and when companionship turns to romance, it's a love that could get Celestia disowned. These affairs of the heart become all the more wrenching on a single, tragic day in May, 1889. After days of heavy rain, the dam fails, unleashing 20 million tons of water onto Johnstown, Pennsylvania, in the valley below. The town where Peter lives with his father. The town where Celestia has just arrived to join him. This searing novel in poems explores a cross-class romance—and a tragic event in U. S. history.

Eleven very different points of view . . . one party.

Party

TOM LEVEEN

IT'S SATURDAY NIGHT in Santa Barbara and school is done for the year. Everyone is headed to the same party. Or at least it seems that way. The place is packed. The beer is flowing. Simple, right? But for 11 different people the motives are way more complicated. As each character takes a turn and tells his or her story, the eleven individuals intersect, and reconnect, collide, and combine in ways that none of them ever saw coming.

How They Met, and Other Stories

DAVID LEVITHAN

JUST IN TIME for Valentine's Day comes a confection from David Levithan that is sure to have fans of Boy Meets Boy eager to devour it. Here are 18 stories, all about love, all kinds of love. From the aching for the one you pine for, to standing up and speaking up for the one you love, to pure joy and happiness, these love stories run the gamut of that emotion that at some point has turned every one of us inside out and upside down.

What is love? With this original story collection, David Levithan proves that love is a many splendored thing, a varied, complicated, addictive, wonderful thing.

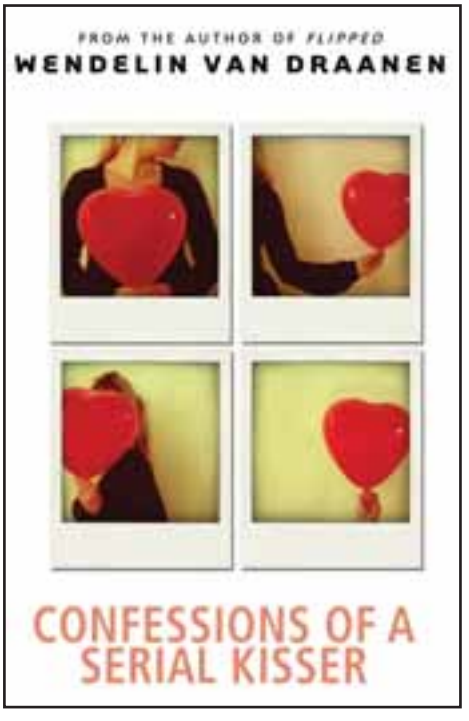
Does the perfect kiss exist? Enquiring lips want to know!



Confessions of a Serial Kisser

WENDELIN VAN DRAANEN

EVANGELINE LOGAN WANTS a kiss. Not just any kiss—a "crimson kiss," like the one in a romance novel she's become obsessed with. The fact that she's never been kissed before might make this seem like a fantasy, but a very persuasive self-help book inspires her to "speak her fantasy, to see her fantasy, to live her fantasy!" And so the quest for a crimson kiss begins.

But the path to perfection is paved with many bad kisses—the smash mouth, the ear licker, the "misser," the tentative tight lipper.

And then it gets worse: the phrase "I don't kiss and tell" means nothing to the boys in her school. The gossip is ferocious. And worse: someone starts writing her name and number on the bathroom walls. Now boys are offering up their lips in the hallways. And worst of all, the boy she's just kissed turns out to be her best friend's new crush.

Wendelin Van Draanen has been everything from a forklift driver to a high school teacher, but is now enjoying life as a full-time writer. She lives in central California with her husband and their two sons.

★ "Enthralling . . . [a] story about the power of wishing."—Kirkus Reviews, Starred

The Decoding of Lana Morris

LAURA AND TOM MCNEAL

SIXTEEN-YEAR-OLD LANA MORRIS wishes her life were different, that she were somewhere else, someone else. Her foster mother wants her gone; she's stuck taking care of the other kids in the house; she longs to become closer to her foster father; and the only cool people around refuse to acknowledge her. Then Lana stumbles into Miss Hekkity's mysterious shop, and she begins to realize that she might actually have the power to change things—to make some of her wishes come true. But wishing isn't always as harmless as it seems. . . .

The McNeals's acclaimed novel offers true suspense, a whisper of magic, pitch-perfect dialogue, and a cast of compelling characters—some endearing, some malicious, all vivid and authentic.

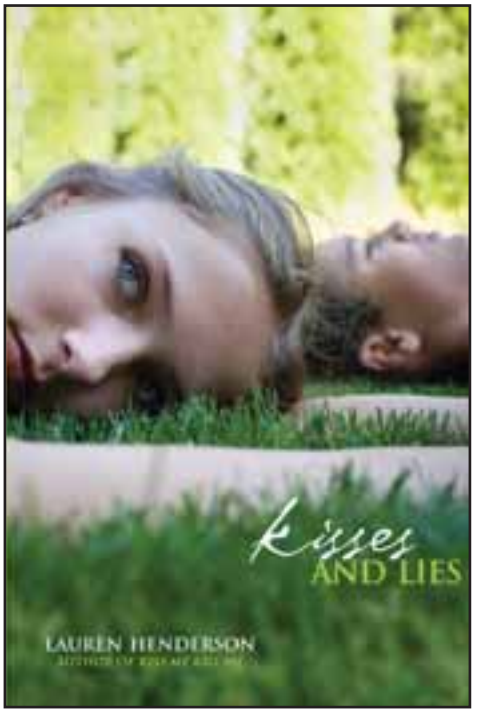
Is Dan McAndrew's killer still at large?



Kisses and Lies

LAUREN HENDERSON

SCARLETT WAKEFIELD IS hot on the trail of the murderer of Dan McAndrew, her first crush. Dan mysteriously dropped dead at Scarlett's feet at the first exclusive party she ever attended—just moments after kissing her.

Scarlett and her tough American sidekick, Taylor McGovern, follow a trail of clues that leads from a posh private club in London to a Chelsea mansion. Could Plum Saybourne, socialite princess and Scarlett's sworn enemy, be the owner of the designer handbag that might be the key to solving the mystery? Scarlett must cast a wide net to catch the right suspect—and to clear her own name.

Back at Wakefield Hall Collegiate, delicious groundskeeper Jase Barnes is doing his best to take Scarlett's mind off her secret troubles. But a startling discovery means that she must drop everything and travel to the McAndrew family's Scottish castle to hunt down Dan's killer.

Lauren Henderson is the author of several acclaimed "tart noir" mystery novels for adults, as well as the witty romance handbook Jane Austen's Guide to Dating, which has been optioned for film by producer Kiwi Smith. She was born and raised in London, where she lives with her husband.

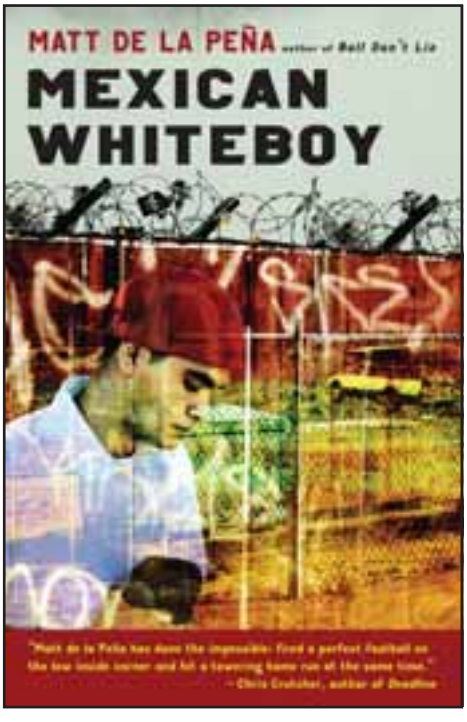
"Deftly explores the subject of interracial mixing."—Multicultural Review



Mexican WhiteBoy

MATT DE LA PEÑA

DANNY'S TALL AND skinny. Even though he's not built, his arms are long enough to give his pitch a power so fierce any college scout would sign him on the spot. Ninety-five mile per hour fastball, but the boy's not even on a team. Every time he gets up on the mound he loses it.

But at his private school they don't expect much from him. Danny's half Mexican. And growing up in San Diego means everyone else knows exactly who he is before they find out he can't speak Spanish, and before they realize his mom has blond hair and blue eyes. And that's why he's spending the summer with his dad's family. To find himself, he might just have to face the demons he refuses to see right in front of his face.

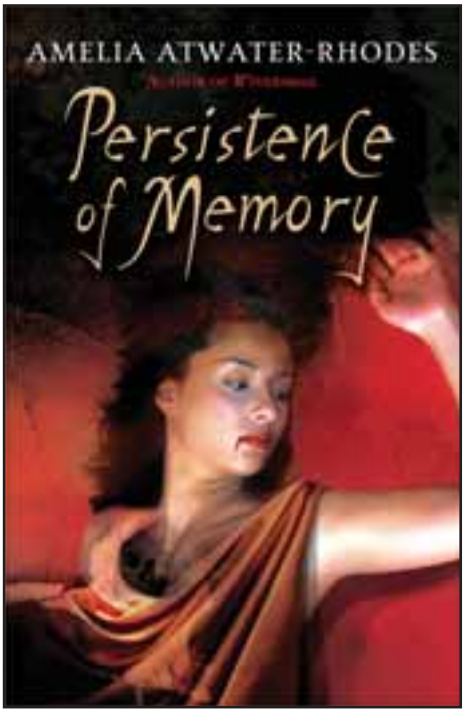
Her bite is your obsession.



Persistence of Memory

AMELIA ATWATER-RHODES

SIXTEEN-YEAR-OLD ERIN MISRAHE just wants to be like everyone else in her new school. But Erin has more to worry about than passing AP Chemistry or making friends. In times of stress, she has always been overcome by her alter ego, Shevaun, whose violent behavior wreaks havoc on those around her. Erin can never remember anything about these episodes, and she's grateful to have been spared them for a while.

But when a protective friend comes back into Erin's life, he insists that Shevaun is a vampire who actually exists apart from Erin. Shevaun has dangerous allies, like the handsome witch Adjila—and they're determined to sever Shevaun's connection to Erin once and for all.

"Compelling. . . . The world that Atwater-Rhodes has created is believable and intriguing. Hand this novel to the multitudes going through Stephenie Meyer withdrawal and they won't be disappointed."—School Library Journal

Bones of Faerie

JANNI LEE SIMNER

THE WAR BETWEEN humanity and Faerie devastated both sides. Or so 15-year-old Liza has been told. Nothing has been seen or heard from Faerie since, and Liza's world bears the scars of its encounter with magic. Trees move with sinister intention, and the town Liza calls home is surrounded by a forest that threatens to harm all those who wander into it. Then Liza discovers she has the Faerie ability to see—into the past, into the future—and she has no choice but to flee her town. Liza's quest will take her into Faerie and back again, and what she finds along the way may be the key to healing both worlds.

Janni Lee Simner's first novel for young adults is a dark fairy-tale twist on apocalyptic fiction—as familiar as a nightmare, yet altogether unique.

"With its dark, sharply imagined world, this will appeal to readers of Holly Black and Cassandra Clare."—Kirkus Reviews

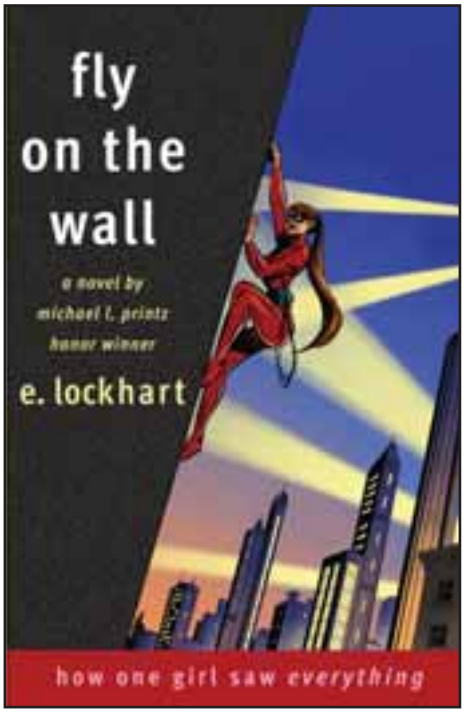
Fly on the Wall brilliantly captures a teen who sees everything in a new way!



Fly on the Wall

E. LOCKHART

ENTER GRETCHEN KAUFMAN YEE. Collector of plastic Chinese food. Art student. Spider-Man fanatic. Gretchen's in search of a big life. A superhero life.

Enter the Art Rats, a group of guys at her New York City art school. They're loud. Sweet. Annoying. Confusing. She can barely look at them, goes mute whenever they're near. Especially Titus. Delicious and smart. Absolutely on the radar.

Gretchen wishes she could be a fly on the wall of the boys' locker room, just to see what these guys are like when they think no one's watching.

And then . . . she is. A fly. On the wall of the locker room. She sees . . . EVERYTHING.

And nothing is how she thought it would be.

E. Lockhart is the author of three books about Ruby Oliver: The Boyfriend List, The Boy Book, and The Treasure Map of Boys. Her novel The Disreputable History of Frankie Landau-Banks is a Michael L. Printz Honor Book.

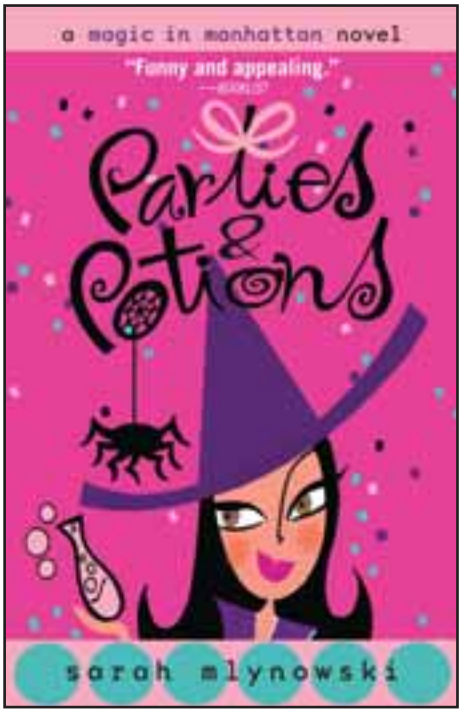
There's more magic in Manhattan when Rachel starts her sophomore year!



Parties & Potions

Magic in Manhattan

SARAH MLYNOWSKI

LIFE'S A BALL when you're a witch. Literally! This year Rachel and Miri are both debuting at a magical party called a Samsorta, a debutante ball for witches. That's right—the sisters have just discovered that there's a teen-magic scene. Who knew? And not only do these witches use their powers to throw some cool parties, but some of them zap up backstage passes to rock concerts; poof over to Paris for dinner; are boys.

Yes, boy witches, like supercute and charming Adam, who might have a crush on Rachel. Not that she's interested. She has Raf. The boyfriend she's madly in love with. Except that Raf—unlike Adam—can never, ever know she's a witch. Unless someone tells him.

Sarah Mlynowski's novels include the four books in the Magic in Manhattan series. Like Rachel, Sarah lives in Manhattan. Unlike Rachel, Sarah has no magical powers. Yet. Visit her anyway at www.sarahm.com.

Tender Morsels

MARGO LANAGAN

"THIS DARK FAIRY tale is as complex and brilliant as it is disturbing. The prose in this extraordinary fantasy is exquisite."—Chicago Tribune

Liga lives modestly in her own personal heaven, given to her by natural magic in exchange for her earthly life. Her two daughters, gentle Branza and curious Urdda, grow up in this soft world, protected from the violence, predation, and village prejudice that once harmed their mother. But the real world cannot be denied forever—magicked men and wild bears break down the borders of Liga's refuge. Now, having known heaven, how will these three women survive in a world where beauty and brutality lie side by side?

What They Always Tell Us

MARTIN WILSON

POPULAR, SMART, AND athletic, James seems to have it all. But the only thing James wants is his college acceptance letter, so he can get far away from Alabama after high school. He's tired of the same old parties; his so-called girlfriend, Alice; his ex, Clare—and especially his brother, Alex. In a town where secrets are hard to keep, everyone knows what Alex did at the annual back-to-school party.

With his friends no longer talking to him and his brother constantly in motion, Alex is prepared to get through junior year on his own. And he would if his neighbor Henry didn't keep showing up, looking for company. Even James seems intrigued by Henry. But what Alex cares most about is running, and when he's encouraged to try out for cross-country, Alex is surprised to find more than just a supportive teammate in his brother's friend Nathen.

The Forest of Hands and Teeth

CARRIE RYAN

IN MARY'S WORLD there are simple truths.

The Sisterhood always knows best.

The Guardians will protect and serve.

The Unconsecrated will never relent.

And, always mind the fence that surrounds the village. The fence that protects the village from the Forest of Hands and Teeth.

But slowly Mary's truths are failing. She's learning things she never wanted to know about the Sisterhood and its secrets and the Guardians and their power. And when the fence is breeched, and her world is thrown into chaos, about the Unconsecrated and their relentlessness. Now she must choose between her village and her future, the one she loves and the one who loves her. And she must face the truth about the Forest of Hands and Teeth. Could there be life outside a world surrounded by so much death?

ELENA IS QUIETER and steadier than her fun, unpredictable older sister, Dora. But they have always been close, and have always told each other everything. So when Dora is diagnosed with depression and has to be admitted to the hospital, Elena can't seem to make sense of their lives anymore. At school, the only people who acknowledge Elena are Dora's friends and Jimmy Zenk—who failed at least one grade and wears black every day of the week. At home, Elena's parents have started arguing with each other, and the arguments only get worse when Dora is finally discharged. Elena will do anything to help her sister get better and get their lives back to normal—even when the responsibility becomes too much to bear.

CHRISTINA MELDRUM

ASLAUG IS AN unusual young woman. Her mother has brought her up in near isolation, and she has no idea who her father might be. When Aslaug's mother dies unexpectedly, everything changes. For Aslaug is a suspect in her mother's death. And the more her story unravels, the more questions unfold.

Addictive, thought-provoking, and shocking, Madapple is a page-turning exploration of human nature and divine intervention—and of the darkest corners of the human soul.

Maggie Quinn: Girl vs. Evil
Highway to Hell
ROSEMARY CLEMENT-MOORE

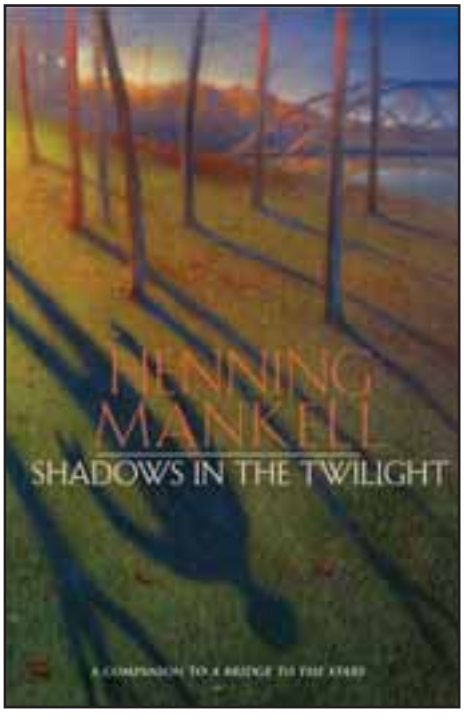
MAGGIE QUINN WAS expecting to find plenty of trouble with Lisa over spring break. Give a girl a bikini, a beach-front hotel, and an absent boyfriend, and it's as good as a road map to the dark side. And she and Lisa plan to enjoy every bit of it. Fire, brimstone, and demonic sorority girls, these ladies are officially off the clock.

But Maggie doesn't have to go looking for trouble. Trouble has started looking for her. One dead cow and a punctured gas tank later, she and Lisa are stuck in Dulcina, Texas, a town so small that it has an owner. And, you guessed it, lately life in this particular small town hasn't been all that peaceful. An eerie predator is stalking the ranchland.

Everyone in town has a theory, but not even Maggie's psychic mojo can provide any answers. And the longer the girls are stranded, the more obvious it becomes that something is seriously wrong.

Rosemary Clement-Moore lives in Texas. Visit her on the Web at www.readrosemary.com.

What do you do when a miracle has come your way?



Shadows in the Twilight

HENNING MANKELL

JOEL WILL SOON be 12, and he thinks nothing's going on in the small community where he lives. But he's wrong. One day, an accident that could have easily been a catastrophe turns into a miracle. Now Joel believes he owes the world a good deed, to prove that he deserved what might have been divine intervention. He thinks up an elaborate scheme, but it doesn't go as he'd anticipated. Even though his heart is in the right place, feelings are hurt. If he confesses what he's done and why, will things be put right again?

Henning Mankell deftly explores Joel's self-discovery, his realization that lives can be altered in a single moment, and his new understanding that a choice between telling the truth and keeping silent makes all the difference.

Henning Mankell is the prizewinning and internationally acclaimed author of novels for both adult and young readers.

One Lonely Degree

C. K. KELLY MARTIN

FIFTEEN-YEAR-OLD FINN HAS always felt out of place, but suddenly her world is unraveling. It started with The Party. And Adam Porter. And the night in September that changed everything. The only person who knows about that night is Audrey—Finn's best friend, her witness to everything, and the one person under thirty Finn trusts implicitly. So when Finn's childhood friend Jersy moves back to town, Finn gives her blessing for Audrey to date him. After all, how could she possibly say no to Audrey? With Audrey gone for the summer, though, Finn finds herself spending more and more time with Jersy, and for the first time since September—for the first time in her life—something feels right: absolutely, achingly right. But Finn can't be the girl who does this to her best friend . . . can she?

C. K. Kelly Martin lives in the greater Toronto area with her husband. Her first book, I Know It's Over, received two starred reviews and was named a Kirkus Best Book of 2008 and a New York Public Library Stuff for the Teen Age 2009 selection.You can visit her Web site and blog at www.ckkellymartin.com.

Romeo and Juliet and West Side Story

INTRODUCTION BY NORRIS HOUGHTON

WEST SIDE STORY, the most popular musical drama of our time, both on Broadway and as a movie, is based on one of Shakespeare's finest tragedies, Romeo and Juliet. In this volume are both works, which, though separated by centuries, parallel each other in many ways.

Norris Houghton was a theatrical producer and designer and cofounder of the Phoenix Theatre. He served as the first dean of the division of theater arts and film at State University of Purchase, New York.

John Bettenbender—who provided extensive notes for Romeo and Juliet—was an actor and playwright as well as a director.

The Fire-Eaters

DAVID ALMOND

BOBBY BURNS KNOWS he's a lucky lad. Growing up in the sleepy working-class town of Keely Bay, Bobby is exposed to all manner of wondrous things: stars reflecting off the icy sea, a friend that can heal injured fawns with her dreams, a man who can eat fire. But darkness seems to be approaching from all sides. Bobby's new school is a cold, cruel place. His father is suffering from a mysterious illness that threatens to tear his family apart. And the United States and Russia are testing nuclear missiles and creeping closer and closer to a world-engulfing war.

Together with his wonder-working friend Ailsa Spink and the fire-eating illusionist McNulty, Bobby teaches himself to believe in miracles to save the people and place he loves.

Heaven Eyes

DAVID ALMOND

ERIN LAW AND her friends are Damaged Children. At least that is the label given to them by Maureen, the woman who runs the orphanage they live in. Damaged, beyond repair, because they have no parents to take care of them. But Erin knows that if they care for each other they can put up with the psychologists, the social workers, the therapists—at least most of the time. Sometimes there is nothing left but to run away, to run for freedom. And that is what Erin and two friends do—run away one night downriver on a raft. What they find on their journey is stranger than you can imagine, maybe, and you might not think it's true. But Erin will tell you it is all true. And the proof is a girl named Heaven Eyes, who sees through all the darkness in the world to the joy that lies beneath.

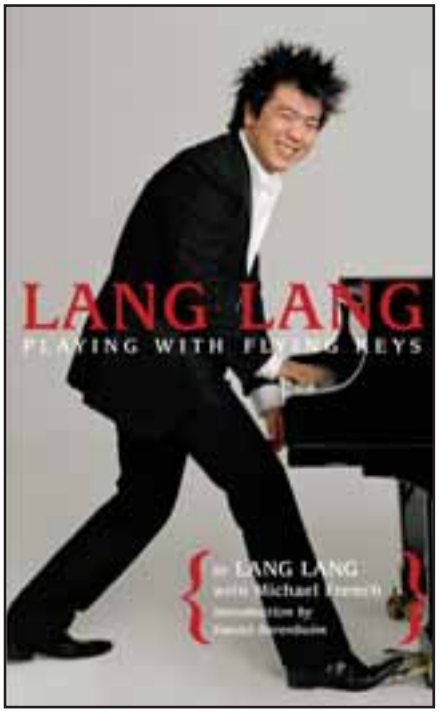
Meet Lang Lang—superstar of classical piano.



Lang Lang:
Playing with Flying Keys

LANG LANG
WITH MICHAEL FRENCH

LANG LANG WAS born in Shenyang, China, in 1982. At the age of three, he began to learn the piano. Today, he is one of the world's outstanding pianists. In this engrossing life story, adapted by Michael French, Lang Lang not only recounts the difficult, often thrilling events of his early days, but also shares his perspective on his rapidly changing homeland. He thoughtfully explores the differences between East and West, especially in the realm of classical music and cultural life. Shining through this rags-to-riches story of a child prodigy who came of age as a renowned musician, Lang Lang's positive spirit, his dynamic personality, and his enduring passion for music will inspire readers of all ages.

Lang Lang is the first Chinese pianist to be engaged by the Berlin Philharmonic, the Vienna Philharmonic, and all the leading American orchestras. Although he is on tour most of the year, he has homes in New York City and Beijing.

Michael French has published 20 books and has adapted many acclaimed works for young people. He divides his time between Santa Barbara, California, and Santa Fe, New Mexico.

The Latent Powers of Dylan Fontaine

APRIL LURIE

A MOTHER WHO split for another man.

A father who works 24/7.

An older brother who excels at everything—and smokes a lot of weed.

A best friend, of the feminine persuasion, who only wants to be a friend, and who's shooting a film set in cool Greenwich Village, New York.

Dylan Fontaine's life seems to be full of drama he can't control. But when he stars in his best friend's movie, Dylan discovers that sometimes life's big shake-ups force you to take risks—and to step into the spotlight.

"The healthy doses of humor balance this well-crafted story of a family in pain and a boy's self-discovery."—Booklist

"The cinematic ending is sure to pleasure."—School Library Journal

April Lurie's previous novels are Brothers, Boyfriends & Other Criminal Minds and Dancing in the Streets of Brooklyn. She lives in Round Rock, Texas.

Unraveling

MICHELLE BALDINI AND LYNN BIEDERMAN

AMANDA KNOWS ALL about preparing for the unexpected—her mother, whom she calls the Captain, is always hard on Amanda, and it's just when Amanda lets her guard down that the very worst comes through. Looking for acceptance, Amanda turns her attention to boys, and doing whatever she can to be popular at school. That includes making out with the gorgeous senior Rick in his car after school—even though he has a girlfriend. And when Rick offers her The Deal—a real, official date to the homecoming in front of everyone, for a price—Amanda jumps at the chance.

But no matter how you try to prepare for the unexpected, sometimes you can't. Smart, sensitive Amanda is nearly undone by The Deal. Retreating into her own world, Amanda reflects on the problems in her family—and how desperately she could use the Captain's advice, if only she knew how to ask for it.

Lynn Biederman, a former lawyer and school librarian, lives in Bedford, New York. Michelle Baldini lives in Ohio, where she works for the School of Library and Information Science at Kent University. Unraveling is their first novel.

BETHANY GRIFFIN

PARKER PRESCOTT IS an Ice Princess. Cold, aloof, a snob. At least, that's what everyone says on Marion Hennessey's blog. And everyone reads Marion Hennessey's blog.

Parker Prescott is a middle child. She's the good one, the dependable one, the one her parents trust. Well . . . she used to be.

Parker Prescott's parents want her to break up with her boyfriend. But she already did, two weeks ago. And then she realized it was a mistake. He came over. He had the handcuffs in his pocket. Everything went downhill from there. Sort of.

Parker Prescott's world is changing and she no longer knows who she is. Does anyone?

Bethany Griffin is a high school English teacher. She teaches and writes in Kentucky. Handcuffs is her first book for young readers.

A rollicking, ridiculous fantasy novel about finding where you belong.

The Order of Odd-Fish

JAMES KENNEDY

JO LAROUCHE HAS lived her 13 years in the California desert with her aunt Lily, ever since she was dropped on Lily's doorstep with a note.

At Lily's annual Christmas costume party, a variety of strange events take place that lead Jo and Lily out of California forever—and into the mysterious, strange, fantastical world of Eldritch City. There, Jo learns the scandalous truth about who she is, and she and Lily join the Order of Odd-Fish—a collection of knights who research useless information. Glamorous cockroach butlers, pointless quests, obsolete weapons, and bizarre festivals fill their days, but two villains—one quite silly, and one more demonic than you can possibly imagine—are controlling their fate. Jo is inching closer and closer to the day when her destiny is fulfilled, and no one in Eldritch City will ever be the same.

"Readers with a finely tuned sense of the absurd are going to adore the Technicolor ride."—Booklist

Bonechiller

GRAHAM McNAMEE

WHERE THE WIND has teeth and the chill can kill . . .

Danny is sick of running. Harvest Cove is the latest nowhere place he's drifted through with his dad. In summer, people come to stay in cottages on the vast lake. In winter, Harvest Cove is a ghost town hidden away in Canada's Big Empty. Danny's been running forever, but Harvest Cove might be his last stop. The place has a way of making people disappear.

As the cold sets in, the town turns to ice. Danny and his new friends stumble on a centuries-old nightmare. They start seeing things. Impossible things.

In this frozen wasteland, something is hunting them down. And in winter, there is no escape from Harvest Cove.

Graham McNamee won the Edgar Allan Poe Award for Acceleration, which was also an ALA-YALSA Best Book for Young Adults and a New York Public Library Book for the Teen Age. He received the first PEN/Phyllis Reynolds Naylor Working Writer Fellowship. He lives in Vancouver, Canada.

How Not to Be Popular

JENNIFER ZIEGLER

MAGGIE DEMPSEY IS tired of moving all over the country. Her parents are second-generation hippies who uproot her every year or so to move to a new city. When Maggie was younger, she thought it was fun and adventurous. Now that she's a teenager, she hates it. When she moved after her freshman year, she left behind good friends, a great school, and a real feeling of belonging. When she moved her sophomore year, she left behind a boyfriend, too. Now that they've moved to Austin, she knows better. She's not going to make friends. She's not going to fit in. Anything to prevent her from liking this new place and them from liking her. Only . . . things don't go exactly as planned.

Prey

LURLENE McDANIEL

RYAN PICCOLI IS a good-looking sophomore, smart, a class cut-up, but also a loner. His father travels; his mother is out of his life. Ryan spends his free time with friends. Then new teacher Lori Settles walks into his history classroom. She's the talk of the school, is considered hot and sexy, and she takes a special interest in Ryan.

One day after school, she surprises him with a request for a favor. Ryan is flattered and eager to help. As Ryan and Lori become more involved, Ryan's friends see changes in him. Even Ryan's father senses a difference in his son.

Ryan is torn between the excitement of his secret relationship with Lori and his former life. When Lori begins to make demands, he feels overwhelmed. But the thought of not having her is almost unbearable. And as events spiral out of control, both Ryan and Lori must deal with the consequences of the choices each has made—choices that change their lives forever.

Lurlene McDaniel is the #1 author of inspirational fiction for young adults. She lives in Chattanooga, Tennessee.

Sebastian and friends are after buried treasure.

Sebastian Darke: Prince of Pirates

PHILIP CAVENEY

SEBASTIAN DARKE, ALONG with his opinionated buffalope Max and the fierce fighter Cornelius are heading to the bustling port of Ramalat to embark on a perilous sea journey. They are ready to risk their lives in search of the fabled lost treasure of the pirate king, Captain Callinestra. But first, they must make it through the dark and mysterious forest of Geltane and survive an encounter with the beautiful and bewitching Leonora, a powerful enchantress with a magical hold over Sebastian's senses. And as if that wasn't bad enough, little do they know that when they finally reach Ramalat, a feisty female sea captain, an infamous young pirate, ravenous sea creatures, and furious sea battles await them.

But there's no turning back. Will they discover the lost treasure? Will Sebastian live to tell the tale? Will Max ever stop moaning?

Philip Caveney has written many novels for adults. This is his second book for young adults. He lives in England.

SAPPHIRE

NOW A MAJOR motion picture from Lee Daniels Entertainment starring Mo'Nique, Lenny Kravitz, Paula Patton and Gabourey "Gabbie" Sidibe, directed by Lee Daniels, produced by Gary Magness, Sarah Siegel-Magness, Lisa Cortes and Tom Helle (Monster's Ball).

Precious Jones, an illiterate 16-year-old, has up until now been invisible: invisible to the father who rapes her and the mother who batters her and to the authorities who dismiss her as just one more of Harlem's casualties. But when Precious, pregnant with a second child by her father, meets a determined and highly radical teacher, we follow her on a journey of education and enlightenment as Precious learns not only how to write about her life, but how to make it her own for the first time.

Fresh Fiction from New Voices

It's a First!

Where strong voices become bestsellers!

Random House Children's Books is dedicated to cultivating and nurturing new talent.

With proven editorial acumen, rich sales, marketing resources, publicity savvy, and production and design excellence, the Random House Children's Books team has worked together with its authors to give readers proven first-time successes, such as New York Times bestsellers Eragon by Christopher Paolini and A Great and Terrible Beauty by Libba Bray, as well as The City of Ember by Jeanne DuPrau and the Printz Award winner How I Live Now by Meg Rosoff.

The future of the book industry lies with new literary voices. For that reason, we are committed to growing alongside our authors by implementing unique publishing and marketing programs that enhance our lists and deliver continued success stories to you: the bookseller, the teacher, the librarian. We know that it is the love of children's literature we share with you that helps get these new voices into readers' hands and, for this, we thank you.

"As president of Random House Children's Books, I am always eager and excited to acquire new talent for our house and our readers. It is a thrill to open the doors of our house to a new voice. The unequaled teamwork that goes into each and every Random House Children's Book makes the challenge of breaking out a new author at a big house one that is unanimously embraced. I take great pride in knowing that we are contributing to the enrichment of young readers, as well as supporting new literary voices. Random House Children's Books is truly motivated by this and we certainly could not do it as successfully without the help of booksellers, teachers, and librarians who believe in our cause."—Chip Gibson

First Book and Random House Children's Books

Encouraging New Readers Together Since 1992

Dear First Book,

"I think and believe that books are important. . . . Books take me places like the stars."—Roshawn

"The importance of developing early literacy skills cannot be overstated: we know that our kids will do better in school and in life if they are given the opportunity to read and interact with books from a very early age. Because of First Book, millions of children in Head Start programs across the country experience the magic and wonder of reading every day."—Michael McGrady, Deputy Director, National Head Start Association

The most important thing that can be done to improve the literacy rate in our country is to ensure that children have access to books. This is true simply because the only behavioral measure that correlates significantly with reading scores is the number of books in the home. Having age-appropriate books on shelves at home can dramatically change the course of an otherwise disadvantaged child's life.

Since 1992, First Book has been placing brand-new books into the hands of children in need, profoundly impacting their lives. The First Book model was developed to leverage the work of local heroes who reach children through existing literacy programs in a variety of settings, such as Head Start centers, libraries, soup kitchens, churches, housing projects, and after-school initiatives. After receiving books from First Book, surveys verify that a child's interest in reading more than doubles, and that, in turn, they share that passion with others in their family.

First Book has distributed 50 million books over the past 15 years, but that's only a start. Random House is making a significant, multiyear commitment to First Book because, together, we have what it takes to make a real impact in our world.

A $1.00 cash donation to First Book results in $10 worth of books directly to children in need.

For more information about First Book and its national network of community organizations, visit www.firstbook.org.

Random House Children's Books is delighted to introduce ClassroomCast—a new marketing initiative that will provide entertaining and curriculum-based videos for a classroom environment in support of leading Random House authors and series. ClassroomCast will serve as an essential resource for teachers who are looking for ways to bring multimedia into their lessons and bring literature to life! These videos will show the authors discussing their work, doing research, and showing how they go about writing their books.

And best of all—it's free! Log on to www.rhcbclassroomcast.com for details. Look for additional downloadable resources for the classroom to support key lesson plans and get kids reading.

The participating authors in the launch of the ClassroomCast program will include Mary Pope Osborne, Paul Stewart and Chris Riddell, Jeff Stone, and Jennifer L. Holm and Matthew Holm.

RHCB

Random House Children's Books supports the First Amendment and celebrates the right to read.

In fact, we say so on every book.

Have you seen our First Amendment First-Aid Kit?

Visit www.firstamendmentfirstaid.com or www.randomhouse.com/banned for:

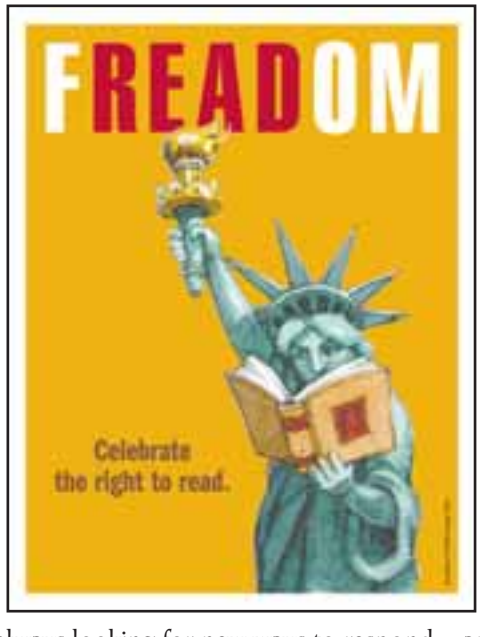
- Bookseller, librarian, and teacher guidelines on responding to book challenges
- A list of organizations that can assist
- Sample letter in support of books under attack

Downloadable posters and graphics

A statement of support for the First Amendment appears on the copyright page of every book we publish.

Through e-mail campaigns, resource lists and links, poster distributions, and participation in Banned Books Week, Random House Children's Books works to advocate for the First Amendment and provide assistance to those fighting censorship across the industry.



We're always looking for new ways to respond—and help others respond—to censorship issues. If you have suggestions, or stories to share, please contact us at firstamendment@randomhouse.com

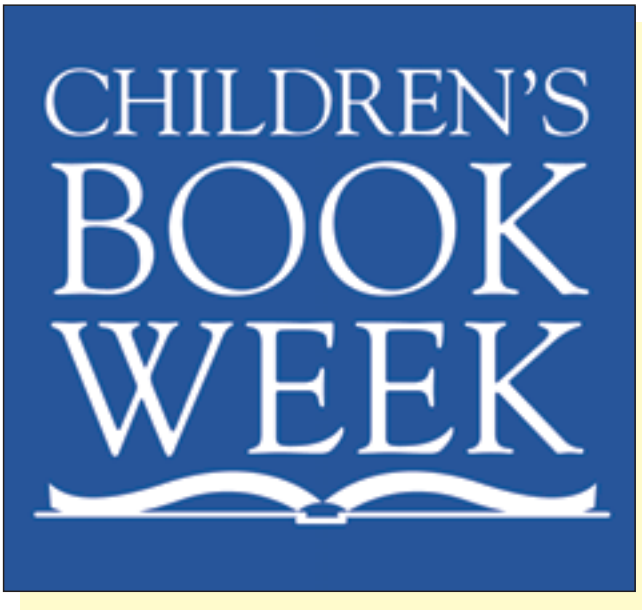
Children's Book Council



Celebrate Children's Book Week! The 91st annual observance of Children's Book Week will be May 10–16, 2010. A celebration of the written word, Children's Book Week introduces young people to new authors and ideas in schools, libraries, homes, and bookstores. Through Children's Book Week, the Children's Book Council encourages young people and their caregivers to discover the complexity of the world beyond their own experience through books. Special materials will be available from the Children's Book Council, including posters, bookmarks, and other items to decorate your walls, promote your events, and, most importantly, encourage kids to read. Be sure to visit the Children's Book Council's Web site at www.cbcbooks.org for more information, ideas, and materials for Children's Book Week 2010.

Random House Children's Books is a member of the Children's Book Council (CBC), a nonprofit trade organization that encourages the use and enjoyment of books and related literacy materials for young people. Our books from the current and immediately preceding year are available for examination at the CBC Library, 12 West 37th Street, 2nd Floor, New York, NY 10018. The library is open to the public from 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday.

The ISBN appears before the price. All of our hardcover books carry Library of Congress Cataloging-in-Publication Data. For information about cataloging, processing, and Gibraltar Library Binding (GLB) editions, please contact your supplier.

Dates, prices, titles, and manufacturing details of books are subject to change or cancellation without notice. The listing of a price for any title in this catalog is not intended to control the resale price.

Format abbreviations:
BR = board book
CS = cassette
DG = digest
EL = e-book
GLB = Gibraltar Library Binding
HC = hardcover
HC w/CD = hardcover with CD
MM = mass market
TR = trade paperback

Schools and Libraries

Place your orders for copies of the books in this catalog with your local bookstore or your usual distributors.

Co-operative Advertising

Co-operative advertising is available on all hardcover and trade paperback books for young readers.

Reading Levels

Reading levels suggest the grade level at which a book can be read and should be used only as a loose guideline. Those in this catalog were determined by one of several methods:

- the Fry Readability Scale for grades 1 up
- the Spache formula for grades 1–3
- the Dale-Chall formula for grades 4 up

Children's Book Council

Random House Children's Books is a member of the CBC. Our children's books published during the current and immediately preceding year are available for examination at the CBC library at 12 West 37th Street, 2nd Floor, New York, NY 10018-7480, from 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Modestly priced posters, mobiles, bookmarks, and other information and display items are available from the CBC. Write to them for further information, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Writing Contests

We are pleased to sponsor two annual writing contests: the Delacorte Press Contest for a first young adult novel and the Delacorte Dell Yearling Contest (formerly the Marguerite de Angeli Contest) for a first middle-grade novel. Submissions are welcome from all writers in the United States and Canada who have not previously published a novel for young adults or middle-grade readers, respectively. For information and contest rules, please write: Delacorte Press Contest (or Delacorte Dell Yearling Contest), Random House, Inc., 1745 Broadway, 9th Floor, New York, NY 10019
