

A Quarrel about Experience

What does it mean: A Great Experience?

What does it mean: You have to go through it?

Through thirst in the desert? Frost at the North Pole? Cannibalism and hunger among fragments of an airplane crashed at the foot of the mountains? Suffocation from lack of oxygen?

The cry of a single steaming drop of water will tell you about it.

A single grain of burning sand.