What if you had to hide something to save it?

Set during World War II in Germany, this groundbreaking novel is the story of Liesel Meminger, a foster girl living outside of Munich. Liesel scratches out a meager existence for herself by stealing when she encounters something she can't resist—books. With the help of her accordion-playing foster father, she learns to read and shares her stolen books with her neighbors during bombing raids as well as with the Jewish man hidden in her basement before he is marched to Dachau. This is an unforgettable story about the ability of books to feed the soul.

A spirited young woman haunted by an awesome power.

After the death of her mother, 16-year-old Gemma Doyle is shipped off to boarding school in England where Gemma learns that her mother was part of an ancient magical society called the Order. The Order has maintained the Realms, a fantastical spiritual world, for centuries. As Gemma and her new friends enter the Realms and discover its magic, they must make a difficult choice: use the magic to their advantage or protect the world and never use it again.
