New York, NY (September 27, 2011)—Delacorte Press will publish an original novel by Lauren Kate that is connected to her internationally bestselling series, Fallen (FallenBooks.com), it was announced today by Beverly Horowitz, the imprint's publisher. The novel, FALLEN IN LOVE, will be released in the United States and Canada on January 24, 2012, before the fourth and final title in the series, Rapture, is published. FALLEN IN LOVE is a riveting tale told through four intertwined love stories featuring the Fallen characters that fans have grown to know and love: Miles, Shelby, Roland, Arriane, and Luce and Daniel. The book was acquired by Horowitz from Michael Stearns and Ted Malawer of Tinderbox Books. It will be edited by Wendy Loggia, Lauren Kate's editor at Delacorte.

Since the publication of the first book, Fallen, in December 2009, Kate's series has become a bona fide smash hit with over 1.7 million copies in print in North America alone. Her story of star-crossed lovers (and fallen angels) has captured the hearts and imaginations of readers all over the world, with rights sold in 33 countries and counting. All bestsellers in the United States, the novels of the Fallen series: Fallen, Torment, and Passion, have become international sensations as well. The final novel in the series, Rapture, will be released in North America on June 12, 2012, taking readers on a journey that will close the chapter on Luce and Daniel's love forever.

Driving the success of the series is Kate's devoted and passionate following—and fans across the globe will be thrilled with FALLEN IN LOVE, which delves into angel mythology and will give them the much-talked about but never-revealed backstories of the Fallen characters as they intertwine with the epic love story of Luce and Daniel.
